

Build While the Sun Shines==CODY LUMBER CO.

THE TALK OF THE TOWN

May Day Ball, Bank Hall, May 1.

George Pike of Coquille was visiting friends in Bandon last Saturday.

Seed grain at the Bandon Cash Store.

W. H. Norval of Riverton was in town this week on business.

FOR SALE—A fine thoroughbred Jersey bull. Address or call on James Hughes, Cape Blanco, Ore. 11. 6t

Rev. Horsfall will hold Episcopal services at St. John's church Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

The Seaside Orchestra with its usual number of seven pieces will furnish music for the MaY Day Ball.

The Racket store is the very HUB around which the Bandon wheel of business turns.

Ed. Johnson, the potato king of the Coquille river, left on the Fifield for San Francisco with 40 tons of potatoes.

A modern five room cottage on 5th street for rent, one block east of Plank road. Inquire of T Devereux, Parkersburg, Pnone 68.

Chas. Roedell, who has been in this vicinity hunting and fishing for a few weeks left on the Fifield for San Francisco.

FOUND—A purse containing a small sum of money. Owner may have same by calling at this office, proving property and paying for this notice.

S. B. Anderson, of Prosper, was in Bandon Saturday and made this office a pleasant call, renewing his faith in the RECORDER for another year.

Inform yourselves right down to date as to the prices of dishes, notions, toys, underwear etc. at the Racket store Bandon Oregon.

Coumerilh-Christensen Co. are having the interior of their store painted and remodeled and when the work is completed it will present the appearance of a bran new store.

The Prosper school, under the direction of Prof. W. D. Reedy will give an entertainment in Prosper next Saturday evening. There will be a dance after the program. The Seaside Orchestra will furnish the music.

FOR RENT—Large, new seven room house in Azalea Park, close in. Good water. For particulars call on J. W. Felter, or address W. W. Elliot, Prosper, Ore. 5t

A. J. Hartman has commenced work, making trenches for the foundation of his new twelve room house at the foot of the new stairs. It will be a fine residence when completed.

FOR RENT—Hall over post office. Address or phone Thos. Devereux, Parkersburg, Ore. 5t

Word was received by Mrs. Rositter, from Miss Cole, who was recently called to Oklahoma, by the illness of her mother that she had arrived at her home all right and found her motner somewhat improved.

Mrs. P. C. Stephenson, who underwent an operation at Mercy hospital, North Bend, some time ago is reported to be getting along nicely. Her many friends here will be glad to learn of her speedy restoration to good health.

Coos Bay is sending out a souvenir postal of a "Salmon Catch on Coos Bay, Oregon," which happens to be the Antelope towing two scows of salmon caught in the Coquille river. The picture is taken from Timmon's dock in this city and on the boat are such familiar faces as Captain Willard of the Wolverine. A. W. Varney, Roy Fox, Wm. Meeker and others. Wonder what Coos Bay will claim next?

A. Dawson, of the Moore, Watson Drygoods Co., of San Francisco sailed on the Fifield.

FOR SALE—Two milch cows coming fresh this spring. Inquire of C. L. Law, Bandon Oregon. 134t

Dr. J. D. Kelley has moved from the rooms over the post office to the Charleston property, opposite the Presbyterian church.

S. A. Bishop and Geo. V. Hill of San Francisco left on the Fifield for their home after making a tour of the lumber districts of Coos county.

Ben Schuyler, who formerly owned and operated the Elk Horns saloon in this city has been appointed nightwatch for the water front at Marshfield, at a salary of $90 per month.

Roy Horton, nephew of John Jenkins, who has been visiting here left on the Fifield for San Francisco where he will remain for a short time and will then return to his home at Spokane, Wash.

Don't forget the big annual ball at Oriental hall Saturday night April 24th.

W. B. Chance, deputy labor commissioner and factory inspector, of Albany, was in Bandon Friday of last week, on his rounds of inspecting machinery in use in various plants of Southwestern Oregon.

Smith Bros. have sold their meat market to George Urdman. The gentleman has been here investigating the situation for some time and is much pleased with the outlook. Mr. Urdman left for San Francisco on the Fifield where he will look after business affairs and will then return to Bandon and take charge of the business. Smith Bros. will remain in Bandon and operate the shingle mill which they have recently secured.

Government Engineer Polhemus, in company with Donald Charleston was in Bandon Tuesday visiting friends and looking after the interests of the government here. Mr. Polhemus did not announce anything definite as to future work by the government but as congress has made recommendations for the resurvey of the Coquille river, something will no doubt be done in the near future.

The Elizabeth arrived Sunday with 86 tons of freight and ten passengers. C. C. Holt, C. E. Broadbent, wife and child, H. M. Barnes, A. M. Snyder, wife and three children, S. Hunter, S. Anelmo, J. Ameral and H. Johnson. She sailed again Tuesday with 285,000 feet of lumber, three tons butter, eight cases woolen goods, ten tons miscellaneous and one ton chittan bark. She carried ten passengers: E. Elingson, H. A. Albright, C. G. Adams and wife, Mr. Allen and wife, G. Battita, H. Shirl, I. B. Shirl and Carl Flanning. The Elizabeth will return again Tuesday of next week and sail about Thursday.

Fruit Growers Meet

A fairly well attended meeting of the fruit growers of this section was held at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce today. The nature of the meeting was an address by P. M. Hall-Lewis, a Catching Inlet rancher who recently moved here from Hood River, on fruit culture there. He described in detail the system and methods used by the noted Hood River orchardist. His talk was declared to be one of the best on fruit growing ever heard in Marshfield.

The Coquille Valley Fruit Growers Association will work in harmony with the Coos Bay Association to encourage and raise the standard of fruit culture in this section, according to a letter received from that body.—Times.

MARINE ARRIVED

Apr. 18—Elizabeth, Olsen, from S. F., 86 tons mdse, to passengers.
Apr. 18—Fifield, Jensen, from S. F., 56 tons mdse, 9 passengers.
Apr. 20—Wilhelmina, Christensen, from Coos Bay, 48 Tons mdse.

SAILED

Apr. 10—Schr. Sausalito, Olsen, for S. F., 280 m. lumber.
Apr. 11—Fifield, Jensen, for S. F., 123 m lathes, 375 m lumber, 9 tons mdse, 7 passengers: Mrs. Elise Rasmussen, Mrs. Christensen, R. B. Emerson, E. Erikson, H. H. Tillie, W. C. Laird, C. M. C. Johnson.
Apr. 11—Elizabeth, Olsen, for S. F., 290 m lumber, 5 ton mdse, 6 passengers.
Apr. 12—Schr. Oregon, Anderson, for S. F., 400 m lumber
Apr. 13—Bandon, Fwart, for S. F., 69 cds. wood, 30m shingles, 308 m lumber.
Apr. 16—Schr. San Buenaventura, Invergard, for S. F., 180 m lumber.
Apr. 20th—Elizabeth, Olsen, for S. F., 23 tons mdse, to passengers. 285 m. lumber.

Marine Meditations.

The factor of the brine
Is indubitably fine—
"Aye!"
How sweet that word to his
Accompanied by this:
"Belay!"
And then there is unique
Enjoyment when they shriek:
"Tops!"
And—jimmie, you're stirred
By this delightful word:
"Marlinpike!"
You can't find terms of praise
Sufficient for the phrase
"Heave ho!"
Nor can you half convey
Your rapture when they say:
"Scuppers!"
Yes, jargon of the brine
Is indubitably fine
As I observed.
But, say, is it to you
As Greek as it is to —Thomas R. Ybarra in New York Times.

Almost Generous.

Harry M. Daugherty of Columbus recently told this story to the Washington Post: Two Irishmen were discussing the death of a friend.
"I did Pat."
"Sure, Casey was a good fellow."
"He was that," replied Mike, "a good fellow—Casey."
"And a cheerful man was Casey," said Pat.
"A cheerful man was Casey, the cheerfulest I ever knew," echoed Mike.
"Casey was a generous man, too," said Pat.
"Generous, you say? Well, I don't know so much about that. Did Casey ever buy you anything?"
"Well, nearly," replied Mike, scratching his head. "One day he came into Flaherty's barroom, where me and my friends were drinking, and he said to us, 'Well, men, what are we going to have—rain or snow?'"—New York Sun.

A Cause For Thanksgiving.

"What are you crying about?"
"My husband beat me."
"Who is he?"
"A gypsy fiddler. He beat me with the fiddle bow."
"Then you ought to be thankful he doesn't play a bass viol."—Fliegende Blatter.

The Endless Chase.

The melodrama heroine—
It seems we cannot lose her.
It used to be in cab or train
That she escaped from being slain
And now auto or aeroplane—
But "the villain still pursues her."
—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Chollie's Manner.

Patience—Don't you think Chollie acts as if he belonged to the smart set?
Patrice—No; I think he acts as if the smart set belonged to him.—Yonkers Statesman.

Touching.

"Are you quite sure of his affection?" asked her friend.
"Yes," she replied, pointing tenderly to her engagement diamond. "Here is the touchstone."—New York Herald.

Woman's Way.

He asked her if she loved him,
And she, laughing, said, "Not I!"
Then she blushed and nestled closer,
And he blessed her for the lie.
—New York Life.

Submarine Villa.

Stubb—How is that suburban cottage you bought? I understand it is a debt.
Penn—Yes, a floating debt.—Boston Globe.

The Trouble With Him.

"What's the matter with him now, when he's so prosperous?"
"Why, he has nothing in the world to growl about."—Atlanta Constitution.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the office of the Light-House Engineer, Portland, Oregon, until 12 o'clock M., May 17, 1909, and then opened, for construction of keeper's dwelling at Cape Blanco Light-Station, Oregon, in accordance with specifications, copies of which, with blank proposals and other information, may be had upon application to the Light-House Engineer, Portland, Oregon.

THE ARMY DESERTER.

He is a Marked Man, and His Chances of Escape Are Few.

"The most persistently trailed law-breaker in the United States today is the deserter from the army," said a captain of the United States army.

"From the time he is found missing at the post where he is stationed until the inevitable hour when an officer of any of a dozen different federal and civic denominations lands him in custody he is a criminal marked for punishment, and he is shrewd indeed if he escapes.

"Four-fifths of the deserters are foreign born and professional army deserters with bad records left behind them in Europe. These men, as I understand it, deserted from armies in the old countries, came here in search of work, didn't get anything to suit them and joined our forces only to get tired and want to quit again. What they get in the end is a term in the guardhouse or in the national prison for bad soldiers.

"Beside the chances of an escaping soldier to get away from his punishment that of an ordinary jailbreaker, bonded by civil officers, is a bagatelle. In the first place, a soldier in or out of uniform is a soldier in habits and carriage, with the telltale step and mannerisms of the service. The lockstep of the state prison will wear away because it is only an incidental of prison life, and the convict doing time can do it more or less perfectly, according to his inclination or the watchfulness of the guard, but the whole life of the soldier is soldiering, and he can never get away from it.

"Now, turn a man so marked out in the world with a fifty dollar reward on his head and send to every village postoffice, police station, constable, sheriff and United States marshal in the whole country his accurate description and a picture of him in two attitudes and you have placed him in the predicament of the deserting soldier and narrowed his chances to an infinitesimal bit of progress within fifty miles from the starting point without arrest."

The captain said that more money was probably spent by the government in advertising a deserter than the reward of $50 offered for his capture.—Washington Herald.

SIZING UP THE BABY.

Varying Views of the Different Members of the Family.

This is what the Browns had to say of the latest addition to the family:
The Mother—Oh, isn't he the cutest, grandest, handsomest, smartest little fellow in the whole world? Such eyes! Such features! Such shoulders! And hear him talk, will you? Why, he understands perfectly every word I say.

The Father—There's a boy for you! Smith will brag about that kid of his, will he? Well, you just wait until this youngster is a month old, and I'll take the conceit out of Smith!

Little Bobby—So that's what the stork brought, eh? Gee, the stork must have it in for this family!

Little Bella—Oh, ma, he's swallowed all his teeth, and all his hair's blown off!

Bachelor Brother—I don't want to cause you folks any anxiety, but he's the smallest human being I ever saw outside of a dime museum. You want to feed him upon roast beef and porterhouse steak right away.
Uncle Jack (a dog fancier)—Is his nose cold? Hold him up by the back of his neck and we'll see if he's got any nerve.

Grandma—There you go, spoiling the child as soon as he has his eyes open! I suppose when he's a month old we shall all have to stand on our heads to amuse him! Give me that infant this instant before he has colic and dies!
The Family Cat—Well, that settles my hash! It's either hunt a new home or become a tailless feline inside of a month. Why, that kid's got a grip on him like a longshoreman's!

The Baby—Goo-goo! Goo-goo! Goo-goo-goo-goo! Or, in other words, I'll make it good and hot for this family about midnight!—St. Louis Republic.

His Name Was Sufficient.

San Malato, the famous Sicilian duelist, seemed to have stepped into our prosaic modern life straight from the pages of Brantome. His fame had done more than penetrate the four corners of Europe. It had reached his own home. Some misguided Sicilian bandits held up a coach one night and summoned its solitary traveler to come out. From the shadowy depths of the vehicle came two short sentences in a cold, staccato voice: "Spread out your cloaks. The mud must not spoil my boots when I descend." The cutthroats fled with the awe striking whisper of "San Malato" upon their quivering lips.—London Telegraph.

The Limit.

"What did the doctor say was the matter with you?"
"He said he didn't know."
"Well, what doctor are you going to next?"
"None. When a doctor dares to make such an admission as that he must be about as high in his profession as he can get."—London Mail.

Following Directions.

Mr. McRooney (slightly indisposed)—'Tis not enough av these pills yez got me, Norah. It says, begorry, "Take from two t' four l'v'ry night," an', bad cess t' thim. Of've took thim all, an' 'tis only quarter past 3.—Puck.

NEWEST IDEAS FOR THE HOME

Honestly, there has never been shown in Bandon, as fine a lot of Dressers as we have now in stock. Make the parlor beautiful and homelike with one of our high grade rugs. We have Chairs, Couches, and other furniture to match. Surprise your wife by having a nice Kitchen Cabinet sent home, one that will save her hundreds of steps.

Upholstering and Repairing a Specialty

Woodruff & Turner

The House Furnishers

Everything for the Home

Bandon, Ore.

Extraordinary Announcement Extraordinary
BANDON OPERA HOUSE
COOS COUNTY STOCK COMPANY
TWO NIGHTS
Wednesday and Thursday, Apr. 28-9
Three Act Comedy Drama, "Who's Your Wife"
Society Drama, "The Clay Baker"
This Company is under the Direction of
MR. WILLIAM V. MONG
Late of the Baker Stock Co., of Portland, with the following cast
EDW. F. BERNARD Leads
JACK BRONNER, Light Comedy
HARRY DEPUY, Characters
LEW EMMERSON, Comedian
HENRY NEWMAN, Juveniles
MISS BEA CURTIS, Lead
JEAN HOWARD, Soubrette, Specialties
MISS WELLIE EDWARDS, Juveniles, Specialties
ADA BURTON, Characters
Reserved Seats 50c; General Admission, 35c; Children 25c
TICKETS ON SALE AT J. T. MARS'

The New, Elegantly Fitted and Speedy Steamer
ELIZABETH
This steamer is new, is strongly built and fitted with the latest improvements and will give a regular 8 day service, for passengers and freight, between the Coquille river, Oregon,
First-class Passenger Fare, $7.50
Freight Rates, $3 on Up Freight
J. E. WALSTROM, Agent, Bandon, Oregon.
E. T. Kruse, managing agent, 24 California St., San Francisco.

BANK OF BANDON
BANDON OREGON
Capital, $25,000
BOARD OF DIRECTORS: J. L. Kronenberg, President, J. Denholm, Vice President, F. J. Fahy, Cashier, Frank Flam, T. P. Hanly.
A general banking business transacted and customers given every accommodation consistent with safe and conservative banking.
CORRESPONDENTS: The American National Bank, of San Francisco, Calif; Merchants National Bank, Portland, Oregon; The Chase National Bank, of New York.

SUNSET
Sunset Magazine offers the readers of this paper the best opportunity of the year
REVIEW OF REVIEWS . . . $3.00 ALL FOR
SUNSET MAGAZINE . . . 1.50
WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION 1.25 $3.00
AND FREE with your order, a beautiful premium, a large book illustrated in four colors with 135 Western views.
SUNSET MAGAZINE
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA