

THE TALK OF THE TOWN

WHICH WILL INTEREST READERS OF THE RECORDER

E. C. Roberts of Myrtle Point was in Bandon Sunday.

Buy your first quality white cedar shingles from the Estabrook Co.

E. N. Smith of Myrtle Point was in Bandon this week looking after business affairs.

Big dance at Oriental hall Saturday night. Plenty of good music and a fine time for all who attend it.

Miss Effie Collier, Miss Ray Collier and Miss Kittie Wells of Coquille spent a couple of days in our city the past week.

Rouse's coal at the Estabrook warehouse. 21tf

Mrs. R. H. Rosa was elected Worthy Matron to fill vacancy at a recent meeting of the local chapter O. E. S. and Mrs. E. J. Hite was elected Associate Matron.

Joe Windle brought down a stand of bees, from his ranch near Lampa Monday, for M. G. Pohl. Mr Windle says this is a great bee country, and his bees are doing fine.

FOR SALE—Cheap a good fire class merchandise business. Inquire of the Bandon Investment Corporation. 24tf

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Cody returned last Friday from Portland and points in Washington where they have been spending two or three weeks. They report a very pleasant time.

W. S. Patterson and family of Santa Ana, Calif., are visiting the gentleman's brother, C. H. Patterson of this city. They have been in Washington visiting at various points for the past ten months and will spend a couple of months here.

See Spencer at the Estabrook warehouse for reservations on the Breakwater. 21tf

Walter J. Sabin of Redlands Cal., and Mrs. Chas. T. Clifford of Tulare arrived on the Fifield to visit their father, A. B. Sabin. Mrs. Clifford will return to her home in a week or two, but Mr. Sabin will remain for an indefinite period.

All the local news in the Bandon RECORDER. Subscription $1.50 per year.

Steve Gallier is now mayor of Bandon, and Herbert Manciet a councilman. If Rube Gardner had only held on as Marshal, Bandon would seem like a Curry county town, with Mrs. Walker as Post mistress—Port Orford Tribune.

Smoke Coquille Valley PIPPIN Best five cent cigar on the coast 27-4f

Mrs. A. B. Prentiss, wife of Dr. A. B. Prentiss, dentist, who formerly lived in Marshfield, was honored in Portland recently by being elected Pochontas of Kiwanza Council, No 11 Degree of Pochontas of that city. Dr. Prentiss who has been ill is improving rapidly.—Times

FOR SALE—A good standard bred horse four years old buggy and harness or will sell separate. Will take a good milch cow for part pay. Call on or address W. F. Waite, Bandon, Ore. 24 4fx.

WANTED—A cook at Knapp's Hotel Port Orford. Address. L. KNAPP, Port Orford, Ore. 1tx

Wm Blanchard a resident of Marshfield committed suicide Friday morning on a hill in South Marshfield by shooting himself with a revolver. Blanchard had not been well for some time being a sufferer from Bright's disease for a number of years. He left home Thursday night and when he did not return search was instituted. The body was found by John Hogland.—Harbor.

Mrs. John McMonies of Portland, mother of Mrs. Hunt and sister of Dr. Rossiter, arrived here last Friday for a visit at the Hunt and Rossiter homes. She was accompanied by her daughter Mrs. C. L. Raymond of Gaston and Miss Gertrude Hunt who has been at Salem for some time. Miss Hunt will now be at home with her parents Capt. and Mrs. Hunt.

A fine baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Buckle on the Hamblock place Friday.

Ed Ohman is hauling logs to the river from his camp and will raft them down to the Aberdeen mill. He has nearly a million feet now ready for business.

Cedar Planking for bridge and street work. Estabrook Co. 26f

At the recent Grand Lodge of Oregon Knights of Pythias, Lloyd Rosa and Harry Morrison represented the Delphi Lodge of Bandon, and Mr. Morrison was appointed Deputy Grand Chancellor for this district. This is a distinction of which he may well feel proud and is only conferred upon a man who is well posted in the workings of the Order.

Beginning Monday July 19 the Racket Store will make a great removal sale. 27 1t

Last week's issue of the Silver State, published at Deer Lodge, contained an announcement that a "shirt waist social" would be given in that city on a certain date, and that "all ladies attending without wearing shirtwaists would be fined." Good! Any one who would attend without having common decency enough to wear a mere waistshirt should not only be fined, but be thrown out also.

Don't be too late to get your share of bargains at the Racket Store Removal Sale beginning Monday July 19. 27 1t

Southern Oregon alone expects to ship pears to the value of half a million dollars this season. From present indications, it is thought Southern Oregon will send away 500 cars of pears to the Eastern markets. The value of each carload is placed at $1000, making the crop worth $500,000. Other sections of the state will increase the value of the pear crop largely, making a very large total for this one great Oregon product.

Ask for Coquille Valley PIPPIN and have a good smoke. 27 4t

At the regular meeting of Delphi Lodge K. of P. next Monday evening the following officers will be installed: Dr. L. P. Sorensen, chancellor; Wm. McKay, vice chancellor; C. R. Wade, prelate; C. E. Holloper, master of works; E. Lewin, master at arms; B. N. Herrington, keeper of records and seals; Nels Rasmussen, master of exchange; Albert Garfield, master of finance; Jno. Langlois, inside guard; A. D. E. Perdue, outside guard.

Rouse's coal at the Estabrook warehouse. 21tf

G. W. Carleton conducted an auction at the race track yesterday forenoon and sold the following horses belonging to the Hume estate. The amount of each sale is not given, but the total amount received was $105 more than was expected. Requ and Letitia were bought by J. J. McDonald; Tiwana was bid in by N. K. Wiseman; Tressie by O. J. Seeley, and Yo San, with colt by Skipper, was purchased by F. P. Norton. Rhodes' galloper Abby was also sold, going to N. T. Jolliffe for $305.—News.

The class in writing and drawing that commences its sessions on next Monday promises to be a large one. The ability to write a good slant is a valuable acquisition. The decided improvement in hand writing accomplished by Prof. Hanshaw, when here before, is well known.

"That advertising brings results was clearly demonstrated to me Friday morning," remarked Henry Songstacken, "About 6 o'clock, my telephone bell rang and I got up fully expecting to hear of someone being ill or of something serious. It was merely a man who wanted a job of slashing at Eastside that I had advertised in the want columns of the Times the night before. Next time. I guess I'll have to attach my office hours to the ad, to save being awakened during the night.—Times

The Elizabeth will sail for S. F. Saturday night.

C R Wade, Esq., was in Marshfield this week on business.

Mrs. J. J. O'Neill returned Saturday from an extended visit with relatives and friends in San Francisco and northern California.

Sam Johnson, the gen'l. purser on the Dispatch and U. S. mail clerk left on the Fifield for San Francisco and will take a well earned vacation.

Mr. Covell will leave on the Breakwater Saturday for Portland and from there will go to Seattle to bring back a small grandchild whose mother died recently.

Word has been received here that A. G. Erickson has secured a position with the government as dock foreman at Ft. Stevens with a salary of $100 per month attached. His friends here will congratulate him on his good success.

Miss Ida Rodine one of the successful school teachers of Coos county died in a hospital in Marshfield July 12th, from complications resulting from an operation. She was a sister of Miss Carrie Rodine who formerly taught in the Bandon school.

Geo. H. Moore, who is one of the stockholders in the Cody Lumber Co., arrived on the last Fifield from Port Huron, Mich., and will remain here for an indefinite period. He was accompanied by his friend Mr. Pierce who will be remembered as having been here for some time last winter.

Smoke Coquille Valley PIPPIN and be convinced. 27 4t

Wm. Wade, Tom Goodale and Sell Ireland returned last evening from Roseburg, having made the trip via Myrtle Point in about eleven hours running time. They had to stop a number of places to remove stones and other obstructions. With a little repair work in the canon, it is believed that the trip can be made regularly in twelve hours or less, allowing time for meals. They expect to start the regular auto service in a short time.—Times.

Number 3 cedar for building purposes. See Estabrook Co. 26f

Prentiss N. Gray, owner of the motor boat Konocti, has signified his willingness to bring the racer here this fall for another test of speed with E. H. Powers' General 11. The boats raced on the Sacramento river in May and the General won. The next race was won by the Konocti. Motor boat fans in California are anxious for a final test between the two racers to settle the question of supremacy, and it is possible a number of enthusiasts will be here from San Francisco to witness the event.—News.

C. B. Zeek met with another accident Monday July 12th, as a result either of faulty material or faulty construction in side walk and street crossings. Mr. Zeek had a similar accident about two months ago near the McKiniss place. This time he was near the laundry. Mr. Zeek is now confined to his home and is under medical treatment as the result of stepping on a plank which broke and let him fall through dislocating his knee joint and badly spraining the ligaments. His injury is very severe if not permanent and it will be at least several months before he entirely recovers.

It Was Good Advice.

A wildly turbulent peasant was once a witness in a trial before Chief Baron O'Grady. The counsel, after pestering him for some time, put a question to him which reflected on the witness' character.

"If ye ax me that again I'll give ye a kick in the gob?" was the answer.

The counsel appealed to the court, stating that an answer was necessary to his client's case, ending up with the query, "What would your lordship advise me to do?"

"If you are resolved to repeat the question," replied the court, "I'd advise you to move a little from the witness."

The Poutlice Is a Barbaric Relic.

The poutlice is a barbarous relic of the days of witch burning. The typical home poutlice is made of faxseed. It is a soggy, unsavory, germ infested instrument of torture. Clapped upon the suffering baby's chest, it interferes with the poor child's breathing, infects his skin with the germs that cause pimples and boils and makes him unbearably uncomfortable and unhappy. The heat in the poutlice is its only valuable feature. The dampness does damage, and the faxseed is as inert as so much sawdust or breakfast food. Why not use hot water bags or, better still, hot cloths?—Dellnator.

He Got the Teacher.

A man called at a grammar school in a large city to see one of the teachers and, uncertain just which was the room he wanted, noted the bell buttons in the main corridor. He pressed one of them. His surprise was great when soon after the sound of the gong children and teachers fled forth from the various rooms, all in orderly line and with no excitement or crowding. The visitor had pressed the button which called for the fire alarm drill practice.

Useful to Flirts.

A young man called on a patent expert and showed him an idea he wanted protected. It was in the form of an engagement ring.

"But," said the expert, examining the very ordinary looking eirelet, "what is there patentable about this?"

"It is adjustable, sir," said the inventor proudly.—London Answers.

There is no greater grief than in misery to turn our thoughts back to happier times.—Daute.

Many Coming to Northwest

Seattle, Wash, July 14—Exceptional prosperity for the Northwest this year is predicted by W. W. Broughton, traffic manager of the Great Northern Railway, as the result of a bumper wheat crop. Mr. Broughton studies wheat carefully each year and this time he observes that the farmers are going to make a big killing. Speaking of the situation, Mr. Broughton says: "I have come across the country slowly for the express purpose of getting out among the producers and wheat dealers to ascertain crop conditions. Not for many years has the vast stretch of country from Minnesota to the Sound been so prolific with its wheat yield. The crop in Washington state is especially good and heavy. I have crossed the country many times but never did I see a people so happy and contented with their lot as the farmers in the region tapped by the Great Northern and its branches. Railways keep just as good account of the crops as the banks and grain dealers. We also know what is doing in districts other than our own. So it seems reasonable to say that with good crops from Minnesota to salt water from the Platte to the Saskatchewan in Canada, the entire West will enjoy remarkable prosperity this year. I look for the greatest travel the West has ever seen between the middle of July and the middle of September.

Perhaps all widows aren't handsome, but that doesn't make any difference.

Kindness like virtue is its own reward, which is fortunate for kindness.

If a generous impulse were to awake in some people it would be scared into the middle of next century by its surroundings.

Doing our duty is undoubtedly commendable, but it requires a great deal of commendation to reconcile some of us.

Some men are the salt of the earth, and some women are the pepper of society.

Indolence is a soporific that has put many a better quality to sleep.

All things are relative, but some of us would sometimes like to deny the relationship.

It often costs an effort to be kind and charitable, and some of the results bear witness to the fact.

Desire and Necessity.

A cot by the sea in the country.
A beautiful mansion in town.
A mine that was deep and exhaustless.
A yacht that would never go down.
An auto to scot like the lightning.
A fanciful book to peruse.
A diamond as large as a saucer.
Are some of the things I could use.

A wife who was pretty and charming.
A job that was counted a snap.
A chair that was easy and ample
And time when I choose for a nap.
A box of cigars at my elbow.
An income that never would strike
And plenty of leisure to travel
Are some of the things I would like.

A store that would furnish me credit
Nor growl if I chanced to be slow.
Some garments not threadbare or seedy.
A drink—it is hard to be dry.
A dollar or two in my pocket.
A ticket that called for a feed.
A friend with an ear for my troubles.
Are some of the things that I need.

A bed of some sort or another.
A dime for some coffee and pie.
The price of a patch on my trousers.
A drink—it is hard to be dry.
A nickel for car fare and only
A stogie my feelings to soave.
A rest with a free lunch attachment.
Are some of the things I must have.

Explained.

"I wonder why so few men try to live up to a woman's ideal?"
"Do you really?"
"I do, indeed."
"Cease wondering right away, for I will explain."
"Proceed."
"Because so few of them can do a lightning change turn."

The Reverse.

"Here is an article on 'How to Capture a Man,' girls."
"Pshaw, that isn't the kind of knowledge we are looking for!"
"Isn't it?"
"No."
"What are you looking for, then?"
"How to let one go."

Alluring.

He heard the call of duty.
And he hurried at the sound.
He thought he saw some profits
In the background lurking round.

The Depths.

Two sports met. "I hear," said one, "that Bikins is on the water wagon."
"Worse than that."
"How is it possible?"
"Riding the buttermilk cart."

Nothing Less Will Do.

"What kind of a play did you wish, madam?"
"One in which every part is a star part."
"Oh, for amateurs!"

Mean Enough.

"Jones is in bad at home."
"What is the trouble?"
"He refuses to pay more than his yearly income for a hat for his wife."
"Why, the old tightwad!"

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Being loyal to one's friends is praiseworthy and also pleasant—if the purse can stand the strain.

Money is the root of all evil, but it also supplies the pleasant fruit that grows on the branches.

Perhaps all widows aren't handsome, but that doesn't make any difference.

Kindness like virtue is its own reward, which is fortunate for kindness.

If a generous impulse were to awake in some people it would be scared into the middle of next century by its surroundings.

Doing our duty is undoubtedly commendable, but it requires a great deal of commendation to reconcile some of us.

Some men are the salt of the earth, and some women are the pepper of society.

Indolence is a soporific that has put many a better quality to sleep.

All things are relative, but some of us would sometimes like to deny the relationship.

It often costs an effort to be kind and charitable, and some of the results bear witness to the fact.

Desire and Necessity.

A cot by the sea in the country.
A beautiful mansion in town.
A mine that was deep and exhaustless.
A yacht that would never go down.
An auto to scot like the lightning.
A fanciful book to peruse.
A diamond as large as a saucer.
Are some of the things I could use.

A wife who was pretty and charming.
A job that was counted a snap.
A chair that was easy and ample
And time when I choose for a nap.
A box of cigars at my elbow.
An income that never would strike
And plenty of leisure to travel
Are some of the things I would like.

A store that would furnish me credit
Nor growl if I chanced to be slow.
Some garments not threadbare or seedy.
A drink—it is hard to be dry.
A dollar or two in my pocket.
A ticket that called for a feed.
A friend with an ear for my troubles.
Are some of the things that I need.

Explained.

"I wonder why so few men try to live up to a woman's ideal?"
"Do you really?"
"I do, indeed."
"Cease wondering right away, for I will explain."
"Proceed."
"Because so few of them can do a lightning change turn."

The Reverse.

"Here is an article on 'How to Capture a Man,' girls."
"Pshaw, that isn't the kind of knowledge we are looking for!"
"Isn't it?"
"No."
"What are you looking for, then?"
"How to let one go."

Alluring.

He heard the call of duty.
And he hurried at the sound.
He thought he saw some profits
In the background lurking round.

The Depths.

Two sports met. "I hear," said one, "that Bikins is on the water wagon."
"Worse than that."
"How is it possible?"
"Riding the buttermilk cart."

Nothing Less Will Do.

"What kind of a play did you wish, madam?"
"One in which every part is a star part."
"Oh, for amateurs!"

Mean Enough.

"Jones is in bad at home."
"What is the trouble?"
"He refuses to pay more than his yearly income for a hat for his wife."
"Why, the old tightwad!"

THE CHEAPEST, SAFEST AND MOST SANITARY Way to Preserve Fruits And JELLY Is to cover it with Pure Paraffine You can always buy it at the Bandon Drug Co.

Bandon Foundry & Machine Shop

A. Garfield
Mil. and Steamboat Work Our SPECIALTIES

SPECIAL MACHINES BUILT TO ORDER
Turned Shafting, Cap and Set Screws, Machine Bolts, Pipe and Fittings, Brass Work
GENERAL REPAIRING
Pattern Shop in Connection

ROOMS and LODGING

Newly furnished large light rooms Telephone Electric Lights Rented by single night, week or month
INQUIRE AT OFFICE OF THE BANDON STEAM LAUDRY

Big Removal Sale

At THE RACKET STORE BANDON, OREGON
Notions, Toys, Stationery, Hosiery, Chinaware, Overalls and Shirts for men and boys

DO YOU WISH TO BUY HIGH Grade Fruit Trees And Berries of all Description
Flowers then order from M. G. POHL
Bandon, Ore., gen. agt. Coos Co. Nursery

Notice to Contractors

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received for the improvement and construction of a portion of the county road in Road District No. 19, Coos county, Oregon, known as the "Bandon-Dairyville Road" from Johnson creek southward, according to the specifications on file with the county clerk of Coos county, Oregon, and a copy of such specifications in the hands of S. J. Culver, Special Road Master of R. D. No. 19. Five per cent of amount of bid to be deposited with the county clerk with bid and all bids to be filed with the county clerk of Coos county, Oregon, on or before the 28th day of July A. D. 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m. The county court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
Dated this 12th day of July A. D. 1909.
S. J. CULVER,
Special Road Master of R. D. No. 19.

Notice to Contractors

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received for the improvement and construction of a portion of the county road in Road District No. 19, Coos county, Oregon, known as the "Bandon-Bear Creek Road," according to the specifications on file with the county clerk of Coos county, Oregon, and a copy of such specifications in the hands of S. J. Culver, Special Road Master, of R. D. No. 19. Five per cent of amount of bid to be deposited with the county clerk with bid and all bids to be filed with the county clerk of Coos county, Oregon, on or before the 28th day of July A. D. 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m. The county court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
Dated this 12th day of July A. D. 1909.
S. J. CULVER,
Special Road Master of R. D., No. 19.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION

Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office at Roseburg, Ore. July 12, 1909.
Notice is hereby given that Ella M. Rea, nee Sackett, of Bandon, Oregon, who, on April 22, 1904, made Homestead Entry, No. 13489, S. R. 03714, for lots 10 and 11, sw 1-4, se 1-4, ne 1-4 sw 1-4, section 3, township 30 south, range 14 west, Willamette Meridian, has filed notice of intention to make final five year proof, to establish claim to the land above described, before C. T. Treadgold, U. S. Commissioner, at Bandon, Oregon, on the 21st day of August, 1909.
Claimant names as witnesses: Robert Walker, of Bandon, Oregon; Sylvester Shields, of " " " " James Cope, of " " " " H. Jackson, of " " " " BENJAMIN L. EDDY, Register.