

Local Lore

J. P. Devereaux was down to Lakeport last week.

Don't forget that T. W. Robinson has Shady Brook dairy food, also the very best coconut meal, a substitute for oil meal. 18 tf

Mair Dano spent Sunday with his parents at Bandon.—Times.

FOR SALE.—Field peas, 3/4 cts per pound. Address Geo. T. Moulton, Coquille, Ore. 16tf

Otho Hopson, of the firm of Lucas & Hopson, was a Marshfield visitor the first of the week.

Don't forget that T. W. Robison has all kinds of hay, grain, etc., at the Central Warehouse. 14 tf

M. Macklen has gone to Klamath with his family and expects to make his home in that vicinity.

New six room house for rent, one block from school house.

A. HABERLY. 19 tf

W. J. Caudlin, the Coquille traveling man, was a Bandon visitor the first of the week.

Mrs. L. P. Sorensen and Mrs. Geo. Laird went to Coquille last Saturday on business.

The report that I have purchased an interest in the Doyle meat market is erroneous, as I have nothing what ever to do with it. E LEWIN. It

Joseph Crocket, of Prosper, had a very severe attack of heart trouble last Wednesday, and for a time his life was much despaired of, but at last report he was much better.

It has been announced that the steamer Carlos will be put on the run between Coos Bay, Gray's Harbor and Seattle. The fare from Seattle to Coos Bay will be $14.

A forest fire broke out at the Cody camp last week and burned two or three days, but fortunately it was gotten under control before any great amount of damage was done.

The schooner Oregon arrived in port Tuesday with about 100,000 brick and a number of tanks of oil, besides some miscellaneous freight. She will load lumber and sail south in a few days.

Strawberry growers report that the high winds of last week did a great amount of damage to their berries, drying them up and thus greatly shortening the crop. As a result berries are higher again.

Mrs. B. N. Gustat, of Anaconda, Mont., who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Logan of this city, came in Wednesday and ordered the RECORDER sent to her home address. Mrs. Gustat was a former employe in this office.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cavanaugh and Mrs. Robert E. L. Bedillion of Bandon arrived here last night and went on to Portland on the morning local. The ladies said the ride from Myrtle Point here on the stage is a delightful trip.—Roseburg News

Mayor Steve Gallier, who has been at Marshfield for some time taking treatment for rheumatism returned home last Friday and is now able to be around town again. His many friends are all glad to see him out again and hope that he may soon be restored to complete health.

J. P. Tupper expects to leave for the east tomorrow, where he will visit for a time, and will perhaps make a trip to England before returning. His granddaughter, Miss Agnes Tupper, will accompany him as far as Boston, where she will visit during the summer.—Coquille Valley Sentinel.

Bert Gould, of Coquille, county surveyor, was a Bandon visitor the first of the week.

J. Ira Sidwell left Saturday for Portland, where he goes to buy goods, and attend the Rose Festival.

The members of the Thimble Club are being entertained this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Bowman.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Holloper, Monday morning, a fine bouncing baby boy, and "Holly" is smiling all over his face.

Have a few 5 or 10 acre tracts, 2 1/2 miles south of town, 1/2 mile from beach, for sale; best location.

J. P. DEGESEN. 19-14x

The big whistle on the Geo. W. Moore Lumber Co.'s mill is a dandy and will sure wake people up if they happen to be still sleeping about six o'clock.

The Bandon ball team expects to go to Marshfield Sunday and play a game with the team of that city, and they will probably have a return game for the following Sunday.

Shady Brook dairy feed is made of pure alfalfa meal, rolled in good molasses. The best milk producing feed on the market. For sale by T. W. Robison at Central warehouse. 6tf

The graduating exercises of Mercy hospital at North Bend were held in Loggie's Hall of that city last Friday evening. A large audience was in attendance, and a very good program was carried out.

The Elizabeth arrived in port Sunday with a big passenger list, among which were six families, en route to Prosper, where the men will be employed in the Prosper mill.

Miss Mary Marsh and Miss Kate Rosa will leave Friday on the Breakwater, for Portland, and from there Miss Marsh will go to Salem and Miss Rosa to Albany, where they will attend summer school.

Geo. W. Moore and son, C. R., and Mrs. Robt. Walker and the Misses Walker of Bandon were in Lakeport last Sunday on their way to Port Orford to spend Sunday. Mr. Moore is president of the Cody Lumber Co. of Bandon.—Floras Lake Banner.

The big annual Rose Festival is on at Portland this week, and it is said to be the greatest event of the kind ever yet held. Portland is coming to the front with her 220,000 population, and will surge forward all the time. Other cities of the Pacific coast will have to go some to keep pace with Portland.

The editor has received the usual annual invitation to the Commencement exercises of the University of Oregon, but owing to business pressure and inconvenient transportation, we will be unable to attend, but we take this opportunity to commend the University of Oregon to Oregon people as one of the best institutions of learning on the Pacific coast.

An Oregon shingle mill in Tillamook county worked 33 days on one mammoth cedar log, cutting from it 141,000 shingles. This is almost unbelievable to people not familiar with the Pacific coast, where big trees and vast timber resources are accepted quite as a matter of course.

The summer automobile service between this place and Roseburg was commenced this week, with two machines on the run, one being run by Stewart Lyons of Coquille, and the other by Geo. M. Hite of Bandon. Wm. Wade, of Marshfield, has not yet started his machine, but it is understood that he intends to do so, having bought a new machine for the service.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Mrs. Nels Rasmussen went to the Bay, yesterday, for a few days' visit.

The boxing contest at Marshfield last Saturday night, between Danny O'Brien of Portland and Jess Day of Marshfield, was brought to a close at the end of the 15th round when it was clear that Day was completely outclassed. O'Brien is said to be one of the cleverest boxers that ever struck this section of the country.

Sterling Silver Souvenir Spoons of Bandon, at Boyle's Jewelry Store, from 50c to $2.00 each. 22-2t

Judge John F. Hall went to Coquille this morning to hold the regular monthly session of probate court. While Judge Hall could not be seen, Tom Hall said that the report that Judge Hall would be a candidate for circuit judge was erroneous. Judge Hall will be a candidate for renomination and reelection as County Judge.—Coos Bay Times.

For Sale—A good organ. Almost new. Price $35 cash. Inquire of Rev. R. H. Allen. 22-1tx

W. J. Sweet has accepted a position as bookkeeper in the Bank of Bandon, starting work last Saturday morning. A. C. Thrift, who has been bookkeeper for about two years, will remain a short time and help Mr. Sweet get acquainted with the books, after which, he, in partnership with J. L. Kronenburg, will open up a real estate office in the new bank building.

For a suitable wedding present or other gift see those Souvenir Spoons of the Bandon High School and Light House, $1.50 and $2.00 each, at Boyle's Jewelry Store. 22-2t

Mrs. Steve Gallier and daughter Edna, Mrs. E. Lewin and daughter, and Miss Ivy Langlois, of Langlois, left Wednesday for Portland, where Mrs. Gallier will attend the Grand Lodge of the O. E. S., and Mrs. Lewin the Grand Lodge of the Pythian Sisters. They went to Coquille on the morning boat and from there took private conveyance for Roseburg.

Miss Estella Weekly, of Myrtle Point, was married, June 1st, to Mr. George Everett Slagle, of Coquille. The bride is well known in Bandon, having been here many times in the capacity of a trained nurse. Miss Pearl Craine, of this city, who has been visiting in Myrtle Point for some time, was one of the little flower girls.

Misses Rogers and Gearhart who have been teaching in the Bandon schools for the past year will leave tomorrow on the Breakwater for their respective homes at Waitsburg, Wash., and Salem, Oregon. These young ladies have not applied for positions in Bandon for the coming year, and do not expect to return, a fact that will be greatly regretted by the many friends they have made during their stay here. They have both secured lucrative positions in other schools for next year.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. F. church will serve luncheon consisting of sandwiches and coffee, and strawberries and cream and cake Saturday afternoon and evening, June 11th, in the Building next to the Water Company's office. All are invited. 22-1tx

Among those from Bandon who left on the Breakwater to attend the Rose Festival at Portland, were the following: Mrs. O. A. Trowbridge, Mrs. Thos White and children, and Mrs. White's mother, Mrs. Ohman, Mrs. C. Y. Lowe and daughter and the Misses Nora Gibson and Erma Craine.

Thos Langlois, janitor of the Bandon school building was given a very pleasant surprise last week by the teachers of the school making up a purse and purchasing for him a fine oak rocker which was sent out to his home last Saturday. The chair was given as a token of the appreciation of the work of Mr. Langlois during the past year, he having been ever faithful to his duty in every way and was exceedingly accommodating and obliging. No school ever had a better janitor than Mr. Langlois.

THE STREETS

OF

BANDON

WILL BLAZE

WITH

INCANDESCENT

LIGHTS

DURING THE

FOURTH

OF

JULY

CELEBRATION

WATCH US

MAKE GOOD

OUR

WORD

Will Hold Harvest Home.

Bandon Grange, No 38, at its regular meeting last Saturday, June 4th, changed the hour of meeting to 12:30 o'clock on the first Saturday of each month. Grangers please note the change of time.

The Grange also decided to hold a Harvest Home Festival late in September, at which time a basket picnic will be given, and exhibition of farm produce.

Dr. W. Botot's Reliable Family Remedies. Pile cure a specialty. For sale by Mrs. Lottie J Jenkins, Bandon, Oregon. Orders by mail promptly filled. 19 4t

BANDON PLANING MILL

All Kinds of Mill Work, Mouldings, Sash, Doors and Furniture.

Mission Work a Specialty

Greatly Reduced Rates on Small Mouldings

Shields And Armstrong Proprietors

Presbyterian Church

Regular services are held every Sunday at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. Sunday school at 10 a.m. Y. P. S. C. E. at 7 p.m. Strangers and new comers are always welcome.

Notice of Administration.

Notice is hereby given, that by order of the County Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Coos, Chas. I Green was duly appointed administrator of the estate of Hannah J. Green, deceased, and that letters testamentary were fully issued to the said Chas. I. Gaen on the 29th day of April, 1910; that he is now qualified and acting, therefore all persons having claims against the said estate are hereby notified to present the same with proper vouchers to the said administrator at Bandon, Oregon, within six months from the 2nd day of June, 1910, the date of the final publication of this notice.

CHAS. I. GREEN,
Administrator of the Estate of Hannah J. Green, deceased.
C. P. TOPPING,
Attorney for the Estate.

little house maid says
a nice desk is an ornament too

ask your wife or daughter if she would not like to have a pretty new writing desk. one will make a suitable present any time of the year because it is serviceable and gives a nifty look to the room. for these prices we can sell you a beauty in a writing desk.

yours truly

Woodruff & Turner

The House Furnishers

AUCTION PRICES BEAT—Consult the second hand store before purchasing at the auction. Large stock to select from. Woodruff & Goff it

The Elizabeth arrived in port last Sunday with 22 passengers and 108 tons of freight. She sailed again Tuesday with 11 passengers, 205,000 feet of lumber, 41 cords of match wood, 16 tons of potatoes, 17 tons miscellaneous and 6 tons of butter.

The Fifield arrived Monday with 75 tons of freight and 25 passengers and sailed again Wednesday with 10 passengers and 351,000 feet of lumber.

Rev. Seldon C. Adams, of Ashland, will hold revival meetings in Prosper hall, beginning next Sunday.

Mrs. E. E. Lyons and daughter went to Myrtle Point, Tuesday, returning home the next day.

The Buffalo has been on dry dock at Price's ship yard for several days and has undergone a thorough overhauling and now the Coquille is being given a thorough renovating at the same place.

Don't Forget The Rose Ball At Bank Hall, Saturday Evening, June 11th.

George Hite took Mrs. Van Valkenburg and son Jack and daughter Blanche, to Myrtle Point, Tuesday, in his automobile.

Owner of purse found near Cody's mill in road can have same by calling at RECORDER office and paying for this notice. 22 1t

BANDON LIGHT & POWER CO.

Dealers In

All Kinds of Electrical Supplies

Interior Wiring and Lighting our Specialty. Spark Plugs; Switches, and Fresh Stock of Batteries for your Engines. Complete Stock of Lamps, Fixtures, Bells, Etc.

Call at Office

First Door West of Coumerilh Christensen Co.