Late rulings require every launch, whether for pleasure or otherwise, to have a whistle which may be used as a warning. In heavy fogs these are indispensable and as a safe guard all craft must have them. Warren Parker is local agent for the Parker Automatic Air Pump, which he claims has all others beaten a mile.

Prof. Hanshaw seems to be meeting with excellent success in organizing a class in writing and there are prospects that extra tables and seats will have to be provided to accommodate the number that will take lessons. The lessons in drawing will be given in the same school room on Saturdays.

Gene Osborn who has just returned from California and Nevada points out that people who have not been on the outside do not realize how bad conditions are. Thousands of men are out of work and broke. He says Bandon is good enough for him and that he will remain here for 99 years if permitted to do so.

An evening spent with the Hoyt's at the opera house next Monday night will be one most pleasantly spent. They present their original comedy, "James Jeffries, the World's Champion," a mishap from start to finish. An up-to-date balancing act by Sporting Smith and magic by Prof. Hoyt assisted by Mina Hoyt in mind reading and rifle shooting, will be features of the evening.

Last Thursday evening, in the presence of a large number of members and friends, the local lodges Woodman of the World and Women of Woodcraft held joint installation. Upon the conclusion of the installation Mr. Patterson rendered a solo which was duly appreciated by the crowd, after which supper was served. Games were played until a late hour.

The debate between the Coquille and Bandon High Schools has gone beyond talk and speculation and the respective teams are now down to hard work, for the question has already been selected and the sides chosen. The question is: "Resolved, that the best methods of building up our American Merchant Marine is by a system of Ship Subsidy." Bandon submitted the question and Coquille chose to defend the negative, and Bandon will accordingly support the affirmative of that question. The Bandon debaters are Blanche Radley, Maude Lowe and Roy Corson. The date of the contest has not yet been decided, but will probably take place during the latter part of February and will be held in Bandon. Three disinterested judges from towns other than Coquille or Bandon will be selected to try the merits of the case according to the evidence submitted.
