

An Unwieldy Criminal

Let us hope that it will not develop that the Standard Oil Corporation is bigger than the law, and bigger than the government. Momentarily, it seems to be master of the situation. Judge Landis, who undertook to discipline the oil monarchs, has himself been disciplined. For his attempt he has received one of the most stinging rebukes ever administered by a higher court to a lower one. The United States government which intervened to protect citizens by attempting enforcement of the laws against the corporation's unlawful practices, has been temporarily set back on his haunches. The inner circle of Standard Oil, with King Rockefeller, the Pious, at its head, has demonstrated its power in affairs political to be approximately as great as in concerns financial. The loopholes of corporation within corporation, the wheels within wheels in organization for the purpose of escaping punishment for doing things the law prohibits, is at least temporarily successful. "Crimes of cunning," as President Roosevelt characterizes such operations, have been perpetrated, but for the present, they are unpunishable. The government has spent $200,000 in prosecuting the case, but the results are nil.

For three years, the corporation enjoyed a secret rate of 6 cents while independent operators had to pay 18. Evidence showed that sometimes its earnings were 1,000 per cent, and that the corporation, during the period, amassed a colossal profit of $200,000,000. The secret rebates were in wanton violation of the law, and the officials knew it. Proceeding on the theory that the law is for the poor and not for the rich, these officials ignored laws courts, and all else that good citizenship means. Through hired Hessians, they ran riot in a carnival of gentlemanly plunder, but held up their hands in holy terror if a workingman asked for equal rights before the law. They endowed universities and hospitals, but by the enormous power of their fiscal system, drove into bankruptcy and early graves men who dared to cross their path in a business way. They prated of heavenly things, but violated the laws of the commonwealth, the laws of humanity and the laws of the Almighty. They endowed churches with one hand, and with the other reached into the pocket of every oil consumer in the world. Their business trail is strewn with the wreckage of men's careers, their homes and their business enterprises all because their victims sought to earn an honest living in the oil business.

Their methods, and this outcome of the effort to punish them is ruinous to citizenship, because it teaches the easiest way to swollen wealth is through unfair and unlawful means. It is unthinkable that this system is to go on unchecked, and its promoters go on unpunished, and yet what is to be expected if the country again allows "the interests" to gain control of all branches of the government?—Journal.

IT CAN'T BE BEAT

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that is claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at Lowe's drug store.

Stomach troubles are very common in the summer time and you should not only be very careful about what you eat just now, but more than this, you should be careful not to allow your stomach to become disordered, and when the stomach goes wrong take Kodol. This is the best known preparation that is offered to the people today for dyspepsia or indigestion or any stomach trouble. Kodol digests all foods. It is pleasant to take. If is sold by Bandon Drug Co.

Ten Telephone Commandments

1. Thou shalt call by number only.
2. Thou shalt always answer thy telephone at the first sound of the bell.
3. Thou shalt not use the telephone when the lightning cracks in the sky, for verily I say thou endangerest thyself and will not be answered.
4. When the operator says, "Shake up your transmitter," thou shalt shake, even if it givest thee paralysis.
5. Thou shalt not call again directly after ringing off, else the operator deem it a ring-off and not answer.
6. Thou shalt not expect to get a party in another town directly after calling, for the line may be busy or the party not be found.
7. Always shalt thou ring off when through speaking, for it will save confusion all around.
8. Thou shalt not rave and cuss at the operator if she does not answer on the dot, for she is busy and will attend to thy wants as soon as possible.
9. Never shalt thou flit with the operator nor force her to converse with thee for it doth impair the service.
10. Above all never shalt thou get huffy and lose thy temper, but be thou courteous and pleasant voiced, and remember especially that thine is not the only wire on the cable.—Telephony.

Diarrhoea Cured.

"My father has for years been troubled with diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle of Philippi, W. Va. He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Philippi Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years old can do as much work as a young man." Sold by C. Y. Lowe.

A French Joke.

Magistrate—The plaintiff affirms that you sold him an absolutely rank cheese, although you told him it was the king of cheeses when he bought it of you.
Defendant—Quite true, but I never said it was a good one. I simply said it was the king of cheeses.
Magistrate—Well?
Defendant—Well, in my opinion the king of cheeses would be the worst. Are we republicans or are we not, sir?—Pele Mele.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA RELIEVED

Mr. Edward E. Heney, with the United States Express Co., of Chicago writes, "Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quick, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old chronic diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many of our trainees who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Rutherford B. Hayes, and William McKinley four years in the 23d Ohio Regiment, and have no ailment except chronic diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once." For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

His Dream.

"There is some money, my love," said the husband. "I don't want any," replied the wife. "Come, now, darling, take this five pound note and go out shopping." "Thank you, dearest, but I really don't care to. I would rather stay at home and see to the housework." Then the husband awoke and found that he had been dreaming.—Liverpool Mercury.
