A. J. Hartman left on the Elizabeth for San Francisco, and will go from there, via Panama, to New York, whence he will sail for England and will probably take a trip around the world before he returns. He expects to be gone three or four months.

The best and neatest embroidery in town. Rosa Co's. 1t

We have eggs for sale. White Plymouth Rocks, White Pekin Ducks, Indian Runner Ducks, at $1.00 per setting. Also Mammoth Bronze Turkeys at $2.00 per setting. Pure bred stock. Orders can be left at RECORDER office.

FRANK F. EDDY. 13-3t

Ladies, see that dainty Flaxon at Rosa Co's store for neat summer dresses. 1t

All ladies who are tired of the dirt and muss from building fires in cook stoves for light lunches would be interested in that automatic blue flame oil stove at the Bandon Hardware Store. Absolutely safe. Quicker and cleaner than gasoline. Call in and see it. 1t

A. F. Deringer, who has been foreman of the Bandon Steam Laundry for nearly two years, has purchased the plant of F. A. Bates, and started operating the same April 1st. Mr. Deringer is an excellent laundry man, and will surely make a success of the business. Mr. Bates and family will probably move south after he gets his business affairs all straightened out here. Mrs. Bates is now in the East where she is looking after her parents, who are ill.

Rosa Co has the completest line of Galatea and Indian head ever brought to Coquille valley. 1t

A carnival of boxing will be pulled off at Oriental Hall Saturday night. There will be three bouts, and it will be the classiest boxing ever seen here. Jess Day, champion of the northwest, will box 20 rounds with Billy Thomas of Utah, at 158 pounds. Art Fish and Pud Nosler, both of Coquille, will box 8 rounds at 133 pounds, for the light weight championship of Coos county, and a red hot 6 round preliminary opens the show.

Sunday was Rev. M. E. Coen's last day at the Presbyterian Church in this city, and a large audience was out to greet him and hear him preach his farewell sermon, which was a very strong discourse and greatly interested his hearers. In the evening he delivered a temperance lecture which was also largely attended. Mr. Coen has been here but a short time, but he has proved himself a strong man in his work, and the church has been wonderfully built up under his pastorate. He has made many friends out of the church as well as in it, and all will wish him unbounded success in his new field. He left Tuesday with his family for Woodville, Or., where he will take charge of the Presbyterian church. Woodville is about eight miles from Grants Pass and is on the main line of the S. P.
