Marlin

THE Marlin Model 1894 is a medium light weight repeating rifle, a well proportioned, finely balanced gun with all the advantages and comforts of the Marlin solid-top, side-ejecting construction. It is quick and easy of operation, accurate up to 300 yards and a very pleasant gun to carry and to shoot.

Figured barrels and forcing country where the shooting at woodchucks, badgers, foxes, coons, hawks, etc., it ranges from 100 to 200 yards, the 25-20 and 32-20 rifles with the black and low-pressure smokeless loads cannot be equalled for accuracy and safety. The factory ammunition for the Model 94 rifle is cheap, and can be reloaded at very small cost.

The up-to-date sportsman needs the "Marlin Book" every day in the year. It contains 228 pages of the story for the man who has a good gun, and wants to know everything about it. FREE for 3 stamps postage.

Quiet Wedding at Prosper.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Prosper, Tuesday evening, June 2nd, when Miss Lenora Hatfield and Abraham Wilson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Geo. P. Topping of Bandon.

The ceremony took place at the home of the groom's father, it being a very quiet affair, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present.

Mr. Wilson is one of Prosper's well known young men, and is held in high esteem by everyone. The bride has been in Prosper only a short time, but during that period she has won the friendship of many and all join in extending to these young people many well wishes and a bright and prosperous future.

Many Land Fraud Indictments.
As a result of the action of the Federal Grand Jury, empaneled to inquire into the alleged Umatilla Reservation land frauds, in returning seven true bills yesterday, 11 well-known residents of Pendleton and Umatilla County stand accused of conspiring to defraud Uncle Sam out of 30,000 acres of Government land.

After deliberation covering a period of two weeks, during which time the testimony of over 100 witnesses was taken, the Federal inquisitorial body concluded the bulk of its labor yesterday afternoon when they filed into the United States Circuit Court and returned indictments against J. H. Raley, Wm Slusher, Alonzo Knotts, John W. Crow, John M. Wynn, Wm Caldwell, C. W. Mathers, John Vert, Bailey Ross, Samuel Olmstead and Wm Rahe.

Warrants for the arrest of the indicted men have been issued by Judge Wolverton and placed in the hands of the United States Marshal for service. The warrants are already on the way to Pendleton for service, and the alleged conspirators against the Government will soon be in custody. It is expected that the majority of the defendants will be arrested within a few days, and arraigned in the Federal Court before the end of the week.

The grand jury is still considering Umatilla land fraud matters, but according to United States District Attorney McCourt no further indictments will be returned today.

The indictments, although not unexpected, in view of the mass of evidence gathered by the special agents of the Interior Department, yet the number and prominence of the persons charged with conspiracy will create much excitement, not alone in Umatilla county, but throughout the state.

J. H. Raley, who is charged in six of the seven bills, has been prominent in Eastern Oregon politics for years, and is a lawyer of standing; Slusher was the joint representative from Morrow and Umatilla Counties in the last Legislature; Knotts, Crow, Wynn, Caldwell and Mathers are wealthy sheepmen; Vert was formerly connected with the First National Bank of Pendleton; Ross and Olmstead are wood dealers, and Rahe has been engaged in training horses.

The indictments filed allege a violation of section 5440 of the United States conspiracy statutes, and charge the defendants with having solicited and procured persons to make false and fraudulent affidavits for the purchase of the Umatilla lands and for a consideration induced the applicants to make contracts at the time of application that the lands acquired should inure to the defendants.

That the end is not yet in sight is evident from the fact that after returning the indictments the grand jury again convened and proceeded to examine about 35 additional witnesses. It is probable that the 11 defendants charged in the seven bills, will have to face other counts, although the impression prevails that other prominent East Oregonians will be brought to bar.

From the evidence submitted to the inquirers, the methods pursued by the alleged conspirators was in the main the same as used by Puter and McKinley in their operations. It was only due to an investigation instituted by the Government prior to the issuance of patents to the land, that Raley and his associates in the alleged crimes were not successful in acquiring title.

The activity of the special agents caused consternation in the ranks of dummy entrymen, and they hastened to get from under by relinquishing their claims. In fact, a number were so frightened by the prospect of prosecution that they rushed to United States District Attorney McCourt and made a full confession. It was due in a measure to this voluntary testimony that the bills were returned, although the great work of the Government investigations really brought about the indictments.

The land which Raley et al. are alleged to have attempted to grab is located in townships 32 to 36 inclusive, and was originally a portion of the Umatilla Indian Reservation. An act of Congress in 1885 provided for the sale of the lands at public auction in tracts of not greater than 160 acres of non-timbered, and 40 acres of timbered. It was expressly provided in the act that the land was to be cultivated and title was not to inure to any other person than the applicant. Provision was also made for the payment in installments covering a period of five years.

As the lands did not sell readily, Congress amended the law in 1902 providing for private sale, but the provisions of the original bill relative to cultivation and residence, were not repealed.

The evidence presented to the grand jury showed that Raley, Slusher and the others employed entrymen for considerations ranging from $50 to $100 to take up the land upon the distinct understanding that upon final payment title was to revert to them. In this connection it is claimed that Olmstead, Ross and Rahe, by reason of their wide acquaintance in Umatilla County, were hired to secure the dummy entrymen.

In 1904, Captain J. H. Alexander was appointed a special agent at La Grande, and noting the unusual activity in the sale of Umatilla lands, started a quiet investigation. As the result of his report to the Interior Department, Special Agent Dixon was sent out to make an investigation. Dixon commenced his labors in 1906, but it was not until a year later that the investigation was completed.

After reviewing the evidence the Interior Department referred the matter to United States District Attorney McCourt. McCourt at once asked for the calling of a grand jury, and in less than two weeks the indictments have been returned.—Telegram June 9th.

Weather Report.

Following is the weather and crop report for the last week as given out by the weather bureau at Portland: During the fore part of the week cloudy and unseasonably cool weather prevailed over the entire section. On Saturday, however, the clouds began to disappear, the temperatures rapidly rose, and the week ended clear and abnormally warm except along the coast, where the prevalence of fogs prevented a rise in temperature. Local showers fell over the western portion of the section on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday, and thunder storms occurred over the eastern counties on Sunday. The accompanying rainfall was, however, very light. No frosts occurred.

Capt. Jack's Band to Return.

After thirty years of enforced absence, the small remnant of Captain Jack's band of Modoc Indians at the Quapaw agency in Oklahoma are to be removed to the Klamath reservation in Oregon, where their friends and relatives live. This is the unanimous recommendation of the senate committee on Indian affairs in connection with the removal of restrictions on the land of all Indians at the Quapaw agency.

The Modocs remaining in Oklahoma are but a mere handful of the band of 217 lusty braves who were taken from the Klamath reservation to Indian Territory in 1874—right after the Modoc war. Ever since their arrival in the southwest these Indians have been longing for their Oregon home. Of the 217 only 49 remain, and ten of these have found their way back to Oregon, leaving only 39. As a matter of fact, only 17 of the Indians originally moved are living.—Ashland Record.
