The Hobson Mania

Representative Hobson is no doubt a sincere patriot, but he has gone fairly daft over the proposition that we will have a great war soon with Japan, and that unless we increase our navy very greatly and rapidly we will be most thoroughly and ignominiously whipped. Mr. Hobson's point of view is that of a naval officer, which he was for years, and the importance of which position he magnifies Of course there must be war to justify the existence of a great navy and a great many naval officers. Unless a war can be scared up once in a while, their occupation would dwindle in importance and interest. We need a great navy because we are to have a great war, is Hobson's way of putting it, but what is really in the mind of him is the need of a big war so as to justify and exploit a great navy,

Japan is in no condition to go to war, even with a third rate power, nor will be for years to come, for lack of money. Her resources are limited and her power of borrowing is about exhausted. For a score of years, at least Japan will have her hands full with Korea, and Manchuria, and will have to keep her eyes on Russia and China, Japan could no more afford to go to war with the United States than Holland could with Germany. Besides, there is and will not be any occasion for war. Japan had to fight Russia for her very physical existence; but she isn't going to war with any great nation on any slight pretexts. Hobson has a mania, and the expression of it is becoming tiresome.—Journal.

A GRAND FAMILY MEDICINE

"It gives me pleasure to speak a good word for Electric Bitters," writes Mr. Frank Conlan of No. 436 Honston St N. Y. "It is a grand family medicine for dyspepsia and liver complications; while for lame back and weak kidneys it cannot be too highly recommended." Electric Bitters regulate the digestive functions, purify the blood, and impart renewed vigor and vitality to the weak and debilitated of both sexes. Sold under guarantee at Lowe's drug store, 50c.

The whiskey for the most particular people—Stewart's Bourbon, at Jamison & Brown's.

THINKS IT SAVED HIS LIFE

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years, for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung complaints, and I would no more be without a bottle than I would be without food." For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventive of pneumonia, and healer of weak lungs, it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at Lowe's Drug store 50 c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Tall Wheat

T. B. Wheeler has on display in his office window a specimen of wheat grown on his ranch. The wheat is six feet tall and well filled, and the very finest quality. Mr. Wheeler has three acres of this kind of wheat and it was grown on ground that was never plowed, but the seed was sown on top of the ground and beat in by the rain.

This certainly is evidence that Coos county cannot be excelled as a wheat producing country.

BADLY SPRAINED ANKLE CURED

Three years ago our daughter sprained her ankle and had been suffering terribly for two days and nights—had not slept a minute, Mr. Stallings, of Butler, Tenn., told us of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. We went to the store that night and got a bottle of it and bathed her ankle two or three times and she went to sleep and had a good night's rest. The next morning she was much better and in a short time could walk around and had no more trouble with her ankle—E M. Brummit. Hampton. Tenn. 5 and 50 cent sizes for sale by C. Y. Lowe.
