This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol. For Dyspepsia: "E. C. Dewitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About 18 months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs. in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it, I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benefited. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by Bandon Drug Co.

The Goddess of liberty, George and Martha Washington and Dora Smith representing the State of Oregon all rode in beautifully decorated carriages. M. W. McCormick president of the day called the assembly to order when a splendid program was rendered. Prof. Reedy was Orator. Miss Mary Marsh read the declaration of independence. Good music both vocal and instrumental was rendered which was interspersed with excellent recitations. Then followed a genuine barbecue dinner.
