Guess what we are pointing at

Answer — Coumerilh Christensen Big Ad Don't fail to read it.

Persons coming from Rogue river state that two firms intend to start fishing soon. J. W. Hume, a nephew of the late R. D. Hume, has commenced the erection of a salting plant near the mouth of the river. It is also reported that Schliemann & Co., of Gold Beach, will engage in fishing this season.

Here is the way an editor says the papers will write up weddings ten years hence: The bride looked very well in a traveling dress, but all eyes were centered on the groom. He wore a dark suit that fitted his form perfectly, and in his daintly gloved hands he carried a small white rose. His curly hair was beautifully done, and a delicate odor of hair oil of the best quality floated down the aisle as he passed. The young people will miss him now that he is married. He is loved by all for his many accomplishments, his tender grace and his winning ways. The bride commands a good salary as bookkeeper in St Joe, and the groom will miss none of the luxuries to which he has been accustomed. A crowd of pretty men saw him off at the depot."—Ex.

County Judge J. B. Messick of Baker county, upon the request of several county courts of the state has issued a call for a state meeting of the county courts and county commissioners, at which it is expected to perfect a state organization similar to those existing in other states. Judge Lionel R. Webster of Multnomah county will act as chairman of the reception committee, with power to name his associates. The gathering will convene at the Convention Hall of the Portland Commercial Club at ten o'clock Tuesday morning, June 7th, and continue through the day. An arrangement has been made for the county courts and judges to secure a point of vantage to witness the Rose Festival Parade Monday night and also the one Tuesday afternoon. Tuesday morning the convention will close its session, devoting the afternoon to the festivities.

The man who wins is the man who invests in city real estate.

There will never be any more land around San Francisco Bay than now, but there will be millions of people who will want this land later on. Are you going to be able to sell it to them or are you going to plod along working for others all your life?

Think quickly for with me you are protected from losing your property should you become sick or unemployed while you are making your purchase. No man has ever lost his lots when buying of me.

Make your money work as hard as you work yourself.

Be somebody. Your real estate will prove that you are.

Plant your money in Richmond real estate and nature will do the rest.
