Rev. Mr. Oglesby will preach at the M. E. Church, to-morrow, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS.—Time, in its rapid flight, has brought another Christmas. Almost 1,870 years ago the birth of Christ gave origin to the great holiday, which has ever since been religiously observed by Christians throughout the world; and is looked forward to with more eager anticipations, by the young folks, than any day in the year. The lapse of a twelvemonth has brought many sad changes to our community. Fatal contagions have visited us; and many friends—in the bloom of youth, the strength of manhood and the decline of life—have passed from our midst; many children are even now stricken with disease; while there are some, who a year ago had all the luxuries of life, are now without the necessities. But grieve not, for such is life; yet while we enter into the festivities of the holidays, remember the departed, think of the sick, and forget not the poor. Now upon the life-boat—Hope—let us all embark; and, under full sail, skim away, and leave the sinking craft—Dispair—far behind. A MERRY CHRISTMAS to all.

WONDERFUL FEAT.—This afternoon, at 3 o'clock, near the Court House, a man will attempt the feat of picking up 100 potatoes, placed one yard apart in straight line, and carrying them one at a time, and putting them in a basket, placed at one end of the line. The distance run will be about five miles and a half, and the time allowed, 40 minutes. Go!

A CANINE MONSTER.—We saw, at the Bella Union Saloon, yesterday, a remarkable dog. It is several months old, weighs a pound, and can be put into a pint cup. It is of the poodle species, with downy hair and mild blue eyes, and is a mute. The most singular thing connected with this dog is that it has no wag to its tail. Ask Breitbarth.

THE INFECTION.—The scarlet fever has spread rapidly since our last, and seems determined to invade every abode in town, where there are children. Thus far it has not been fatal—but two or three deaths having occurred.

HUMOROUS.—On Thursday night Prof. Clarkson delivered a humorous lecture at the Court House. His audience was large and his effort quite a success. The Prof. started yesterday for San Francisco. A host of friends wish him godspeed!

NEW STATE.—This morning, oceans of egg-nogg will be found at Pape & Savage's—free for all. To-night, in keeping with their old custom, they will prepare a splendid lunch for their friends and patrons.

APOLOGETIC.—We are compelled to issue the News on brown paper hereafter for the reason that we have been disappointed in getting our newspaper up—which we hope will be a satisfactory excuse.

A GRAND LUNCH.—A grand lunch will be spread at the Railroad Saloon, on Christmas, at 8 o'clock, P. M.; also, a lunch will be given at the same place, at 8 o'clock, P. M., on New Year's Day.

CALL IN.—Warm drinks for the boys this morning at the El Dorado—Proprietor's treat. Lunch to-night.

APPLAGATE.—The dance at Benedict's, on Applegate, last night, was a pleasant affair, and well attended.

TABLE ROCK.—Wintjen & Helms expect their friends this morning. A "warm" reception has been proposed.

BELLA UNION.—The Proprietor will pledge his numerous friends with a glass of "steaming hot" this morning. Call around.

BRICK POMEROY,

HORACE GREELEY,

TOM THUMB,

AND

HARRY JACKSON,

All completely played out in Jacksonville, being overslaughed by

MORRIS BAUM,

Who can, and will sell goods cheaper than any of them.

WOMEN STARE,

and think he stole them when he offers his best prints at twelve and a half cents a yard.

MEN WILL

scarcely believe it when they hear that BAUM sells BEAVER SUITS for $26, and really laugh at the idea of getting a CASSEMERE SUIT out and out for $18, and CASSEMERE PANTS from $5 to $7.

AN OLD LADY

walked into his store the other day to see some alpaca; on asking the price, she was informed that it was 30 cents a yard. Throwing back her head and elevating her specs, she exclaimed: "Why, bless my soul, this must be a pawnbroker's, where they aller's sell for half price!"

FOULARD DELAINES, - - 50 cts.,

COMMON DELAINES, - - 20 cts.,

MUSLINS, - 12 1-2 to 18 cts.

They have an endless variety of goods, which they sell in proportion. SILKS and SOAP, LACES and TOBACCO, HATS and CANDLES, COAL OIL and SUGAR, NAILS and COFFE, BOOTS and SWISS MULL; and everything else in the Dry Goods, Grocery and Crockery line.

If any man, woman, or child don't believe the above, just call around and see for yourself; nothing but amusement to
