SUCH DISEASES are caused by VITIATED BLOOD, which is generally produced by derangement of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood healthy, and all will be well.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

Let every one who wants a watch, read this carefully.

Especially if in some remote out-of-the-way place.

Now that the railroad is open, we propose to give the residents of Oregon the opportunity of getting single genuine Waltham Watches at the Lowest New York Wholesale Prices.

We sell more Waltham Watches than any other establishment in the country; either wholesale or retail; we send great numbers to every section of the country by Mail and Express, carefully packed, and in perfect running order. Our plan is this: You want a Watch, and see our advertisement; now, we want you first to write to us for our Descriptive and Illustrated Price List; we will send it, post-paid, by return mail. It explains all the different kinds, tells the weight and quality of the cases, with prices of each; you then make a selection of the kind you prefer, and send us your order. We will then send you the Watch by Express, with the bill to collect on delivery. We give instructions to the Express Company to allow you to open the package and examine the Watch; if it suits, you can pay, and take it; if not, you are under no obligation to receive it; and if it is taken, and afterward does not prove satisfactory, we will exchange it, or REFUND THE MONEY.

As an indication of the Prices, we will quote one Watch from our list. The P. S. Bartlett, Lever Movement, with Extra Jewels, Chromometer Balance, Patent Pinion, Patent Dust Cap, and all the other late improvements, in a Solid Coin Silver Case, $28 in Greenbacks or about $20 in Coin.

All the other kinds, both gold and silver, in the same proportion. Do not order a Watch till you have sent for a Price List, as it contains a great deal of information regarding these Watches that will enable you to make an intelligent selection. Don't forget, when you write, to state that you saw this advertisement in the Democratic News, and you need not put in stamps for return postage. Address in full,

Medicinal Properties of HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS

LET IT BE DISTINCTLY BORNE IN MIND that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is a MEDICINAL PREPARATION, not a BEVERAGE, and that it is entirely free from the attributes which create and foster a passion for stimulants, and which belongs to all the distilled liquors of of commerce. Its alcoholic element is derived from sound rye, a grain which, according to the testimony of the most distinguished analytical chemists, yields a more wholesome spirit than any other known substance. But the quintessence of rye employed in the manufacture of the Bitters, must not be confounded with the rye spirit sold in the market as Bourbon and Monongahela whisky. The best brands of those liquors procured for hospital use, and preferred by the medical staff of the army and navy to any other liquor, are not to be compared in excellence with the article used in the connection of the great stomachic. It is subjected in the first instance to a process which deprives it of the pungent and acrid elements proved by chemical test to exist in even what are deemed the finest imported and domestic spirits, and after being thus purified, is kept on hand long enough to give it mellowness before being medicated. The chief virtue of the preparations is not, however, in its spirituous basis, but in juices of the tonic, aperient, corrective, and antibilious vegetable products so largely intermixed with it.

Perhaps it may be argued that if they impart to the alcoholic fluid its preventive and remedial qualities, water impregnated with the same ingredients would answer the purpose as well. Nothing but profound ignorance of the laws of physiology can excuse such an error. Only by a diffusible stimulant can the medicinal constituents that are to fortify the system against disease, or counteract disease, be conveyed directly to their destination. The stimulant rapidly pervades the animal structure; carrying with it to the points where it is needed, the required antidote. Water will not do this. It has, comparatively speaking, no propelling or diffusive power. Nor is this all. Nothing but alcohol will preserve the medicinal property of vegetable extracts in a fluid state. Mix them with water and the compound will ferment, turn sour, and become worse than valueless.

It is claimed that Hostetter's Bitters commend themselves to the special favor of the Temperance physician as the only diffusible stimulant which he can prescribe without danger of unduly exciting the brain of his patient and of creating that morbid thirst for alcohol which doses of unmedicated spirits are so apt to engender.

To argue with the dogmatists who assert that stimulants are always unnecessary and pernicious would be a waste of time. The most eminent lights of Medical Science have settled that question, and it is not worth while to have a controversy with the rushlight. The leading champions of temperance in the United States, Horace Greeley among the number, have announced that they are not in favor of prohibiting the employment of spirituous liquors as medicines.

So much for the moral claims of the article under the temperance code. The ground being thus cleared, and it is hoped, to the satisfaction of every rational champion of sobriety, the specific application of the Bitters to the prevention and cure of the "ills that flesh is heir to," comes next in order.

Persons, whose lives are peculiarly sensitive are said to be of a "bilious habit." The morbid influence which affects others in a general way, seem in their cases to operate and mainly upon the bilious organ. Many who thus predisposed to an overflow of bile are subject to periodical attacks of biliousness, accompanied by pain in the right side, languor, pain between the shoulders, gloomy feelings, and that peculiar tinge of the complexion which indicates that a portion of the bile which should have passed off through the bowels has been misdirected to the venous system, and is present in the superficial bloodvessels. To avert these symptoms, and the general disorder of the internal organs which they involve, it is advisable for individuals of a bilious habit to take at least two doses of Hostetter's Bitters daily at such times as they have reasons to apprehend an attack. Indeed, who have a constitutional and temperamental tendency to liver complaints would do well to take a dose of this admirable anti-bilious stomachic every day. When the great secretory gland is seriously disordered, the medicine usually resorted to is mercury, which unless administered with very great caution is infinitely more dangerous than the disease it is intended to subdue. In a large majority of the cases treated with calomel or blue pill, the anti-bilious and alterative properties of the Bitters would produce the desired effect. And let it be borne in mind that whereas mercury in every shape is an insidious poison, the medicinal ingredients in this preparation consists exclusively of wholesome vegetable extract, which are diffused through the system by means of the purest and mildest of all known stimulants.

A Warning to Counterfeiters and a Caution to Purchasers.

No expense will be spared, no legal means punishing fraud will be neglected, in the effect to prevent the counterfeiting of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

CAUTION

Not to purchase any article purporting to be Hostetter's Stomach Bitters which is not authenticated by the handsome Government stamp specially engraved for the proprietors, and also by their superb new label with a beautiful vignette representing the conflict between Saint George and the Dragon, at the top, and a miniature note of hand signed Hostetter & Smith, at the foot.

N. B.—The genuine Bitters are sold in Bottles only. All persons who pretend to sell the article by the gallon or barrel are impostors, and the stuff they offer is a worthless and probably poisonous counterfeit.
