The temperance lecture given at Pentecostal Hall Wednesday evening by A. F. Lacy of Coos Bay, J. Le Roy Smith of Minneapolis and W. S. Ford, of Portland, was quite well attended and a very enthusiastic meeting was held. The three gentlemen impressed their auditors as being sincere in their work and were very fair in handling the subject as they simply stated facts as they had gathered them and told the people where they could get the data to substantiate them. The lecturers left on the morning boat.
