

Steamer Held to Await American Election

Tokio, Oct. 30.—In order that the prominent Americans who have taken passage on the steamer Mongolia may learn the result of the election in the United States, the departure of the vessel has been delayed a day, and will sail on November 5. Among those who are leaving for the United States are Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Loomis, and a number of the Pacific coast business men who visited Japan as representatives of Coast chambers of commerce.

MIND YOUR BUSINESS

If you don't nobody will. It is your business to keep out of all the trouble you can and you can and will keep out of liver and bowel trouble if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They keep biliousness, malaria, and jaundice out of your system. 25c. at Lowe's store.

In Fairness to Captain Rees

Captain Rees of the steamer Bandon which touched the bar when leaving Tillamook three weeks ago, proved himself a seaman and a cool, level-headed one as well. Tillamook bar is, shifting out at this season of the year. This accident shows that a tug boat is absolutely necessary for the bay. Lumber schooners cannot wait days and weeks for the Vosburg to come and tow them in and out. Steam schooners require a pilot if they have never made this port. Many a captain under the same circumstances as the Bandon was in would have lost his ship. It was through the cool-headedness and seamanship displayed by the captain and officers that the Bandon today is not piled up a total wreck. As well as we can learn every precaution was taken. Two leads were going all the time and the steamer was in the channel which was safe when she came in but in the meantime, as often happens at this season of the year, a hog-back had formed and the channel shifted. Those who came in contact with Captain Rees after he had got his vessel afloat by throwing her broadside to the breakers and so lifting her off, state that the cap was as cool and gave his orders as calmly as though he were going down the river—and Captain Rees has got an unusually quick temper when anything crosses him. So it shows that danger, instead of exciting him but calms him. The owners have a good man, and one who does not lose his head. His officers speak very highly of him.—Tillamook Herald.

HOW IS YOUR DIGESTION?

Mrs. Mary Dowling of No. 228 8th Avenue, San Francisco, Calif., recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts this testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver troubles Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market today. This great tonic and alternative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c at Lowe's Drug store."

How to Advertise

To do effective advertising a man doing it must patronize a newspaper. It is the only way to reach the public in a manner that counts and wins public confidence. Advertising today has reached a point where it has become a science. Many business men who either have not the time themselves or do not know just how to write an ad which is catchy and will attract the eye, pay large sums every month to the man who can write ads which will bring results. Millions of dollars are spent annually in advertising, and these vast sums are paid gladly, because it pays to advertise.

What does advertising mean? In the first place the business man announces to the public that he desires their patronage; that he has good bargains to offer; where he may be found; and that, in short, he is alive—if he really is. Such a business man does not buy a certain space in a newspaper for one issue and then stop. Doubtless a good many people would see his ad, especially if it were a big one. The object of his ad is to keep the people informed of what he has to offer them, to keep his name constantly before the people all the time.

Dropping water wears away a stone. So it is with advertising. Drive, pound, hammer your name and what you have to offer into the people. That's the secret of successful advertising.—Tillamook Herald.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is used nearly everywhere, because it not only heals irritation of the throat and stops the cough, but it drives the cold out of the system through its Laxative principle by assuring a free and gentle action of the bowels, and that is the only way to cure a cold. You can cure it as long as you are constipated. Insist upon Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. Sold by Bandon Drug Co.
