

Local Lore

The steamer Favorite is again on her regular run, trim and speedy as ever.

Seed Potatoes.—For seed potatoes enquire of J. H. Jones, Four-mile.

This paper wants a correspondent at Langlois, Riverton, Parkersburg, Radolph, Lampa and Bullards.

Rev. Horsfall will hold services in St. John's Episcopal church Sunday morning and evening.

Ever eat Oregon grown walnuts? R. H. Kosa Co. has them. Try them.

Rev. W. S. Gordon will fill his regular appointments next Sunday. Subjects, "Regeneration" and the "World's Greatest Emancipator."

Sweeney's First Addition property for sale on the installment plan by Bandon Investment Corporation.

The Bandon Concert Band will give a grand concert in the opera house February 29.

Mrs. Conrad has taken possession of her store with its complete new stock.

The Bandon Hardware company have put in a splendid assortment of farm and garden tools, and implements.

Charles H. Bramley is the new business manager of Mrsden's wholesale liquor house in Bandon. Charley is a popular fellow, and the business will suffer none at his hands.

Three choice lots in Woolen Mill Addition for $200. Bandon Investment Corporation.

The residence of Charles Lorenz was burglarized some time last week and many valuable articles taken. A search warrant revealed the articles in the house of a neighboring family. Prosecutions will probably follow.

FOR SALE.—Household goods and one 10x12 tent in good condition. Inquire of Wm. Irvine, opposite shingle mill.

Work on the extension and filling in of the north jetty of the bar goes steadily ahead, rain or shine, and Mr. Jacobson purposes losing just as little time as possible. We shall have more to say about this work in a future issue.

Frands Thomson, who was up last Saturday from his widely known Star dairy below Langlois, tells us that he has ordered and is now installing six milking machines and gas engine and pump on the ranch. These machines will expedite the work of drawing the lactal from his 150 dairy cows.

Archie Hollenbeck, who has been at Gravel Ford the past two months working in his brother, Wayne's, logging camp, returned home Saturday. Archie and Carl, other brothers, left for the latter's homestead in Bear creek Saturday.

People at Coos bay anxious to reach San Francisco in a hurry found the steamer Elizabeth going out of Bandon last Thursday a very convenient means of travel. Purser Biely tells us that he sold 18 tickets and could have sold 20 more if accommodations offered.

I will sell my household goods and a 10x12 tent in good condition. Inquire of Wm. Inquire, of Wm. Irvine, opposite shingle mill.

A steamship line between Portland and Coquille is the latest proposition to come from the Rose City. It is reported that two young men of means, residents of that city and practical steamship men and navigators, are promoting the project. A steamer is now being negotiated for which will be specially adapted for the ports in which it will call. It will have a draft of eight and one-half feet. Astoria, Tillamook, Bay City, Bandon and Coquille and possibly Coos Bay are named as the ports of the steamer's schedule. It is stated that later on another boat will be added should the traffic demand.—Times.

Souvenir Postcard Albums 15c to 75c at Rice, the Jeweler.

Chas. Dorrian, the life insurance man, is again mingling with Bandon friends.

Louis Spalling filed on a homestead Monday before the local commissioner.

The Bandon Concert Band will give a grand concert in the opera house February 29.

Alfred S. Miller, one of the candidates for sheriff in Curry, made the RECORDER a short but pleasant call Tuesday.

For Sale.—A horse weighing 900 pounds; a natural trotter. Apply to S. M. Rowan, Bandon.

Mazook Anderson, having recovered from his late attack of illness, is again on duty at the Hexipage saloon.

Col. C. T. Blumenrother has purchased a full supply of RECORDER'S Christmas edition; he will send them out as advertising for his firm.

Mrs. Steele returned from a visit at Maryfield Saturday. The lady, we understand, intends going soon to California for an extended sojourn.

The many friends of Reeves; the barber, will be pleased to learn that he has bought the 3-chair shop of a barber business in North Bend, and will continue one of our Coos county community.

Gurley Bask informs us that the new boiler for the steamer Dispatch did not arrive from Portland on the last Alliance, as was expected. It should, certain arrive on the next trip of that vessel.

Chas. Daily and mother left for their future home at Eureka, Cal., the first of the week, traveling by private conveyance down the coast. The best wishes of the community accompany them.

Geo. H. Baxter and wife came down from Coquille Tuesday to visit with Mrs. Baxter's sister, Mrs. Chas. Lorenz. Mr. Baxter was formerly business manager of the Coquille Sentinel. Mrs. Lorenz, who had been on a visit to Coquille, returned home to Bandon on the date mentioned with her guests.

George A. Gage, who is now marketing a fine article of coal from his mine at Riverton, was in town last Friday. He announced his intention of putting up a receiving shed for his product on the west end dock, in the rear of the Hotel Gallier, in the near future, and will cater to the wants of the people of Bandon.

J. H. Price, the ship builder, is on a visit to Portland and San Francisco. Accompanying him when he left was C. E. Bland, the gentleman who came here as the representative of McKay estate for whom Mr. Price has begun the construction of a new and second steam schooner at his yard. Mr. Bland greatly enjoyed his stay among us, and promises to come again soon.

W. H. Logan and his efficient crew of workmen, consisting of Messrs. Bert Walker, Pete Anderson, Jenkins Cope and others, finished the pile driving for the new creamery wharf east of the woolen mill last Thursday, and since then the task of capping and flooring the wharf has been in progress. The new creamery will have a substantial understructure for certain. The materials came from Col. Rosa's mill.

S. C. Smith, an employee at the Cody mill, sustained injuries by an accident, and had a very close call from instant death Thursday afternoon of last week. Mr. Smith was stooping over a revolving shaft to adjust some matter when his arm was drawn beneath a whirling belt in such way that his arm was not carried with the belt in its onward motion. His head, however, came in contact with a pulley and the forehead considerably lacerated, while various bruises were imparted to his arm. The machinery was finally stopped and Mr. Smith released from his perilous predicament, after which he came to town and had his injuries dressed by Dr. Houston.

The steamer Elizabeth is due Saturday from S. F.

Sherrif W. W. Gage was a Bandon visitor Friday.

Ole Holland had the misfortune to break a bone in his ankle while longshoring last Monday.

Mrs. Esau Prewett of Bear Creek has the thanks of the RECORDER for a generous supply of fine eating apples.

C. Stephenson, of Spokane is in Bandon. He contemplates locating a colony from the Inland Empire in our verdant valley.

E. M. Blackerby has received $1,000 on the life of his deceased wife from the Fraternal Aid society, one of Bandon's lodges.

Baptist meetings next Sunday in Pentecostal hall. Topics: morning, A Disappointed Christ; evening, A Welcoming Christ. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Rev John Thomas.

A. E. White, the Columbia avenue groceryman, was called to the bedside of his sick father recently. He left Friday morning for the parental home in Lloyd, Wisconsin.

A. M. Hitchcock, the local contractor, report, having had all the business he could attend to here, late. He has built several houses and has another in contemplation.

Alvin Munck expects to move his business from the Blackerby building to the fine new quarters near the woolen mill about the first of March. His place will then be known as the Eagle Saloon instead of the Anchor Bar.

Ben Schuyler got back from his health seeking tramp down the coast Monday evening. He didn't walk quite to San Francisco—only as far as Port Orford, and returned by stage. Ben says he and walking have agreed to disagree.

Captain Ott Willard is preparing to move his family from Coquille to Bandon, he having started the erection of a house in the western part of town. Captain Willard, as all know, is having a passenger boat built for the Bandon-Coquille run, and his headquarters are going to be at this end of the route.

We understand that Prof. Henshaw's writing class has largely increased in numbers since the quarantine has ended, and it is desired to state that there is still room for a few more. No pay will be expected for any lessons that have been missed in the past in consequence of the quarantine. No tuition required in advance.

L. R. Morehead, a gentleman of mercantile profession, arrived in Bandon from Washington state Tuesday evening, and is looking about with a view of locating among us. He carried on an exclusive shoe business at his former location, but would willingly engage in general lines. His family is still in Washington.

Saturday evening, February 15th, Juan Rebekah lodge, of this city held a special meeting for the purpose of conferring the Rebekah degree upon four candidates. At 10 o'clock a few invited friends were admitted, and the time was pleasantly passed in games of whist until lunch was served, after which a number left and went over to the Bank hall to round out the evening by dancing. About twenty remained, and the rest of the evening was passed in singing songs, both old and new, that were familiar to all. At 2 o'clock the party reluctantly left for their homes.

The social event of the season will be the first annual ball of the local tribe of Redmen, to be given at Bank hall on Saturday evening next. No possible detail has been overlooked to make it an affair to be remembered, and from indications there will be a rousing attendance. The Seaside orchestra will, of course, furnish the music, which is evidence of the best in that respect. A novel and highly entertaining feature will be the opening match of the Redmen in full aboriginal attire, this to be followed by the usual grand march and dancing. Prepare to attend.

Note the new ads. of Panter Bros. store and Mrs. Conrad in this issue.

Attorney T. B. Wheeler left yesterday for Coquille on legal business.

Irving S. Bath left for Hillsboro, driving overland to Coos Bay, Saturday morning.

The Bandon Concert Band will give a grand concert in the opera house February 29.

Erman H. Osborn and family arrived from Sisson, California, last Friday with the object of locating in Bandon.

Miss Florence Walstrom of Coquille was down Saturday, coming especially to attend the Rebekah lodge on that evening.

Mrs. Myers and the Misses May Yod and Blanche Radley were successful applicants from this place at the recent Teacher's Examination held in Coquille.

The final account in the Randleman estate was allowed by County Judge Hall, Saturday. The property is distributed in accordance with the will and the probate closed up.

Commencing this, Thursday, evening there will be preaching services each evening, continuing over Sunday, at the Saints chapel: Sunday school at ten a. m. with preaching following on Sunday. This invitation is to you. Come. D. E. Stitt, pastor.

For Sale.

40 acre Dairy Ranch, 1-4 mile from plank road, 2 miles from Bandon. $35 per acre. C. H. Chandler, Bandon.

WATCH AND JEWELRY REPAIRING executed promptly and reasonably. VAN NORDEN, the Jeweler.

Notice of Street Improvement.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Trustees of the Town of Bandon, Coos County, Oregon, by order duly passed on the 19th day of February, 1908, which order is duly entered in the journal of the proceedings of the said Board for that day, does propose to improve a portion of Atwater street as follows: Beginning at the east line of intersection with Columbia avenue and improve the said street by bridge work and plank extending from said beginning eastward for 700 feet more or less, to ground above tide water, and in all respects similar to the work on the west end of Atwater street just completed.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that unless two-thirds of the property upon such street file a written remonstrance against such improvements with the Recorder of said town, within Ten (10) days from the final publication of this notice, which notice will be upon Thursday, the 5th day of March, 1908, that an Ordinance will be passed by the said Board of Trustees establishing the grade upon the said street, and also appropriate funds for all said work, by levying an assessment upon the adjacent and abutting lots or tracts of land in proportion to the frontage thereof upon said street, which Ordinance will further provide for the collection of such assessments, in accordance with law.

Further provided that the Town will not pay for any planking or other part of the said improvement.

Dated at Bandon, Oregon, February 29th, 1908.

C. R. WADEA, Recorder of the Town of Bandon.

Write For Prices on Gasoline, Distillate, Launch Supplies

Mianus : Engines
Coos Bay Oil & Supply Co.
Marshfield, Ore. Phone 33
J. W. FLANAGAN W. M. LAWLOR

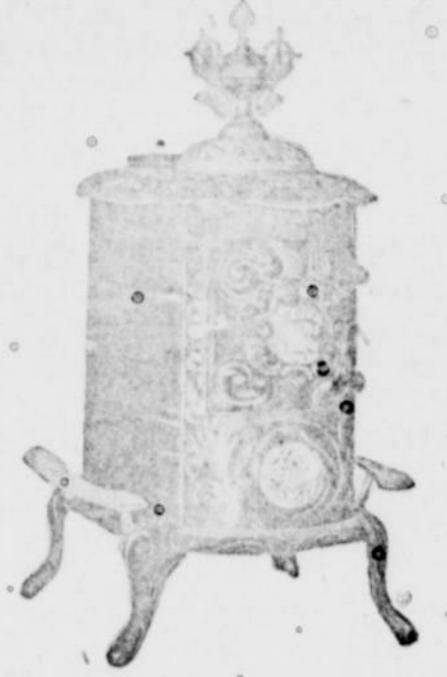

The Eagle Saloon
ALVIN MUNCK, Proprietor
FORMERLY ANCHOR BAR

Will be located in fine new quarters east of the Postoffice, after March 1st, 1908.

Choicest Wines, Liquors and Cigars

GOOD BILLIARD AND POOL TABLES
Courteous Treatment
Call and See "MUNCK"

STEIGER & HERR'S OCCIDENTAL STOVES RANGES. NEVER FAIL.

Bandon Hardware Co

Opposite Post Office.

Something Worth While!

One young lady attended our school exactly three months and then accepted a position as stenographer at $50.00 per month. She will have her salary increased soon. Her employers are pleased with her work. You cannot afford to neglect an opportunity like this. Let us prepare you to make the best of your natural ability. MILLER-CLEAVER BUSINESS COLLEGE, NORTH BEND, OREGON.

Smoke Cigars

Bob Bow Man, Walpole, Yankee Edort, Don Ventura

"I Hit the Spot Every Time."

Awarded Silver Medal at World's Fair, St. Louis, 1904.

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.

McKenzie, The Tailor

Style and Fit Guaranteed

CLEANING AND PRESSING

All Work Done Promptly
Opposite Post Office

G. H. Smith
Bandon Co-Operative Realty Co.
Real Estate and City Property

Residence and Business Lots Sold and Exchanged, A general Brokerage Business. Timber, Farm Lands, Collections, Rents

Crosman Timmon, President G. T. Treadgold, Sec
R. H. Rosa, Vice-President A. E. Hadsall, Treas.

Sweeney & Walker's Addition is now on the Market.

Bandon Investment Corporation Inc. May 6, 1907

Sole Agents.

REAL ESTATE - TOWNSITES - PROMOTIONS BANDON

The Recorder and the Weekly Oregonian per year, $2.25