Fine lot of hunting knives, camp stoves and sporting goods at Bandon Hardware Co. it

Wm. Candler, the Coquille traveling man, was a Bandon business visitor Wednesday.

Thos. Anderson returned Monday from Portland and the Willamette Valley where he has been with his family for some time. Mr. Anderson will remain here about a month and will then go back to the valley again for a time. Mrs. Anderson and children are at Newburg where they will remain until Mr. Anderson returns.

The Bandon Hardware Co. is selling a lot of these Blue Flame Oil Stoves. The only real comfort, perfect working warm weather stove made. Safe, cheap, quick. No smoke, no smell, no ashes, no dirt. it

A number of the Bandon teachers will go to North Bend next week to attend the Coos County Institute which will be held in that city from August 1st to the 12th. it

McCormick mowers and rakes at Bandon Hardware Co.

The new tank to replace the one which recently collapsed at the Geo. W. Moore Lumber Co.'s Mill, is beginning to loom up again and will be ready for use in a short time.

C. A. Smith, the lumber king, after a brief visit on the bay left last week for Portland, where he was to be present at the civil case brought by the Government to cancel his title to a large acreage of timber land. The case was to come up in the United States court on Monday, but owing to deaths in the family of District Attorney John McCourt, who was to represent the Government, Mr. Smith's attorney consented to a postponement and to await Mr. McCourt's pleasure in setting the case for trial.—Coos Bay Sun.

Mrs. Clarence Boice and little daughter came over from the bay side last week and are visiting relatives in this city.

Big game in the mountains. Big lot of guns and ammunition at Bandon Hardware Co. it Receipts at the Portland Union Stock Yards for the week ending July 23rd, were: cattle 1692, sheep 3426, hogs 1437, and horses and mules 19. The cattle market was strong, while the sheep market was not so strong. Hogs advanced a nickel, and the tops sold as high as $10.50 which is about the highest price paid since the early days in May.

Because he refused to leave a $3.50 a day job for a day to fight forest fires when called upon by a deputy state fire warden, Charles Simon of North Bend, Wash., is serving ten days in the county jail at Seattle, being the first man ever imprisoned for that offense in the country.

The work of driving piling for the water front roadway connecting North Bend with Marshfield has been commenced and will be rushed to completion. The Simpson Lumber Co. and the Gas and Electric Co. will build a major portion of the road, and the expense of same is an enormous amount. The road on Tremont street through plat B. is paid for by abutting property owners, who will do so under the provisions of the Eddy-bonding act. It is probable that the road will be completed within three months.—Coos Bay Harbor.

Despite all efforts the state authorities have been able to put forth with the limited means at their command, the worst forest fires since 1902 have been raging in various parts of the Northwest during the past two weeks. Twelve lives were lost in two days during the worst of the fires according to newspaper dispatches from various points in the state, and the property loss will mount into the hundreds of thousands, and possibly millions. So far Coos county has escaped any serious forest fire, but during this extremely dry weather every precaution should be taken about fire so as not to allow it to spread. Campers and others who kindle out of door fires should see that the fire is all extinguished before leaving it.

Mrs. Will Marshall and children went to Myrtle Point last Friday to visit friends for a short time.

The Bandon Manufacturing Company have sold the machinery of the old shingle mill to parties in Curry county who will move the machinery down there and commence operations at sawing shingles.

John Shields, C. Y. Love, Fred Asburn and Cyrus Hubbard started Wednesday for a hunting trip on Rogue river. They will arrive in time to shoot the first deer that puts in an appearance Monday morning.

Captain Butler and wife, formerly of Bandon, but now of Coquille, were guests of Mrs. Timmons and daughter the latter part of last week, leaving on Friday for an extended trip down the coast, where they go to visit a daughter. They went by private conveyance and intended to make the trip down in a week.

C. L. Bender has sold his jewelry business to Gustave Schroeder, the latter taking possession last Saturday. During the time he has been in business here Mr. Bender has succeeded in working up and carrying on a profitable trade and has constantly improved his stock and service until he turned over to his successor one of the best jewelry businesses in the county. He will leave soon for Portland to take treatment for ear trouble and will then open up an optical parlor here so that he will still be identified with Myrtle Point's business circles. Mr. Schroeder comes well recommended to carry on the business and will undoubtedly continue to receive his share of the trade in his line.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Obituary

Ralph Hunt, eldest child and only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hunt of Four Mile, was born April 27, 1899, and died July 27, 1910, after an illness of only a few days. His death was caused by the form of paralysis which is at present so prevalent among the children of this vicinity.

He was born near Prosper and his short life has been spent near this city. His parents are well known and beloved by all, and their friends all feel the deepest sympathy for them in their sad bereavement.

A FRIEND

Van Marter Meetings

The big union meetings at the old shingle mill, under the direction of Evangelist Van Marter are still growing in interest, and Van continues to pour volleys of hot shots at sin in all its forms, every evening. Many are confessing Christ as their personal Savior as a result of these meetings, and the good work is still going on.

If you have not attended the meetings, you had better go, at least a few times, and you will, perhaps, want to go more.

Van is plain and shoots out straight from the shoulder, but perhaps this is what the people need.

Report from Portland says: That Hill is now planning to extend the Oregon Electric from Eugene to Coos Bay is the belief of Eugene men who were in Portland last week to confer with President John F. Stevens regarding the franchise for the Hill line in Eugene.
