Wanted.—A good solicitor to sell the best proposition on the market today. Sure money and a good thing assured. See G. T. Treadgold or address him, box 4, Bandon.

James A. Nowlin, formerly with the Simpson company at North Bend, has taken the position of head sawyer in the Prosper mill. Mr. Nowlin was in the city Sunday. His family are also at Prosper.

The party who misappropriated a wheel from a low-wheeled wagon standing back of Shields' blacksmith shop is known and he had better return same at once and save trouble.

W. W. Cardwell, who seeks the republican nomination for district attorney, inserts his card in the RECORDER this week. Mr. Cardwell is a prominent attorney of Roseburg and well spoken of by those who know him.

A. Rice is closing out his large stock of watches, clocks and jewelry at greatly reduced prices. Call and investigate.

A United States life saving station inspector arrived in Bandon Monday evening to inspect the local station, and was the guest of Captain Johnson that night and the day following. It is needless to say that he found Captain Johnson, his crew and their equipment strictly up to date in all respects.

C. Nelson, one of the owners of the creamery being constructed in Bandon, came up on the Elizabeth to observe the progress of work and returned by the same vessel Sunday. The building is being pushed to completion as rapidly as possible by Contractor Hill, as it is desired to get the concern in readiness before the dairy season is too far advanced.

There was a general strike Saturday morning of the workmen employed on the jetty construction at this place, due to some misunderstanding as to a purpose to import foreign labor. The men, however, returned to work Monday morning, as the contractor made plain that he had no such object in view. There is no trouble to get all the good labor required right here in Bandon.

Mrs. Robt. Frederick, Jr., met with a distressing accident last Saturday evening while walking on the hill in South Bandon. She slipped and fell and being a lady of considerable weight, suffered a badly sprained ankle and the fracture of one of her limbs. She was carried into the residence of Jas. T. Mars, close by, and Dr. Houston gave attention to her injuries. The lady is now quartered at the home of her niece, Mrs. Bert Patterson, and it will be several weeks before she is again able to walk.

St. Patrick's postcards at A. Rice, the jeweler.

Fruit Inspector M. G. Pohl is stirring things perceptibly in fruit circles in this county. Mr. Pohl is going at his work with a determination.

See Lorenz & Hoyt's open work hosiery.

Agent Wm. Sellmer this week installed a four mantle chandelier of the brilliant Pitner gasoline illuminant in Alvin Munck's place of business. It makes the resort almost as light as day.

Everything for the table in Lorenz & Hoyt's grocery department.

The new skating rink building is about completed and it is said the rink will be thrown open for the first time on Saturday evening. The building is a formidable structure of two stories.

A. Rice has a nice line of Easter postcards. Come and make your selections before it is too late.

George Wilson, a local carpenter formerly of Marshfield, had the misfortune to fall and break his leg several nights ago. He is a man of family and the accident has its trying consequences.

All persons having accounts with A. Rice will please call in and have the same settled, as he is going to leave about April 1st.

B. N. Gustaf and Miss Helen M. Logan were joined in matrimony by Justice George P. Topping on the 7th instant, the ceremony, very quiet, taking place at this official's office. We wish the new made pair all manner of happiness and prosperity.

If you want an agate ring or pin, or any article or souvenir of Bandon, see Rice, the jeweler. Everything at a bargain.

Alex Snyder, of Myrtle Point, republican candidate for the nomination for sheriff, was in Bandon this morning and paid his respects to the RECORDER. Mr. Snyder is no stranger to this town, having for years been connected with the river boats, and he has a host of friends to wish him success in his present venture.

F. J. Marshall, general manager of our proposed paper and pulp mills will depart for the east per next steamer Bandon to purchase the necessary machinery and equipment. On Thursday of last week the gentleman visited Coquille and other points, and was much impressed with the beauty and fertility of the country.

Mr. S. G. Bingaman, late of Josephine county, was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday. The old gentleman is the father of W. A. Bingaman, with whom he is making his home, and he hopes to secure relief here from his asthmatic trouble. He has a civil war record that is interesting.

Some new additions to our community were made since last issue in the persons of C. M. Smith and family from Bow, Washington; W. H. Smith and family from Mason, Nebraska; W. B. Buske from Nevada, and R. F. Smith, F. A. Smith and C. D. Lamb, also from Nebraska. The newcomers intend living in this vicinity and we are told that two of them will engage in the butchering business.

For bargains in jewelry see A. Rice.

The directors of our proposed paper and pulp mills wish to state to intending bidders that a change has been made in the size of piling wanted. The piles must be 12 inches in diameter at the small end instead of 10 inches, as previously advertised. All interested should remember this.

The subject at the Methodist church Sunday morning will be, "An inheritance which cannot be taken from us." Evening theme, "Swine or Salvation, which?" I appreciate the increased attendance and shall endeavor to add to the interest of the services. W. S. Gordon, pastor.

The Bandon Concert Band will journey to Marshfield Saturday morning where that evening they will treat the people of the county's metropolis to a superb concert. Prof. Kausrud's company of musicians are admittedly among the best in the state, and the people of our sister city will miss something if they fail to hear them.

The political card of George M. Brown, who seeks a re-nomination for district attorney on the republican ticket, appears under the proper head this week. Mr. Brown has a good record in office and no doubt the record will continue if he is returned by his constituents this summer.

Chas. Lyons is still an inmate of the city prison, having preferred to serve his fine rather than pay it. He now has a jail-mate in the person of Bill Crowe, who was given three days Monday afternoon by Recorder Wade for drunkenness. Crowe's offense mainly consisted of ill treatment of his wife, and it is understood he proposes to leave town.

Frosty Hoyt treated many of his friends Tuesday to a liberal slice of St. Patrick's ribbon, and the adornments therefrom made were conspicuous on many breast fronts. Frosty even went so far as to improvise a blarney stone, 'tis said, but he didn't succeed admirably in inducing passers-by to bring their lips in touch with it. One lady caused him to turn a shade whiter by remarking that if he himself were the blarney stone she would accept the invitation in a jiffy.
