Rev. George A. E. Troutman, Mt. Washington, Mo., Writes

"My Wife and I Are Strong Believers in Pe-ru-na."

Catarra and La Grippe.

REV. GEORGE A. E. TROUTMAN

troubled with a peculiar spasmodic affection of the throat. It would seize me suddenly and for a few minutes I would be unable to speak audibly, and my breath would be greatly interfered with. I would be obliged to gasp for breath.

"I finally concluded that it was some catarrhal affection which probably excited the spasm. It interfered with my vocation as a preacher, attacking me occasionally in the pulpit.

"I had heard so much about Peruna as a catarrh remedy that I determined to try it. After taking two bottles, my trouble has disappeared. I feel sure that Peruna has greatly benefited me."

Rev. P. E. Swanstrom, Swedish Baptist pastor, Box 228, Grantsburg, Wis., writes that from the use of Peruna he is perfectly well, entirely cured of chronic diarrhea and catarrh.

Peruna in Tablet Form.
For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistant have incessantly labored to create Peruna in tablet form, and their strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna Tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

I was cured of a bad case of catarrh when nothing else that I tried had any effect. My wife was cured from a severe case of la grippe, and we feel that the least we can do is gratefully acknowledge the merit of Peruna.

"My wife joins me in sending best wishes for your success."

UNCLE SAM'S BEST DETECTIVE.

William J. Burns is credited with that distinction. William J. Burns, who is working up the evidence against the officials of San Francisco, is the best detective in the service of the United States government. His work for the secret service is one of the unwritten classics of the service. The rounding up of the biggest counterfeiting operators that have ever appeared in the country—the Philadelphia-Lancaster gang—was his case. He had many assistants, but he was at the head of the investigation. The Taylor-Bredell gang, as it was called, made $100 silver certificates that got by bank tellers and skilled clerks in subtrees as readily as the genuine notes. This gang, made up of wealthy men, manufactured counterfeit internal revenue stamps, by means of which they defrauded the government out of $200,000 in stamps.

As an outgrowth of that trial, Ellery P. Ingham, former United States attorney at Philadelphia, and his assistant, Harvey K. Newitt, were convicted of a charge of attempting bribery. The four counterfeiters were each sent to the penitentiary for twelve and one-half years. Burns later got these men for making counterfeit $20 notes out of $1 silver certificates while they were still confined in jail, the counterfeiters having, by the application of extraordinary ingenuity, managed to engrave a set of plates in jail. Burns worked up the Oregon land fraud cases which led to the conviction of Senator Mitchell and others. On a number of occasions President Roosevelt has selected him for important duty.

CAPTAIN WINS THE CROSS.

Proves to His General That His Assertion is True.

The Russian field marshal Paskievitch records the following incident: On one occasion he had ordered a well-sustained shell fire to be opened on a certain point which obstructed him in his operations and impatiently awaited the result. Seeing that his orders were not obeyed, Paskievitch set spurs to his horse and galloped toward the eminence on which the unlucky battery was stationed.

"Who is the fool in command here?" he asked.

"I am," answered an officer, stepping up to the general.

"Well, captain, how is it your shells have not got to work yet?"

"Because they are bad and won't explode, general."

"All bosh, I tell you, sir; you don't catch me with such silly stuff. This very evening you shall be tried by court martial."

The captain then took a shell out of the heap, lighting the fuse, and holding the smoking projectile in his hand he saluted his superior officer, saying: "See for yourself!" Paskievitch, without winging, stood with folded arms awaiting to see whether the shell would burst or the fuse go out. When the match had gone out the captain threw the shell on the ground and the general, muttering to himself, "He is right," rushed off to the scene of action to take some other measures. The same evening, however, he sent the captain the cross of St. Vladimir.—London Telegraph.

Doing His Share.
"Do you contribute to the happiness and prosperity of others without expecting any selfish reward?" asked the sincere man.

"I should say so," answered the crusty citizen. "I have for years been making directors happy and prosperous by paying life insurance premiums."—Washington Star.

Just His Way.
"That was a sly trick. I'll bet Slyman was the author of it."

"Why, there isn't the slightest evidence to connect him with it."

"That's just why I'm sure he's at the bottom of it."—Philadelphia Press.

When Something Comes of It.
Nell—These men who are always trying to kiss you make me very tired.
Belie—Me, too! There's nothing I admire so much as a successful man.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Royalty's Whiskered Conversation.
The emperor and empress of Japan when receiving a visitor whom they have not met before, generally converse in whispers.

How Is Your Blood?

If you lack strength, are nervous, have no appetite, don't sleep well, get tired easily, your blood is in bad condition. You cannot be strong without pure, rich blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes good, rich blood and keeps it good.

Dyspepsia.—"For six months my system was out of order with dyspepsia and impure blood. Spent lots of money in vain, but Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me."—J. S. ZACHA, Genoa, Neb.

Head So Appetite.—"I was troubled with dyspepsia and had no appetite. I had a faint feeling after eating. My constitution was all run down, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has fully relieved me."—FLORENCE STOWE, Salsville, Wisconsin.

Weakness.—"I bless the day I heard of Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it cured me of extreme weakness after grip, built my husband up after pneumonia, and cured eczema and blood-poisoning in our children."—MRS. M. A. DEWEY, Box 4, Embreeville, Pa.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold everywhere. In the usual liquid, or in tablet form called Sarsateb. 100 Doses One Dollar. Prepared only by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

RHEUMATISM CAN NOT BE RUBBED AWAY

It is perfectly natural to rub the spot that hurts, and when the muscles, nerves, joints and bones are throbbing and twitching with the pangs of Rheumatism the sufferer is apt to turn to the liniment bottle, or some other external application, in an effort to get relief from the disease, by producing counter-irritation on the flesh. Such treatment will quiet the pain temporarily, but can have no direct curative effect on the real disease because it does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Rheumatism is more than skin deep—it is rooted and grounded in the blood and can only be reached by constitutional treatment—IT CANNOT BE RUBBED AWAY. Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid in the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural avenues of bodily waste, the Bowels and Kidneys, have failed to carry off. This refuse matter, coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. The aches and pains are only symptoms, and though they may be scattered or relieved for a time by surface treatment, they will reappear at the first exposure to cold or dampness, or after an attack of indigestion or other irregularity. Rheumatism can never be permanently cured while the circulation remains saturated with irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The disease will shift from muscle to muscle or joint to joint, settling on the nerves, causing inflammation and swelling and such terrible pains that the nervous system is often shattered, the health undermined, and perhaps the patient becomes deformed and crippled for life. S. S. S. thoroughly cleanses the blood and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and expelling all foreign matter from the system. It warms and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, constantly depositing acid and corrosive matter in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the body is fed and nourished by rich, health-sustaining blood which completely and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. is composed of both purifying and tonic properties—just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. It contains no potash, alkali or other mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of purifying, healing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks. If you are suffering from Rheumatism do not waste valuable time trying to rub a blood disease away, but begin the use of S. S. S. and write us about your case and our physicians will give you any information or advice desired free of charge and will send our special treatise on Rheumatism.
