Bandon Loses Game

The Coos Bay Times of Monday, says: "By a score of 10 to 9, Marshfield wrested the first game of the season on the local grounds from the visitors yesterday. The game was a fairly good one, despite the high wind and the poor diamond, the outfield being very bad.

Only a few came over from Bandon with the Bandon team. The latter team returned home in autos, two machines taking them from here to Coquille, where they caught a boat. Myrtle Point, which was expected to play North Bend at North Bend yesterday, did not put in an appearance.

Many of the decisions yesterday were close and the crowd and the "ump" differed, but not seriously, and both teams fared about the same. There was only a fair attendance."

Great Railroad Development

Portland, Or., June 14 (Special). By the end of the present year, it is promised that the most remote districts of Oregon will be served by railroad transportation. Central Oregon will have two main lines, the Oregon Trunk and the Deschutes Railroad, and the building of these roads is of course the prime achievement of the year in transportation. In addition, the Harriman line to Tillamook will be completed and much progress will have been made by the end of the year on the Natron Klamath road. This year the cost of contracts for new railway lines and betterments in this state will aggregate about $30,000,000. Many other important new projects will undoubtedly be mapped out and started before 1911.

Livestock shipments to the Portland markets for the month of May are far ahead of the same statistics for May of last year, showing the growing importance of that market. Particularly is a big gain shown in hogs, which is gratifying to the trade. A total of 515 cars of livestock of all kinds came to the stock yards during May of this year. The increase in hogs received was over 7000 head. The O. R. & N. has decided to place in commission a regular stock train service, operating twice a week from Huntington to Portland and way points. This will begin June 21st and will be a greater convenience to the stock raiser.

The Coon King.

Eight chorus girls with seven changes of costumes will be among the attractions, and wherever this company has appeared, from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, they have made an instant hit. The principal characters in this bright and breezy musical comedy, are: Gen. Ormsby, the Emperor of Mirth, known all over the world as such, and as the "Coon King," he has been the hit of the season; Isabel Webster, the charming singing and dancing soubrette, as Rose; Lloyd Adams, as Bill Bunke, the Society Sharper, shows that he is an actor of ability, and a fine singer; Sibyl De Gey, the soubrette, as Tiny, is a graceful dancer and beautiful singer; Harry Demar, as Hans Wagner, is a past master in the art of dancing, and a great comedian; Janette Ormsby, the Prima Donna of this class aggregation, has charmed her hearers everywhere, and as the rich widow, Mrs. Asterbilt, she wears some of the latest Parisian gowns; Eddie Lancaster, as the Dude, is a sure cure for the blues and you laugh till you hurt whenever he talks; Winnie Oliver, as Miss Nevertalk, makes a specialty of character parts as the Old Maid, and she is certainly clever.
