

Big Cut in Lumber Rates

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Important reductions in freight rates on lumber and articles manufactured therefrom including building material, between the Pacific coast points to Chicago and points east, are to be put into effect by the Southern Pacific and its connections as soon as the necessary tariffs can be prepared and filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission. The reductions are a direct result of the enforcement of orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission in the North Pacific Coast Lumber rate cases wherein the rates from Oregon and Washington to the east were cut. The rates provide a reduction of from five to fifteen cents a hundred pounds. For example, the rate on lumber, lath, timber and articles taking the same rate to Chicago is now 70 cents, and the new rate will be 60 cents; to New York, the old rate was 90 cents and the new rate will be 75 cents. The rates on sash doors, blinds and other building material to New York will be reduced from 80 cents to 75 cents, and similar reductions will be made to all points and destinations named in the tariff.

Beware of Frequent Colds

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever fully recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by M. S. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Inside Insides Insider

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 26.—The following remarkable story comes from Nanaimo, where the fish are on exhibition and have been photographed. The annual run of herring at that place is now on and it was in this connection that the story developed. A veteran fisherman, Simeon Day caught a monster cod just outside Nanaimo harbor and brought the fish to the city, where it was on exhibition at the Vendome Hotel. The cod was of extraordinary size and out of all proportion to the ordinary specimens of the genus.

On being dissected a most remarkable state of things was discovered. Inside the big fellow was another codfish about 20 inches in length, and inside this was a rockcod 18 inches in length and inside this was another 12 inches in length. To make the story complete, inside the innermost cod was the herring which Day had used as bait.

The big fish was dissected at the Vendome Hotel in the presence of a large crowd. The latest freak of the deep is still there on exhibition.

Good Cough Medicine for Children

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be taken to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when it has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Accidental Shooting

On Saturday morning while out with his shotgun hunting ducks near their home opposite Johnson's mill, Gilbert Pinkston, the fourteen-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pinkston accidentally shot himself in the arm, severely injuring that member, but it is hoped that no complications may arise making amputation necessary.

The accident happened while the boy was crossing a fence, the hammer of the weapon coming in contact with something while the magazine was pointed toward his arm. While it is only a flesh wound, it is very severe and near the elbow, and while the arm may be saved it is likely that it will be weak and probably stiffened in that joint.

When the accident occurred W. P. Laird was notified and in an exceedingly short time he with his big dappled gray and buggy had the lad in Dr. Culin's office, where the arm was dressed. The boy is now resting nicely and is getting along as nicely as could be expected under the circumstances.—Coquille Herald.

Muscular Pains Cured

"During the summer of 1903 I was troubled with muscular pains in the instep of my foot," says M. S. Pedlar, of Toronto, Ont. "At times it was so painful I could hardly walk. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was recommended to me, so I tried it and was completely cured by one small bottle. I have since recommended it to several of my friends, all of whom speak highly of it." For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Relief Has Hard Time In Typhoon

Manila, Nov. 25.—Admiral Sperry today received a telegram from the hospital ship Relief, five days overdue at Guam, for which port she sailed from this harbor, November 15, the message coming by way of Sorogon, in Southern Luzon, and stating that the ship was badly damaged by a typhoon which was encountered on November 18, during which her engines were disabled. Fire broke out on the Relief but was promptly gotten under control, the crew of the ship showing splendid discipline. The Relief is now proceeding to Manila under her own steam, repairs to her engines having been made by the crew.

The news confirms the fears that were entertained here that the Relief had met with disaster, as she did not arrive from Guam on time.

Marked for Death

"Three years ago I was marked for death. A graveyard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me, and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. A. C. Williams of Buc, Kentucky. "The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 58 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored." This medicine holds the world's healing record for colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at C. Y. Lowe's drug store, 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

A Familiar Experience

The family was expecting callers after dinner, and each member was secretly dreading the ordeal, for the guests to be were unmistakably dull—the kind that are always called "worthy"—doubtless a great comfort to their families, but not a source of joy as entertainers.

"I feel sleepy already," said one member of the family. "I know I shall go to sleep sitting in my chair while they are here."

"Better take a nap now," said mother, "and perhaps that will refresh you so you can at least keep awake during the visit."

The drowsy member disappeared to her room, but after about fifteen minutes she returned, saying: "No; there is no use in trying. I can't sleep till they come."—New York Press.

Medicine That is Medicine

"I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and the remedy is Electric Bitters—a medicine that is a medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions," says W. C. Kiestler, of Halliday, Ark. Electric Bitters purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and impart vigor and energy to the weak. Your money will be refunded if it fails to help you. 50c at Lowe's drug store.

Got in All the News

Cummings Killed a Lot of Ads and Raised a Row.

When Amos Cummings was managing editor of the New York Sun, many years ago, an important news story came in late one night and was sent to the composing room with "must" written above it, which meant that on no account must the news be left out of the paper. A few minutes after the copy boy returned to the editorial rooms and reported that the foreman had said the paper was already over set and that two columns of other news would have to be killed if the "must" story was to get in. Cummings took the copy from the boy and went himself to the composing room. He demanded an explanation. The foreman told him that there was a pressure of advertisements that night and that they had usurped some of the space usually given to news.

"What shall I kill?" asked the foreman. "Kill two columns of advertisements and print all the news," ordered Cummings, and it was done.

The next day there was trouble around the Sun office. A hurried meeting of the stockholders was called, and it was a stormy one. Some of the stockholders wanted to have Cummings discharged, but Charles A. Dana stood up for him, and as Dana owned the greater part of the stock his voice was all powerful. After the meeting Mr. Dana walked out of his office and straight to Cummings' desk. He put his hand affectionately on the managing editor's shoulder and said:

"Amos, you have my permission to throw out advertisements to make room for the news whenever in your opinion it is necessary. We are publishing a newspaper, not an advertising poster."

Shortly afterward an improvement was made in the presses so that two or more pages could be added to the paper at the last moment if necessary.

This is Worth Reading

Leo F. Zelinski, of 68 Gibson St. Buffalo, New York, says: "I cured the most annoying cold sore I ever had with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. I applied this salve once a day for two days, when every trace of the sore was gone." Heals all sores. Sold under guarantee at Lowe's drug store. 25c.

Where Everything Grows

The tuberose flourishes amazingly in the open air in the Transvaal with but the smallest attention and cultivation. The bulbs shoot up their three or four foot stems, each bearing very sweet smelling flowers in an incredibly short space of time. In Pretoria roses are prolific—in fact, most of the streets are bounded by rose hedges throughout their length—and they bloom with a frail, pink monthly rose blossom for three-quarters of the year. In public places, such as the park, the profusion of roses, lilies, carnations and tuberose is bewilderingly beautiful. The wild orchids of Swaziland are famous. They are of at least twenty different kinds. They are extremely curious, and with a little care and extra heat they can be induced to develop into very wonderful plants. Everything grows in the Transvaal if the trouble is taken to plant it.
