The Albany Democrat appears to be wonderfully exercised over Mr. Fay's letter to the Portland ratification meeting; and is quite severe in its denunciations of the author. The secret of Mr. Bellinger's patriotic indignation lies in the fact that Mr. Fay cast the ten votes he held in the Albany Convention against Mr. Bellinger's partner, Mr. M. V. Brown, thereby defeating him for the nomination for State Printer, and nominating Mr. T. S. Patterson. The 'head and front" of Mr. Fay's "offending hath this extent—no more." So far as the sentiments of the Convention which adopted the "eight resolution" are concerned, the editor of the Democrat who was present during the whole proceedings, knows that the construction placed on the resolution by Mr. Fay was the sentiment held and expressed by the majority in the various test votes had before the final passage of the resolution. As to the "coalition between Fay and O'Meara, to break up the Democratic party," Mr. Bellinger knows that he is simply stating a falsehood when he asserts this to be the fact.

☞ With proper management the ratification of this amendment will give us in Oregon 200 colored votes, and elect the entire Republican ticket at the June election. At the Presidential election Grant only lacked 164 votes of getting the electoral vote of Oregon. There are upwards of two hundred colored voters in Oregon. Nine-tenths of this class vote the Republican ticket throughout the United States.

This is the reason why Democrats howl for a "white man's government;" and this is one reason why we favor the Fifteenth Amendment. Our colored population show they deserve to be enfranchised by voting against rebels and democrats.—Dowell's Washington Letter to the Sentinel, January 17th.

The Democratic Central Committee met yesterday, to take into consideration the appointment of a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Col. Ross. W. J. Plymale, Dan'l Fisher and James D. Fay, present. On motion, adjourned to meet at the office of James D. Fay, on Thursday next, at 1 o'clock p. m.

The Democratic County Committee for Jackson county will hold an adjourned meeting at the office of James D. Fay, on Tuesday, May 17th, at 1 o'clock p. m., to appoint a nominee for the Legislative Assembly. A full attendance requested.

JAMES D. FAY, Ch'm'n.

Col. John E. Ross has resigned his position in the Democratic Legislative ticket for this county, hence the omission of his name at the head of our columns.

The Republican Convention.

The meeting of the Republican County Convention on Monday last was the signal for the assembling of all the sore-heads of both parties, who hoped by concentrated pressure to break up the Convention and nominate a fusion ticket, upon which the mercenary Democrats should have all the lucrative places and the Republican sore heads all the honorable ones. The Convention, however, with a manifestation of principle not often seen in that party, refused to accept the overtures of the mercenaries of both parties, who advised the Convention to meet, elect a Central Committee and go home. After a stormy debate in caucus, it was decided to nominate a full ticket; and so far as that ticket is concerned, we have this to say, that no matter how much we detest and execrate the principles which it represents, it is composed of the very best material in the Republican ranks. It will assuredly be defeated, but the Republicans (unfortunately for the Democratic party of this County), will have the consolation of knowing that it is not saddled with that accursed band of political mercenaries and traitors, whose lust for the ease and emoluments of office is only equaled by its utter want of principle, political or otherwise, and whose presence in any party is a constant source of discord and dissension. As a Democratic journal we regret that the Republicans did not purchase this white elephant, which they could not have sold, or given away afterwards, and which would have bankrupted them to have kept.

The Sore-head Conclave.

"What is the matter ye dissentious rogues, that by rubbing your itch ye make yourselves scabs?"

To day, it is understood, a congregation of sore-heads will meet at Magruder's store to nominate a ticket to be called the People's Ticket. It is a noticeable fact that those principally engaged in getting up this movement, are men whose aspirations for office were unceremoniously nipped in the bud by one or the other of the conventions held recently. Their eminent talents were not appreciated, and hence they are going to pick their flints and try it again. Like the vagabond who, having no breakfast, told his wife to bring him a plate, knife and fork, he would go through the motions anyhow, these sore-heads of all colors, having no chance to run for office respectably and honorably, are going to have a People's Ticket, and go through the motions. We doubt much if Ben. Holladay's corruption fund (so liberally dispensed by Geo. E. Cole when in this county), will be able to sufficiently galvanize the bodies of those who gave up the Ghost on Saturday and Monday last, to make even a respectable show of life for a Geo. H. Williams ticket for Jackson county. Dowell has promised Williams two Legislative votes from this county. Ben. Holladay is moving Heaven and earth to elect Williams' men in the northern end of the State. Ben. Holladay's man Friday, Cole, was in this county not long since; and Ben. Holladay's men are at the head of this movement. Let Democrats pause and ponder before they allow any man to hoodwink them into a support of this meeting.

The Bright Side for April, just received, is a rare specimen of beauty in both its typography and illustrations. Its contents, too, have a peculiar spice, cheerfulness and pith about them, which is decidedly relishing to grown people as well as children. With such an attractive title and pleasing appearance, and such characteristic merit as is evident upon perusal, it is no wonder that though only ten months old it already takes rank as one of the best children's papers. The numbers from March to July are offered free to new subscribers. 50 cents a year. Alden & Co., Publishers, Chicago, Ill.

One of Holladay's agents said the other day that Ben. treated men well only so long as he could use them. Mitchell & Williams understand this, but nevertheless do not fear that Ben. will ever cease to treat them well. The Radical candidates on the Multnomah county ticket also understand, but do not fear. They know that Ben. will have ample use for them and that consequently he will treat them well. What a good man Ben. is, to be sure! He will freely give any man a chance who will promise to become his slave.—Herald.

Change.—As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, the City Drug Store, G. W. Graves, Ag't, has again changed hands. Mr. W. B. Douglass having purchased the stock of the above firm, advertises, to-day, that he will constantly keep on hand a full assortment of chemicals, popular patent medicines, toilet articles, &c., &c. See advertisement.

An exchange says: "The surprising curative efficacy of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, in a great variety of chronic diseases, especially those which prove obstinate, and even incurable by the ordinary treatment, cannot be explained. Nature, aided by art, has here provided a rare combination of medicinal properties, wisely adapted to the cure of diseases common to all mankind."

The effect of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, even when taken for its cathartic properties, are very different from those of any other medicine prepared specifically for that purpose.

There is no nausea or disturbance of the stomach, and instead of causing any sense of languor, or debility, it seems rather to invigorate the whole system, and excite the keenest appetite.

Picnic.—A Teachers and Scholars' picnic will be held at Ashland, May 21st, where nearly or all the schools in the valley are expected to be represented. The public generally are invited to attend.

JAMES D. FAY, President.

W. W. Fidler and T. B. Merry, Sec'ys.

It seems to us that in the years gone by the Republican party was accustomed to denounce slavery and polygamy as "twin sisters of barbarism." It has for some time been engaged in the killing and burial of slavery, stopping at no Constitutional barrier, hesitating at no cost of blood, treasure or popular liberty, but treading steadily on to the attainment of its purpose. In view of this we have often wondered since that party came into power, why it has not gone after that other "twin" in the same merciless murderous fashion. It is possible that it has acquired a kind of "sneaking" affection for it. At any rate it handles it with remarkable tenderness. It exhibits here a caution and hesitancy that are utterly at variance with its accustomed headlong precepitancy. To root out slavery it crushed half the nation, and now it allows the people of one petty Territory to stand up and defy it to molest polygamy. We rather fear that the loose teachings of some of the leading Radicals as to the relation of the sexes, are demoralizing the "descendants of the Puritans."—Herald.
