Last Sunday was a lovely day on the lower river and many of our people sought the pleasures of the beach. The bar was so smooth that rowboats crossed out and in.

It is rumored upon good authority that an eastern firm is seeking a location in Bandon for a pulp and paper mill. All are agreed that this is an ideal location for the industry.

The RECORDER has it from a member of the Western Federation of Miners, just down from the Beaver Hill mines, that the published story that there will be a strike at those mines, or ever one was contemplated, is altogether without foundation.

The woolen mill was closed down Monday and Tuesday to permit of installing a second boiler, that just removed from the steamer Dispatch. It is 150 horsepower and will furnish the greater steam needed by the purchased added machinery for the mill.

J. S. Edmunds, now a business man of North Bend, is in Bandon, where he formerly lived, looking after property interests. Mr. Edmunds says that he would have sold his property in Bandon for $3,000 three years ago, but now he would not take $10,000 for it.

Alex Snyder, of Myrtle Point, at the earnest solicitation of many friends, has consented to become a republican candidate for the nomination for sheriff. Mr. Snyder, who is a brother of Captain Levi Snyder of the Favorite, is a very popular man and doubtless would make a strong run for the office in question.

The directors of the Athletic Club met in the Bandon Investment Corporation's offices Monday night and by resolution agreed to put the management of the club into the hands of Ernest Erickson. Mr. Erickson is experienced in gymnastics and athletics, and the RECORDER joins with the membership generally in felicitations upon the arrangement.

Captain Emery, life saving station inspector for the North Pacific coast, is expected to arrive at Bandon any time. The local crew have everything ready for him to review when he arrives. The inspector is on shore leave for three years when on land duty, and Captain Emery's tour of supervision is a matter of three years' recreation, or change of duty.

The leap year ball to be given at Bank Hall Saturday evening is certain to be the event of the season. The ladies of the Art Club are sparing no effort to insure this fact, and from appearances a great crowd will be in attendance. The ladies, be it remembered, will do the grand, there being nothing for the marriageable bachelors except to sit sweetly down and bask in the feminine smile, embracing of course every proposal for dance or matrimony. Gentlemen will be admitted free.

J. S. M. Smith, representing the new Coquille Valley Light and Power Co., was in town last Friday to interest our people in the concern. He had with him blueprints showing the proposed reservoirs, routes of diverting flume, etc., and from his explanations it is evident the company has a big scheme in mind for furnishing cheap power to the towns of the county. The site of the plant from which transmission wires will proceed is in Brewster Valley on the east fork of the Coquille where there is splendid opportunity for producing electric power.

Taxes are high this year judging by Captain Robert Johnson's experience. He is reported to have left for Coquille with a pocket full of bullion and after paying his tribute to the tax collector, was compelled to borrow four bits for passage back on the Liberty.

Mrs. S. A. Yoakam, State Dairy Inspector, was in Bandon Friday evening, being en route to Frands Thomson's Star Ranch below Langlois for the purpose of setting in motion the six new milking machines lately purchased by that gentleman. Mrs. Yoakam was met in Bandon by Mr. Thomson and driven to the ranch Saturday. She is familiar with the milking machine and highly informed on dairying.

Mrs. L. H. Osborn, who has been ill for a short time with a complication of malaria and pneumonia, died early Monday morning, leaving besides her sorrowing husband a 4-months old daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Osborn came to Bandon from Nebraska a short time ago, but in that time have made many friends whose sympathy and aid was promptly extended. Mr. Osborn is a Knight of Pythias and a Redman. The body was embalmed to be shipped east for burial, and in accordance with his wife's wish Mr. Osborn will place the infant with its mother's sister. The child is doing well, and Mr. Osborn expects to remain one of our community.

Great Opportunity For Homeseekers

The industrial growth of our town is surely and steadily going up the river; there the mills and manufactories must be, and near them will be the homes of the many interested in such industries—the homes of the men who toil with hand or brain, and desire to go home to a hot meal with the family.

In Sweeney's First Addition

The greatest opportunity of the times exists to acquire a home cheap, right near the industrial portion of the town. Lots 40x100 feet can be had for installments of $10.00 per month, with clear titles and warranty deeds.

They are for sale by FRANK A. SWEENEY, 383 Fourth Street, Portland, and by the

BANDON INVESTMENT CORPORATION

AT BANDON

Don't miss this opportunity. It's a good thing, whether you want a home or an investment.
