

ERRONEOUS IDEA OF CITY ELECTION

Outside Districts Cannot Vote at Election Held Next Tuesday

MUST FIRST BE ADVERTISED

An erroneous idea seems to be prevalent concerning the voting at the coming city election to be held next Wednesday Nov. 25. Some have the idea that the people on the outside of the limits and within the territory, proposed to be taken in, will have a vote on the officers and at the same time will vote on the annexation question, which if the latter carries, their votes will then be counted for city officers.

While this arrangement would be very agreeable to every citizen of Bandon, yet the fact remains that the law of Oregon precludes any such action and consequently it cannot be taken.

In conversation with City Attorney Wade he informed the writer that according to the laws of the State of Oregon the question of annexation cannot be submitted at the next election to be held the 25th of this month, for the reason that the date of the election cannot be established until one-fifth of the legal voters of the city of Bandon petition the council therefor, and the same has been advertised for four consecutive weeks by notices posted within the city limits and four notices outside of the city limits and by five issues in the newspaper. So far no immediate steps have been taken by town people looking toward such an election. The coming election on the 25th is already provided for by the charter.

The time for holding election of officers as prescribed by the charter is so short that there was not time to advertise for an election for an annexation, which is the reason the annexation question is not submitted at this time.

People both inside and outside the city limits who are interested in the annexation proposition will greatly regret the fact as it is, but of course the law will have to be abided by otherwise the whole proposition would come to naught.

The Margaret Iles Co. was in Bandon again Wednesday evening and played to a well filled house. Next Wednesday evening they will appear here again in the great comedy drama Jason Joskins or a Jay in New York. This is a plot containing some of the usual elements of melodrama but is more in the way of a vehicle for a great deal of very enjoyable comedy and no one who likes a good laugh should miss the performance.

ter to W. J. Bryan, urging the Nebraskan to become an evangelist and predicting that he would become an evangelist of the Apostle Paul.

"Twelve years ago," writes Mr. Oliver "I wrote you a letter in which I stated my conviction that you should preach the Gospel, and added the statement that your wonderful talents to God as an evangelist the Bryan of the 20th century would equal the Paul of the first century as a champion of the cause of Christ.

"Personally, your three defeats have been sources of sorrow to me, as I have hoped to see you elected to the Presidency. Who knows? Perhaps God has withheld the Presidency from you in order that you might become more to your country than President. I am convinced that one ambassador of Christ of your caliber is worth more to the Nation than ten thousand presidents.

"This impression regarding your fitness for the great work named has been strong in my heart for 12 years and I pray God that it might become a fire in your great soul."

Rev. Mr. Oliver has been conducting a revival campaign in Kansas for several weeks.

FRANCIS J. HENEY

SHOT IN HEAD

Assailant Commits Suicide But Heney will no doubt Recover.

HENEY IS GREAT GRAFT PROSECUTOR

Francis J. Heney, the great graft prosecutor, of San Francisco was shot in the head, in the court room of that city last Friday by an ex-convict named Morris Haas. Heney was taken to a hospital where the bullet was removed, and according to late reports, he will recover.

Haas was immediately arrested and remanded to jail where he was carefully guarded to prevent any attempt that might be made to do violence to his person. A later dispatch reads as follows:

San Francisco, Nov. 16—Morris Haas, who attempted the assassination of Francis J. Heney Saturday night committed suicide by shooting himself through the middle of the forehead, with a pistol he had concealed in his shoe. When the guards entered it was found that he had rolled out of bed, and was lying dead on the floor with a bullet in his forehead. A 41-calibre, single shot Derringer was grasped in his hand, his left trouser leg was pulled up and an examination showed the mark on his leg where the weapon had rested while it was concealed in his left shoe. Haas wore garters with elastic sides which made this possible.

After he shot Heney, Haas was searched by Captain Duke, Detectives Burns and a police officer. After he was taken to the county jail he was searched again. Haas went to bed Friday night with his shoes on and again Saturday night and when asked why he did this, he said he would rather sleep with them on. Haas wife called on him Saturday, but two officers, who were present during the interview say she could not possibly have slipped the weapon to him.

Burns said that Haas had been thoroughly searched when taken in the court room, also when received at the county jail and that the derringer could not have been on his person. Burns is of the opinion that the pistol has been passed to Haas since his arrest.

Crime at Myrtle Point

The Coos Bay Times of Nov. 16 prints the following dispatch from Myrtle Point.

Myrtle Point, Ore., Nov. 16—Charged with one of the most revolting crimes in Myrtle Point's history Innes Rose, Joseph Williams and Tho Kinnicut were arrested here. Rose and Williams have been bound over to the grand jury and Kinnicut will be taken before the county court.

The complaining witness is Miss Lillian Endicott the sixteen year old daughter of W. W. Endicott, the Myrtle Point blacksmith. She claims and is supported by other evidence that the three youths took her out for a ride, plied her with liquor and then assaulted her. The crime occurred a week ago Saturday night, between Myrtle Point and Coquille, but the matter did not become public for a time owing to the authorities endeavoring to get the young men into custody.

Rose and Kinnicut were arrested late Saturday evening and Williams was caught while proceeding to Roseburg on horseback. The three youths belong to prominent families. Rose is twenty years old, Williams twenty-two and Kinnicut seventeen. As the latter is under eighteen, he will probably escape with a sentence to the reform school if the charges made by Miss Endicott are proven.

Williams and Rose were bound over $500 and $700 bonds, respectively.

SALMON CANNERY HAD BIG SEASON

Nearly Ten Thousand Cases

Canned Here This

Year

ABOUT DOUBLE LAST YEAR'S RECORD

Timmons's salmon cannery closed for the season Monday and Mr. Timmons is very much pleased with the sea on's work. Nearly 10,000 cases with 48 pounds in a case, were canned this fall, being nearly double the output of last year. Owing to the strike in the early part of the season the cannery did not start operations until about the first of October, and had it started on time the output would probably have reached the 12,000 case mark. There was not only a large run of salmon this year, but they were of first class quality and the output finds ready sale.

Mr. Timmons is more than pleased at the result of the season's work and all Coquille people are likewise jubilant to know of the good results.

THE INDUSTRIAL ADDITION

IS SELLING FAST because it is only five minutes walk to the manufacturing center. Workmen can go home to their meals without being hurried. Houses are more in demand in that locality and rent more readily and at better prices than any where else in Bandon.

If you intend to get a lot, act now as they will soon be gone. It costs only a trifling self denial to own your own home where you are sure you can not be ordered out at the end of the month and the amount you are now paying for rent will do the work. Be wise to this and get a lot while you can on easy terms.
