New Pastor for Marshfield

The Rev. A. F. Coon Mackay arrived here from Cheyenne, Wyo., Friday to temporarily occupy the pulpit of the Marshfield Presbyterian Church which has been vacant since the retirement of the Rev. H. H. Brown a few weeks ago. It is probable that he will be elected by a congregation as their permanent pastor after they have had the pleasure of hearing him.

The Rev. Mackay has been superintendent of the Presbyterian missions in Wyoming for several years. He has made his home in Cheyenne and traveled throughout the state.—
