Mrs. I. C. LeGere, of Varsailles, Mo., arrived here last week to visit her sister, Mrs. R. W. Boyle, and mother, Mrs. R. E. Buck.

J. Ira Sidwell returned from Portland, last Friday, where he was looking after business affairs and taking in the big Rose Festival.

The recent excellent rains have been a great boon to vegetation and settled the very obstructive dust for a few days at least, for which everybody was glad.

Judge E. D. Sperry and wife of Coquille were Bandon visitors the latter part of last week, and the Judge was looking after some business affairs which concern the public to a considerable extent. Judge Sperry is a good booster for Coos county.

The base ball game between Bandon and Marshfield which was to have been played on the local diamond, Sunday, was postponed on account of Marshfield not putting in an appearance. A telephone message from Marshfield, Sunday morning, said that it was raining there and that the team would not come.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will serve refreshments, consisting of coffee, sandwiches, pies, ice cream and berries, during the Fourth of July celebration, as has been their custom heretofore. Watch for their sign and patronize them and help along a good cause, while you get your money's worth of refreshments.

Rumor has it that another saw mill is probable for the Coquille river, but it will probably be located near Coquille. The Randolph mill on Coos Bay is the one in question, but it is not connected with the Randolph mill opposite Prosper. The rumor says that Coquille parties are negotiating for the mill and although nothing definite has yet been done, there is every reason to believe that there will be soon.

C. M. Skeels returned Tuesday from a few weeks' trip to Portland and other Willamette Valley points. While away he visited Geo. Baxter and family at Creswell and found them enjoying good health. He was accompanied on the outward trip by his daughter, Miss Dolly, who remained in Portland, where she has accepted a position in one of the large millinery establishments—Coquille Sentinel.

Mrs. B. S. Swengel very pleasantly entertained a number of invited friends at her cozy home yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Lloyd Bridges, who, with her husband, has recently moved to Bandon—by the Sea to make their home. Mr. Bridges has bought the Baldwin property on the bluff overlooking the bar and ocean. Those present to enjoy the afternoon were Mesdames Conger, Alfro Felner, Joe Clark, Howard Johnston, Jennie D. Fishburn and Miss Edna Mills of Lakeport.

Mrs. Emma Smith was a business visitor to Coquille, Wednesday.

Have you tried Home Bakery bread? it

The rain was a welcome visitor to the dairymen and ranchers in general.

Mrs. Rose L. McGeath, state supervising deputy, and Miss Eva Howe, assistant deputy, of the Oregon jurisdiction Royal Neighbors, expect to be in Bandon, July 6th, to meet with the local lodge, and all Royal Neighbors are urged to be present at the meeting.

"A. F. Estabrook Co. of Bandon are in the market for large quantities of Port Orford Cedar Telephone poles. Best prices paid. Full particulars at office in Bandon. Call or write." 23-4t

Don't fail to hear Van Sunday July 3rd. He will also speak during the week. Watch for fuller announcement.

Mrs. Albert Garfield, and mother, Mrs. Lorentzen of Oakland, Calif., were Coquille visitors last Tuesday.

A common topic of conversation on the streets now is: Who is Van? and when is he coming? He is the evangelist that commences meetings in Bandon July 3rd.

Mrs. Ber Folsom, of Coquille, was in Bandon the latter part of last week, visiting her brother, Fred Tuttle and family, of this place.

Mrs. Steve Galier, accompanied by her daughter Edna and Miss Otilie Lewin, returned home from Portland this week and reports a very enjoyable trip.

Albert Garfield left here Sunday morning in his auto and reached Roseburg in the afternoon at four o'clock, which was making pretty good time. He took H. F. Morrison and J. H. Shields over that far on their way to Portland to attend the K. of P. grand lodge.

A very quiet wedding took place last Wednesday evening, when Mr. Reuben Smith and Miss Emma Rushek were united in marriage, the Rev. R. H. Allen officiating. On Thursday evening the bride and groom sailed on the Fifield for San Francisco from where they go to Nebraska to make their future home. Their many friends in Bandon will extend congratulations and best wishes.

Geo. W. Moore, President of the Geo. W. Moore Lumber Co., left last Thursday for his home at Port Huron, Mich.

The Eugene Guard of the 8th says: "Chief Engineer Forneri reports to the Lane County Asset Company that he has located the line of the Eugene Siuslaw Coos Bay railroad across the summit at a 1 per cent grade, with a cut of but 25 feet. The line crosses the summit about a mile south of Hale, and the surveyors are now well down on the other side. The news that the mountains can be crossed at an easy grade without tunneling is very gratifying, showing that the best route to the coast from interior Oregon lies to the westward of Eugene."

Miss Rae Carey, one of the Sentinel's successful candidates in the recent contest was a Coquille visitor Saturday and Sunday, returning to Bandon, Monday, in company with Miss Genevieve Tellefsen, who came over from Marshfield on the morning train. Mrs. E. M. Gallier, of Bandon, was also a Coquille visitor, Sunday, and while in town made this office a pleasant call for the purpose of getting the credentials of herself as chaperon of the Sentinel's party which started for San Francisco by the Elizabeth, Tuesday. She was accompanied by her little daughter. —Coquille Sentinel.

Fourmile Notes

A number of Four mile people took advantage of the good roads and went to Bandon Saturday. Mrs. J. A. Cope, W. Simpson, Mrs. S. J. Wilson, Herm DeLong, Fred Miller and Mr. Duke going.

J. B. Hunt is visiting his son, R. P. Hunt and family.

Robert P. Hunt who was badly hurt last week at Foster Mill, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Clarence Foster is installing a new engine in his mill at Clayton's place.

A. Davis and family were having a siege of sickness the past few weeks.

Mr. Walters and family of Medford, Oregon, arrived at Mr. DeLos Gardner's place last week. They came in by way of Crescent City, driving their cows in with them. Mr. Walters may locate in this part of the country.

Andrew Jackson, son of Mrs. J. A. Cope, came home on a visit. Mr. Jackson is a teacher in the Columbia University of New York. His time being limited, he only spent a week with his folks, but his Fourmile friends were glad to see his pleasant countenance if only for a short time.

John Shipley, a cousin of Mrs. Ben Hanse and Mrs. Rollie Davis, arrived in Bandon a few days ago. Mr. Shipley has just arrived from Eugene and brings a bride with him. Best wishes are extended from his friends on Four mile.

A number of Socialists have organized a club and are now erecting a new hall at the forks of the Four mile road. This is a good move as a hall is much needed in this locality. Success to them in this good move.

One of the worst wind storms of the season struck this place last Sunday, shaking things up prettily. PETE

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Borton desire to express their heartfelt thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted them during the sickness and death of their little daughter, Selma Nora.

THE COCOANUT TREE.

It Has an Irresistible Craving For Salt Water.

"In the tropics, where the cocoanut is wanted for planting, the nuts are picked up when they fall from the tree; where they have hung for about fourteen months in ripening. It is a fact not generally known," says the Bakers' Weekly, "that a majority of the nuts drop at night, which probably accounts for the small loss of life by cocoanuts falling upon the heads of the natives."

"The action of the heavy dew at night loosens the seal with which nature has provided the nut and allows it to fall. The nuts wanted for planting are either gathered into heaps or placed under sheds, where they are allowed to sprout before planting, in order that good, healthy 'sprout nuts' may be selected, thus avoiding the possibility of planting 'blind' nuts that would not sprout, in which case much time would be lost in starting the 'cocoanut walks,' as the orchards are called. When holes are dug about three feet deep and twenty feet apart the nut is carefully placed in the hole and covered with about one foot of soil. The hole is filled as the sprout grows until it reaches the surface, when it is left to itself, requiring no further attention. Should the place where the cocoanut is planted be any great distance from the seashore a quantity of salt is placed in the hole. It will grow in luxuriance, however, but a short distance from the shore, nearness to salt water being absolutely essential to its welfare."

"An interesting story is told by a gentleman who resided for some years in the tropics. He planted a cocoanut tree behind a board fence some distance from the sea. The tree grew perfectly straight until it reached the top of the fence, when it began to grow toward the ocean, leaning a foot or more. Then a shed was built quite near the fence, but several feet higher, and the tree again grew straight until the roof of the shed was reached, when it again leaned toward the sea, forming a very curious and odd looking tree. "The irregular growth was wholly attributed to the influence of the salt air. No magnet is truer to the pole than the root of the cocoanut tree to the ocean, for when the root breaks through its husk it points directly toward the sea, no matter what the position of the nut when placed in the ground."

Sawlogs vs Musicians

The game of the season will be played next Sunday for the benefit of the Beach Sidewalk Fund.

Two weeks ago the local fans were treated to one of the rarest exhibitions of the national game that ever spectators had the privilege of witnessing. So dazzling was the glory with which the rotund players covered themselves, that the musicians, becoming jealous, have challenged the victors to a game, Sunday, and will endeavor to wrest the laurels from the brows of the fat men.

It will be a game with going miles to see and no one should miss it, for aside from its interest from a spectacular standpoint, it will be for a local benefit as well, the proceeds going to complete the Beach Sidewalk Fund.

So come, one and all. Bring horns and megaphones and root for your favorites.

Frank J. Haynes, a business man of Port Huron, Mich., was in Bandon a short time last Friday. Mr. Haynes is largely interested in the lumber business in Louisiana, and is looking over the conditions in the Pacific Northwest. He is a particular friend of Geo. W. Moore, president of the Geo. W. Moore Lumber Co.

Sunday's ball game between Bandon and Marshfield brought together some of the old time stars of the diamond. Bill Neizger, for instance, the southpaw, was on the rubber for Bandon. On the local side were McKeown, Keane and McCutcheon, not quite so ancient as Neizger, but equally distinguished for achievements in times past in this bush league. Bandon brought over a good team which included Howell and Collier of Coquille. Marshfield's selection included the best available baseball material on the bay. As an opening game the article of ball served was fair. The evenness of the score kept the fans in that suspense for which they like to spend their money. The umpire escaped without being beaten up; the game ending with a 10 to 9 score in favor of the locals.—Coos Bay News.

Shady Brook dairy feed is made of pure alfalfa meal, rolled in good molasses. The best milk producing feed on the market. For sale by T. W. Robison at Central Warehouse. 6t

The Ranger went out to the reef last Thursday and killed 22 sea lions and returned to the wharf in the evening, with the results of their slaughter. It is their best day's work so far, and Capt. George Ferry killed 15 of the lions at 15 shots and never lost one—a record not often equalled by our best shots. To take off the skins of these huge animals with the blubber attached and get them off the rocks into a small boat, and then into their gasoline launch, is hard, dangerous work, and only skilled men can do so, and they deserve the big returns they sometimes get for their exciting hazardous labors.—Port Orford Tribune.
