The First National Bank has instituted a new feature and will keep the bank open on Saturday evenings from 7 to 8:30 p. m., for the accommodation of the public. This will be a great accommodation, not only to merchants not wishing to keep a large amount of money in their stores over Sunday, but will also enable the working man and others to get their checks cashed and transact other business.

The drill by the life savers the afternoon of July 4th, was excellent entertainment for the large throngs of people who lined up along the wharf. The shooting of the line across the river, pulling the man across afterward, and the box drill were all highly entertaining, and showed that the Bandon Life Saving crew were exceptionally well trained, and could, no doubt, render efficient work in case of emergency.

J. C. Russell and wife, and Henry Russell of Beaver Hill, visited over the Fourth with J. T. Sullivan and wife of this city. J. C. Russell is superintendent of the Beaver Hill mines.

F. M. Smith, editor of the Lakeport Banner, and Barry Strong, manager of the Lakeport Improvement Co., were in Bandon, Wednesday, and made the Recorder office a pleasant call.

little house-maid says a pretty baby should have a pretty carriage.

mrs. new mother:

really you have the prettiest baby in the world. the fresh air will be a good thing for baby. the air baby will breathe will be much better for it if he kicks up his little feet in a brand new carriage. the old carriage is not good enough for new baby
