LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

SAD ACCIDENT, AND DEATH.—On Last Tuesday afternoon, at the Antelope School House on Antelope creek, a fatal and heart-rending accident occurred. There had been public speaking at the School House, and the teacher, Mr. Farley, had given holiday for the afternoon. After the speaking Ryland Bybee and some eight or ten of his classmates mounted their horses and started for the creek, in a lode, with the intention of taking a bathe; they had not gone over two hundred yards, horse young Ryland rode, causing it to stumble and fall upon its rider, crushing his chest and in when the horse of another rider ran against the flitting other injuries. He lived twenty-three hours after the occurrence of the accident, unconscious and without speaking. His remains were brought to Jacksonville on Thursday, for interment, and his funeral was attended by the students of the Jacksonville school, and a large concourse of citizens. He was a manly lad of fourteen summers, a bright scholar, a generous playmate and a dutiful son. His grief-stricken parents have the sympathy of the entire community in this great affliction. This heart-rending occurrence should prove a warning to boys against reckless riding.

FROM CRESCENT CITY.—Seven freight teams, loaded with goods for this place, arrived last Monday. We learn from Mr. Webb, who came in with the train, that it took sixteen days to make the trip: that the road over the mountains is in worse condition than it has been for years, but that a force of men is now repairing it; and that the caterpillars this side of the mountains, in Josephine—are stripping the trees of their foliage.

WALLA WALLA FARMER.—We have received the first number of the Walla Walla Farmer, published at Walla Walla W. T.—A. H. Simmons, editor and proprietor. It is an eight-page sheet, elegantly printed, and if it continues to furnish so considerable an amount of valuable information as is contained in the choice selections and well written articles of the first number, will prove an honor and a benefit to Washington Territory.

REMOVAL.—Mr. F. Luy has removed his boot and shoe shop to Oregon street—next door to the Table Rock Saloon. Some of Mr. Luy's friends say that the reason for his removal was the close proximity of the "Fifteenth Amendment" headquarters to his old stand; but the true reason is that his new stand is more commodious, and every-way better suited to his business.

WILL WE CELEBRATE.—We have heard some talk about celebrating the Fourth at this place; but as yet have heard of no direct movement being made. As but a month now intervenes between us and the Fourth of July, it is time we were having some understanding, and making some preparations if we intend to celebrate the day. What shall we do? Who speaks?

SODA WATER.—Mr. Sutton is now prepared to furnish this sparkling and delicious beverage to customers, either at the fountain or in bottles. He has a room adjoining the post office, tastily fitted up, where the thirsty can drink it cool and foaming from the fount, with syrup to suit. The dozen bottles sent us were disposed of with a relish.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Marshal Seaman arrested two men last Sunday, for disorderly conduct, giving their names as McGuire and Black. They were lodged in the town prison for the night; and appearing before the Recorder next morning were fined $5 each, and costs.

IN SPIRITS.—Mr. J. M. Sutton has the unfortunate four-legged chicken at the post office, carefully preserved in alcohol. But for that indigestible dose it took, it might still have been a living curiosity.

"SHOO FLY".—The curiosity of the people hereabouts, in regard to the, at present, popular song of "Shoo Fly," has been satisfied. The words are without point or sentiment; the air is not musical, and the performance accompanying the song, simply ridiculous.

ASHLAND.—The picnic at Ashland, last Saturday, participated in by several districts, proved a happy affair. The day was pleasant, the assembly large, the dinner magnificent, and nothing of an unpleasant nature occurred.

AT BILGERS.—Mr. Joseph Hyzer is now located at the tin and hardware store of Mr. John Bilger; and will serve customers wanting anything in their line. Patrons of the firm will find him accommodating and correct.

EARLY PLANTS.—Persons desiring Early York cabbage plants, or tomato plants—several choice varieties—can get them by calling at the residence of R. S. Dunlap. Sold in quantities to suit purchasers.

FOR ROSEBURG.—Dr. Jackson—who found other attractions here than extracting teeth—left for Roseburg, last Monday. He expects to return to Jacksonville in about two months.

MARRIED.

PARK R.—SHOOK.—At the residence of Judge O. Jacobs, in Seattle, W. T., on the 23d inst., Mr. George W. Parker, of Seattle, to Miss Hattie J. Shook, late of this place.

DIED.

BYBEE.—At the residence of Wm. Simpson's, on Antelope, Wednesday, May 25th, 1870, at 5 o'clock, p. m., Ryland T. Dillard, eldest son of William and Betsy Ann Bybee; aged 14 years, 8 months and 10 days.

One more flower, from the cluster is taken, But our faith in God, will not be shaken; God's will, be done—his decrees are all wise, He has called our darling, to dwell in the skies.
