Coos and Curry County Exchanges.

From the Sentinel.
Atty. G. T. Treadgold of Bandon was in Coquille Tuesday on business before the county court.

R. W. Dunham has received an offer to sail in the Alaskan waters, whether as cabin boy or cook we cannot say.

The Misses Jessie and Agnes Topper of this city and Bessie DeLong of Riverton returned to their school in Portland Wednesday.

Next week the Sentinel will present to its readers an article on the number of feet of lumber that has gone out over the Coquille and Coos bay bars.

The county court is still in session making up for the meetings that should have been held during the holidays declared by the governor.

The Sentinel received word from Orvil Dodge last week saying that Congressman Hawley and himself were going to visit the post-office department and file a protest against the condition in which the mail reaches Coos county.

The mail has been arriving in a little better condition, though Monday we had none, as the stage as usual broke down at Enchanted Prairie and a team was sent from Myrtle Point to bring it in.

Parties who were in town from Aberdeen, on the lower Coquille, last week, informed us that a move is on foot to change the name of that town. It seems that there is considerable trouble over mail matter, much of which intended for the Coquille town being forwarded to the old established town in Washington.

From The Port Orford Tribune.
The Steamer Bandon will call at Port Orford on her next trip from Frisco and land a lot of freight, if weather permits.

The Berwick came out of Rogue river last Thursday on her way to Coos bay with a load of salmon. Although she had goods for Port Orford and could have landed at the wharf-abright, she passed on by as if she had a spite against this place. She will land on her return providing she does not go by again.

Dr. Mann, of Langlois, started for Portland last Tuesday to attend a medical convention being held in that city.

Perley Crowley, of Sixes River, and Miss Stella Hart, were married Christmas at the home of the bride's parents in Brester valley, Coos Co.

Married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Miller of Ophir, on December 31, 1907, M. Jesse Pullen and Miss Roena Miller.

At Clifton, Oregon, on December 19, 1907, Rev. W. H. Cutter of Smith River, Cal., performed the ceremony of uniting in marriage Mr. Frederick J. Vitch and Miss Edith M. Cooley.

Lester E. Thompson and Miss Phoebe Edith McLain were married in the reception room of the White Temple at Portland, Tuesday afternoon, December 24, 1907.

Mrs. L. A. McBride of Port Orford passed through Bandon Monday on her way to Bandon to visit her daughter Mrs. Dave Carey and family.

Married at the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Haagensen Dec. 31, 1907, Miss Mary Haagensen and Mr. James Chenoweth, Rev. Roach of Bandon officiating. The newly married couple expect to reside in Langlois this winter.

Will Sorensen and wife returned to their home in Prosper after a week's visit with relatives and friends in Langlois.

The hardest fight that Curry county's board, has had to contend with in recent years was brought to end last Friday when the court accepted the bid submitted by Fred Hestess to build the Denmark-Sixes road. The contract price was $4449.

Clint Molehorn and Allie Guerin left Wednesday for San Francisco going by way of Bandon and from there will take a steamer. We did not learn how long they expect to be gone.

From the Sun.
Dr. Prentiss, the dentist, formerly of Marshfield, but now located at Bandon, was stricken last week with a stroke of paralysis.

John R. Herron is in receipt of a letter from Edwin Rose, of Bandon, wherein the latter expresses a desire to meet all comers in the 165-pound class for fistie honors.

The Steamer Bandon came around from the Coquille, Friday last, and completed her cargo of lumber, taking on 200,000 feet at the C. A. Smith mill. She sailed Sunday for San Francisco.

S. A. D. Pater, the notorious land fraud operator, who has been pardoned by the Federal government, will be rearrested when he steps from the Multnomah County jail. The arrest will be made on a warrant issued at Salem by the County Court on an order from the Circuit Court of Marion county. It was issued following Pater's indictment April 28, 1905, on a charge of subordination of perjury.—Review.
