The Mohammedan Speaks.

HORNTOWN, May 3d, 1870.

TO THE CITIZEN, DICK HULL—Most worthy PACHA:—Your humble servant, late of the Janissary service at Stamboul, having located himself at Horntown, (profanely called Ashland), is desirous of subscribing for the bulletin, of which you are the publisher. Since my leaving the ancient Byzantium, which was on account of a misunderstanding with the Sultan, Abdul Musjid, I have had varied fortunes for good and evil. I could not entertain as high an opinion of the Sultan as did most of my associates; hence, I could not conscientiously say "He is the boss for us" (Bosphorus) as they did, but left my imperial master in his magnificent misery, attended by his wretched (Redschid) Pacha, the Grand Vizier.

I visited my relatives at Dublin, the capital of Misasia, but could not admire their want of religious toleration; hence, I did not long tarry there. They had no water to wash with at meat, nor at any other time, as I could see, and their priests wore villainous black clothes. My cousin, James Oflan Agan, is intimate with one of these bonzes, who used to come to his house and drink a vile potion of lemons and sugar, dissolved in a liquid called poten, which I believe is interdicted by the Koran. Hence, I came still further west, to America.

I was somewhat disappointed, O Pacha, in your great city of New York. I was prepared to see it greater than London or Paris, but it did not come up to my expectation. I then started for San Francisco, by the sedans of steam. I got a great deal of sleep on the road, nearly an hour, but if I could only get the exclusive privilege of selling opium on those cars I could make a fortune. I told an old gentleman of our hashish eaters in dear Stamboul, and he said there were hash eaters from Omaha to Sacramento. After a while we got to San Francisco, which had been pictured to me as a second Stamboul. They said the Golden Gate resembled the Golden Horn; I think it does—in a horn.

We had no important events from San Francisco hitherto, but this place is beautiful and I thought I would pitch my tent here. The fashions are essentially those of misbelievers in the Prophet, but I think them a generous and charitable people. One man got hostile a few evenings ago and attempted to "put a head," as he called it, on one of his brother Yiaours, in which he succeeded. He then came and sought to fraternize with me, on the ground that he was a Musclem man. He is now confined to his bed with indigestion, caused by his having swallowed his antagonist's ears. We don't do things that way in Stamboul.

There is a large building here devoted to the manufacture of textile fabrics from the wool of the sheep. It is unoccupied at present, save by a large lot of machinery which has no visible employment. If the light of the world, Abdul Musjid, were here, he would like to purchase it for a seraglio.

A troupe of singers and dancers performed here last night in the hall of the carvers kept by Ning, whose first name is Samdow. They were pretty girls and sweet singers, reminding me of the Normahals of Scutari and Beyront, and were under the management of a venerable misbeliever named Pick Stee. A man named Teanneighward accompanied them, and amused his auditors with an imitation of that patient animal to whom the mule traces his illustrious ancestry. All these things looked novel to a devout Mohammedan.

Adieu, most learned Sage (brush). In the name of the Prophet I salute thee.

OFLAN AGAN,
Late Enier of Beyront.

Do the Democrats of Oregon want an "influential" man of that kind for Governor?—Deady's Purp.

They don't want for Governor T. S. Palmer, who is owing the school children of Oregon seven or eight thousand dollars, and who, upon his own confession is a bankrupt. Who borrowed for friend in similar circumstances, to his knowledge, $700 of a poor girl who was working with her mother on the Reservation, and who was compelled to lose it. Who paid Sheridan a coin debt of $7,000 in greenbacks at par, as we will prove by and by, if any doubt it. Who will have to make more out of the State than the present incumbent, inasmuch as there is "dead horse" to pay for, besides the fine house to build, and the people's money must do the job.

What we do want is a Governor who has been consistent in his politics, who has paid his honest debts in coin, whose private life is above reproach, who is not in favor of Chinese, Indians, or niggers voting the same as white men. All these we have, besides a clean pair of heels, which he will show you in June, in our candidate, Mr. L. F. Grover.

Finally, Mr. Oregonian, the people of Oregon do not want a man for Governor who, so make up his deficiency in the Indian Department, had to turn in 500 meals at one dollar per meal.

Not a man who called the Oregon war debt a swindle and advised its repudiation, and wrote secret letters to General Wool abusing the people of his State as being swindlers, &c.

If you dare to deny these statements, we will furnish the proof and add more that has not been told, both of this man and the other kinky repudiators that head your ticket.—Press.

THE CROPS.—The crops throughout the valley have never looked better than at present. Fruit, grain and grass promises a full harvest. The late rains have given everything a start that will not be checked by any amount of drouth.

LEG BROKEN.—Mr. Colwell informs us that a miner, by the name of Peter Cline, of Josephine, had his leg badly broken last week, by a large rock. Dr. Foley set the leg.

Letter From Willow Springs.

EDITOR NEWS:—It is imperative on the Democracy of this State to raise the banner and march bravely on, fighting for right and equal taxation. Voters of Oregon, do you not feel the heavy weight of taxation that is bearing you down? Do you not wish for relief? If you do, then vote for the Democracy. Do you not feel the incongenial and sordid sophistry imminent over you? Then raise your voice in defence of the good old Democratic party, that alone can save you. Can you endorse the facinorous and poltroon 15th Amendment? Do you not appreciate the implacable and imperious anarchy to which we are subjected; and do you think you are doing justice to your offspring in supporting the bloated, bonded and avaricious oligarchy, that infest the house where once sat the great and good Washington. Can you, with your vote, help to rivet yourselves to the cross by supporting the negro, and China schemers the last and only resort of the Radicals; if not, raise your voices in defence of right, and vote for the Democratic party. The United States, to-day, has a debt hanging over her that will never be eradicated, notwithstanding the exuberant and unparalleled taxation and tyranny to which we are bound to acquiesce, so long as the present corrupt and delusive dominant party hold the reins of Government. They usurp from us our rights; they heed not the wishes of the people—penance is obsolete with them. They have deluged our once prosperous land with prodigious quantities of bonds, the interest from which they put in their own pockets, and tell the working man to help himself if he can. Never has a State put in the field a more propitious, amicable and choice ticket than we now have. Mr. Slater is not surpassed as a man of veracity on this coast. He is a faound and shrewd speaker, has the interests of the people at heart and works for them. Messrs. Grover, Chadwick, Fleischner and Patterson are a fac-simile; they are gentlemen, against whom there cannot be brought a single accusation. The "blacks" are trying all kinds of infamous schemes to defeat them but all is in vain. They will be elected by a large majority. There is not a Democrat in the State but will go to the polls and vote the straight State ticket.

An anecdote and we are through. Two years ago a good Republican was speaking in Jacksonville upon the political issues of the day. Finally he began to say some very good things for the Democrats—too good, in fact, to suit the "blacks," so some of them got around behind him and began to give a few punches in his ribs Mr. ——— understood the memento and thought they intended for him to go in D——, and then he went after it in good earnest and said the Republicans had kept the issues in the dark, and that was what beat us two years ago; the "blacks" denied that the issue was Negro suffrage. Now, this same man will be here ere the June election, and will tell his party that China suffrage is not the issue; if he does, do not believe him, for you know it is, and if they deny it they are sure to be beaten. Democracy forever is the motto of

I. COPE.

Proceedings of the Democratic Meeting of Table Rock Precinct.

Pursuant to a call of the Democratic County Committee, the voters of Table Rock precinct met at Antioch School House April 30th, 1870, at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the County Convention called to meet in Jacksonville, May 7th, 1870.

W. A. Childers was elected Chairman, and J. A. Burns Secretary.

On motion, the Chair appointed L. Gall and M. A. Houston tellers.

The following named gentlemen were put in nomination for delegates, and were elected as follows: J. H. Bledsoe, O. W. Akers, J. Hannah, J. Louisnot.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

W. A. CHILDERS, Chairman,
J. A. BURNS, Sec'y.

With proper management the ratification of this amendment will give us in Oregon 200 colored votes, and elect the entire Republican ticket at the June election. At the Presidential election Grant only lacked 164 votes of getting the electoral vote of Oregon. There are upward of two hundred colored voters in Oregon. Nine-tenths of this class vote the Republican ticket throughout the United States.

This is the reason why Democrats howl for a "white man's government;" and this is one reason why we favor the Fifteenth Amendment. Our colored population show they deserve to be enfranchised by voting against rebels and democrats.—Donell's Washington Letter to the Sentinel, January 17th.

The Commercial Advertiser has been interviewing Frank Blair, whose deliberate opinion is that the next Presidential contest will result in revolution. "Yes, a bloody revolution. I know Grant better than any man in this country, and I believe that he is going to hold on to power by all and every means. He has some good points. He is a splendid military capacity. He is the superior of Lee, and all his acts demonstrated that he was no ordinary commander but he is awfully ambitious. The man will not be content to retire to private life after his Presidential term expires. He will make himself dictator of the nation, and bayonets enough will be found to support him in the attempt. Wait and see."—Capital Chronicle.

Geo. H. Williams, the would-be re-elected U. S. Senator, voted on the adoption of the State Constitution for slavery in Oregon and excluding free negroes from her boundaries. Now he is in favor of them voting and enjoying all the rights of white men. Old Flax Brake is very consistent.—Enterprise.
