Hookworm can certainly be quickly conquered, malaria more slowly and consumption most slowly, but almost as completely. Consumption is virtually the same great, sweeping destroyer in modern cities of science that it was a century ago, say, in London. Indeed, since the great grip epidemic of 1831 consumption seems worse than it ever was before and the grip epidemic of twenty years ago did not make things any better.—New York Press.

It was the custom one hundred years ago to purchase British army commissions for newly born babes, their rank progressing as opportunity occurred. And Jean answered: "Oh, my lady, there's naething the matter. It's only the major (still an infant) greeting (crying) for his parritch."
