While the family was absent attending the exercises at the church on Christmas eve, some one broke into the house of A. McNair and stole Mrs. McNair's pocket book, containing about five dollars and helped themselves to some freshly baked cake, which was waiting for the Christmas table. The house was ransacked but nothing else of value has so far been found missing. Several burglaries have been perpetrated lately. The house of Donald Charleston was also broken into and ransacked recently, while the family was away. There will be a close watch kept from this time on and it is to be hoped that the thieves will be apprehended and brought to justice.

A Christmas Idea

What could be more practical and of more benefit than the gift of a scholarship in the MILLER-CLEAVER BUSINESS COLLEGE?

The young man or young woman who has a business education is entirely independent and can make his own way under any circumstances.

Parents can you do better than to give that boy or girl an opportunity to become equipped to earn a good salary at pleasant work with numerous chances for promotion.

Give us the student and we will see that he becomes a competent bookkeeper or stenographer, or both.
