SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 13, 1870.

Attention, Democrats!

To-day we publish a condensed account of the proceedings of the Democratic State Central Committee. The Committee has appointed Wednesday, the 23d day of March, for the meeting of the Democratic State Convention at Albany. But a little over two months will intervene between this date and the meeting of the Convention, when the political campaign of 1870, in Oregon, will be fully opened. Indeed, the campaign may be said to be opened with the meeting of the Committee; for the aspirants for the several nominations will be actively engaged from this time forth, in marshalling their forces, and effecting the necessary combinations which they hope will secure them the respective objects of their wishes. To the Democracy of Southern Oregon, we need scarcely say that the next election will be one of vital importance to the State and our party. A triumph will secure to us the administration of the State for the next four years, and a U. S. Senator. It will enable us to redeem Oregon from the ruinous policy, which has padlocked the doors of the State Treasury, in the interests of a ring of Treasury thieves and public plunderers, like Cooke, Woods and Patton. It will enable us to undo much of the pernicious legislation forced upon the State by the Radical party during its long tenure of office, and allow the Democratic party to redeem the pledges it has so often made that, once in power, its administration of the State government will be economical, honest and constitutional.

To our opponents, the next campaign is no less important; a defeat is to them utter and irredeemable ruin. A desperate effort will be made both to carry the State ticket and the Legislature, and thus by gaining control of the State government and a Senator, secure a further lease of the power they have so long enjoyed and so much abused.

In view of the important interests involved in the ensuing election, it behooves Democrats to be up and doing. Their duty under the circumstances is plain and simple; past personal differences should be rigidly ignored and forgotten. The stirrers up of strife in the ranks; the slanderers of brother democrats—those itinerant peddlers of lies and calumny—who deem the ruin of a rival candidate's fame the best and surest mode of building up their own rickety reputations, should be unhesitatingly put aside; and the standard by which candidates for all offices should be judged, should simply be, the canons of honesty, capability and adherence to Democratic principle.

To the Democracy of this county, these suggestions are peculiarly applicable. The disgraceful discord which nearly rent the party in twain, during the last campaign, was mainly due to the machinations of evil-minded men—then prospective candidates for the succession to the most lucrative offices, at this election—who privately peddled from precinct to precinct, the most odious calumnies and falsehoods, in regard to Democrats whom they supposed would oppose their aspirations at this time. The discord thus engendered, weakened our party; and if it is not healed will ultimately destroy the ascendancy we have maintained in this county for six years. Another cause of dissension, and source of weakness, is, the system of pledging support to county candidates in advance. If the claims of the candidate are to be measured by his honesty, his capacity, and his Democratic record, there is no necessity for a pledge. Every candidate will then stand on his own merits. The candidate who asks a pledge of support, thereby discloses his own sense of a want of one, or the other, or all of these important elements of a proper candidature. This pernicious practice breeds factions in the party, and factions and cliques are the sure forerunners of discord, disruption and disaster.

We heard some weeks ago, that candidates were running about the County, soliciting pledges of support for the offices of County Judge, Clerk, Sheriff, Assessor, and other paying offices. This should not be. And we hope, that every Democrat who has the good of his party, both in the County and State, at heart, will emphatically refuse to become the slave of any petty candidate, by pledging his support to him, months in advance.

Geo. D. PRENTICE died on Sunday, the 9th inst., of rheumatism of the heart. As a poet, a wit, and a journalist, no man in the Union held so high a place in the affections and the respects of the people than did Prentice. For nearly half a century the wit and pathos of the Louisville Journal alternately convulsed his countrymen with laughter, or melted them into tears. His place in American literature as a poet, is second to no Son of the Muses among his countrymen. Peace to his ashes.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan'y 10th, 1870.

EDITOR NEWS:—Dull times and no water—that's a regular cry from one end of the County to the other; but in Jacksonville, we find our Merchants, Butchers, Bakers, Saloon keepers, Hotels, Shoemakers, Breweries, Blacksmiths, Saddlers, Barbers, and, in fact, all ready to serve you with the best they have on hand. Messrs. Sachs Bros. are always ready to give you a cheap article for cash; Mr. Jas. T. Glenn and Clerk, will produce the best article that can be found in the market; Mr. M. Mensor—always on hand for a new article; Mr. Baum will produce a good article of drygoods and groceries; Mr. Karewski will sell lard, butter, cheese, tea, coal oil, etc., to suit the public. Mr. Joe Wetterer,—Eagle Brewery,—has a good glass of refreshments, such a glass of lager; also the City Brewery.—Mr. Viet Schutz,—will probably excel the other; Messrs. Pape & Savage cannot be excelled on a good c—k—t—l, except one, Mr. Brentano, at the Railroad Saloon; at the two bits saloons we cannot touch for the same, for we never tasted of the liquid; our tin rattle stores are doing well; our hotels—Mr. L. Horne keeps a good house, and good spring beds; the Franco-American Restaurant can not be excelled for a good cup of coffee; our blacksmiths are always busy, and sufficient to keep them busy; doctors and dentists are always on hand to check the Scarlet fever and tooth-ache, "but we can't see it." Our miners cry water, and if we could change the weather, we would most undoubtedly stop the cry of water, and give them gold! In fact, I will advise one and all to give a call to the above names and firms, and you will find that the writer gives you a true history of trade in Jacksonville. One word to our Democratic friends; give Mr. Hull a lift in the subscription list; bear a hand and pull on the same rope, and you are sure to win; our coming June election will decide our victory over the Fifteenth Amendment. Never flinch to an outside report, but stick to your colors. EDIT.

Proceedings of the Democratic State Central Committee.

The Committee was called to order by the Chairman, the Hon. L. F. Grover.

Victor Trevitt was appointed Secretary. Present—J. C. Hawthorne, Multnomah; A. S. Hedges, Clackamas; W. G. Seogins, Washington; W. T. Newby, Yamhill; George R. Helm, Linn; J. C. Avery, Benton; Ben. Hayden, Polk; John Whiteaker, Lane; Lafayette Lane, (proxy) Douglas; T. H. B. Shipley, (by E. Semple, proxy) Jackson; George Knox, (by C. G. Curl, proxy) Columbia; John Adair, (by ex-Gov. Whiteaker, proxy) Tillamook; J. H. Shinn, (by L. F. Grover, proxy) Baker; Victor Trevitt, Wasco; L. F. Grover, Marion.

Absent—David Kandall, Josephine; Samuel Johnson, Umatilla; E. S. McComas, Union; Isaac Hare, Grant; D. J. Lowe, Coos; —Jones, Carry.

Judge C. S. Miller, of Grant county, was allowed to act in place of Mr. Hare of said county, who is now absent from the State.

The Committee proceeded to apportion the representation for the next State Convention; Each county was allowed one Delegate in the Convention for every seventy-five Democratic votes cast at the last Congressional election, and one vote for every fraction of thirty-eight and over; provided, that each county be allowed at least one Delegate.

Wednesday, the 23d day of March, 1870, was fixed as the day for holding the Democratic State Convention at Albany.—Daily Oregon Herald.

"OFF WITH HIS HEAD—SO MUCH FOR BUCKENHAM."—Geo. Flanders, of W. T., has been decapitated, because he opposed Garfield's election last June. Chief Justice Dennison, it is said, will be the next victim, and a numerous company of Federal officers, guilty of the same grave offence, are shivering in anticipation of a like doom. Judge Jacobs, our late townsman, is spoken of as Dennison's successor. We hope he will be appointed. An honest man and a profound lawyer, he is well qualified to fill the position of Chief Justice.

The Sentinel insists that Stanton did not die of Dowell altogether, but says that the disease was engendered by Stanton's arduous duties during the war. It may be, that the late Secretary was much weakened by the labor of hanging women, and imprisoning innocent men during the war, and that accounts for the suddenness of his "taking off," when he heard of Dowell's coming. He was too weak to stand the infliction, and died of a combination of Dowell and debility.

State Items.

Portland.

The Commercial of the 29th Dec. goes after the East Side R. R., its aiders, abettors and defenders, viciously. From the same paper we take the following:

The Sadalia (Mo.) Democrat mentions a four year old horse in Pottis county known as Trouble, who trotted his mile at the Sturgeon fair in 2:26. The horse has been in training but six weeks. The owner has been offered $10,000 for Trouble but declined the offer. The horse was brought from Kentucky, and is without doubt, destined to become one of the fastest trotters in the world.

At the nice window of Stitzel & Upton can be seen quite a curiosity, which consists of a large sized muscle shell, firmly embedded in the heart of a pebble, about the size of a cobble stone. This is not of itself so curious, as the locality in which this stone was found; being back of the town of Astoria, at an altitude several hundred feet above the level of the sea.

The charge of threatening to do great bodily harm brought against Hugh McLaughlin by Jenny McCarthy, was this morning dismissed by the prosecution, for the reason that unpleasant developments would have been made.

Although the weather is, and promises to continue clear and frosty, the river is still rising and drift wood passing.

Wasco County.

[Mountaineer Jan. 4th.]

Theodore Barmester who killed R. B. Morford passed through Dalles City on the 1st inst., en route for Portland. The Mountaineer Complains of the lovely weather. There is too much of it.

Mr. Richard Griffin, Superintendent of John Haileys line of stages, arrived at the Dalles last week, and reports sleighing in the Blue Mountains and the roads in excellent condition. The stage line is now in good order, and will, leave the Dalles daily, connecting with the Pacific Railroad at Kelton.

The lecture delivered by Rev. Gustavus Hines on last Tuesday evening, was very interesting. A large audience was in attendance, and the subject was handled in a manner that gave perfect satisfaction to all. His dates regarding the discovery of the Columbia River, can not be doubted, as he gets them from the best authority extant.

The Helena Herald says a valuable coal mine has been discovered in that vicinity, with a width of five feet and of fine quality. The citizens feel pretty good over a Northern Pacific Railroad. It also publishes a long and interesting letter from George Paunefort, altogether too long for the Mountaineer in this issue.

DIED.

MYERS—Near Ashland, Wednesday, January 12th, 1870, Mr. Nathaniel Myers; aged 84 years.

Citation.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE of Oregon for Jackson county—January term. Sitting in Probate.

In the matter of the Estate of John Dickenson, Deceased.

Herman Helms, Administrator of the above Estate, having filed in said Court a petition praying for an order to sell the following described real property, belonging to such estate, to wit: The N. W. one-fourth (1/4) of the N. W. quarter of Section 21, Township 34, S. R. 2 West; also the West one-half (1/2) of S. W. quarter of Section 28, Township and Range aforesaid; also the S. E. one-fourth (1/4) of S. W. quarter of Section 28, in the same Township and Range, and all situated in Jackson county, Oregon; therefore, notice is hereby given to Lurane Dickenson, George Dickenson, L. Dickenson, N. Dickenson, Joseph Dickenson and Martin Dickenson, heirs-at-law of said Estate, that the prayer of said petition will be heard and determined at the Clerk's office of said county, on Thursday, February 10th, 1870, at one o'clock, p. m., at which time and place the said heirs-at-law above named, and all others unknown, if any there be, are hereby notified to appear and show cause, if any exist, why an order of sale should not be made, as in the aforesaid petition prayed for. By order of said Court.

HERMAN HELMS, Adm'r. January 15th, 1870. jan15-wt.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

EAKINS'

SUBSTITUTE,

This Powder is invaluable to the Housekeeper, Hotel and Restaurant Proprietors, Miners and owners of Steamships and sea going vessels, as it does away with the necessity of providing Eggs for Puddings, Cakes, Fancy Breads, etc., as the contents of each tin is equal in every respect (for the above purpose) to four dozen of Eggs. It dispenses ENTIRELY with the use of Soda, Saleratus and Cream of Tartar, (three ingredients that are very apt to disagree with delicate stomachs), and is a friend to the dyspeptic, as it makes the food into which it is introduced, light and wholesome. It is entirely free from all mineral ALKALIES, and is recommended by the Faculty to those suffering from sour stomachs and impaired digestion, or irregularity of the biliary secretions. The above article is put up in sealed cans, and warranted to keep in all climates. Directions on each box.

EAKINS'

Celebrated California

Buckeye Salve.

Patented March, 1868.

A certain cure for Rheumatism, Paralysis, Piles and Old Sores.

The therapeutic value of this salutary preparation is exhibited in its application as a medication in cases where, owing to disease, a partial suspension of the vital powers has taken place, as in

RHEUMATISM OR PARALYSIS, and where the animal functions have become inert or inoperative, as in PILES, FISTULA AND CHRONIC SORES.

It permeates the system, into which it becomes thoroughly absorbed, and thus it strikes at the root of evil in both Rheumatism and Paralysis. As a lenitive, it mitigates pain and soothes the irritation of the parts affected. It is both emollient and depuratory in its action on sores, which it mollifies and softens, and it effectually cleanses them from impurities and foreign matter, causing them to cicatrize rapidly.

DISCOVERY OF THE BUCKEYE.

The curative properties of the Buckeye, Nut, from which this ointment is principally expressed, were first brought to notice by Mr. Conroy, who, while residing in Anderson's Valley, suffered so severely from Rheumatism, that he could move neither hand nor foot. He had known the natives to use the nut as a specific, and tried it with great success on himself. The potency of its effects as a drug is exemplified in its singular operations on cattle, by which, when taken, it causes abortion in those animals that are with young when the nut is eaten. Squirrels, as if aware of its medicinal properties, eat but half of it, leaving the other half unaltered.

So wonderful is the efficacy of this preparation of nature, in cases of Rheumatism, that many of the old settlers and early Californians subject to the disease, carry the nut about their persons, not only as an antidote, but as a preventive.

In no cases where THIS PREPARATION has been applied to the human subject, has it failed in establishing a COMPLETE CURE in the diseases above mentioned.

Beware of Counterfeits.—Ask for Eakins' Buckeye Salve, and take no other. Sold by all Druggists throughout the country. HEATHFIELD, BOGEL & CO., Wholesale Agts., 206 and 208 Battery St., San Francisco; DR. GEO. B. TOLMAN, Agent for Southern Oregon. Jan15-ly.

CERTIFICATE.

MR. L. BAUGUESS—Dear Sir: This is to certify that on or about the 29th of Nov., I was taken sick with a very sore throat—said to be Diphtheria, in the very worst form. My throat was badly swollen; my jaws were set, almost equal to Lock-jaw. I thought several times I would smother to death. I was confined to my bed about fourteen days, and by the use of about five bottles of your Indian Vegetable Liniment, I was restored to health.

Signed, MARTHA W. ROWE. Witnesses, J. A. COOKSEY, ELIZABETH COOKSEY. Subscribed and sworn to before me this fifth day of January, A. D., 1870. C. C. GALL, J. P.
