The Fate of a Fighting Dog.

BY SIM PELTON.

A man he owned a terrier dog—
—bob-tailed, onery cuss,
And that there purp got that there man
In many an ugly muss;
For the man he was on his muscle,
And the dog was on his bite,
So to kick that dog-goned animal
Was sure to raise a fight.

A woman owned a Thomas cat,
That fit at fifteen pound;
And other cats got up and slid
When that there cat was round.
The man and his dog came along one day,
Where the woman she did dwell,
And the purp he growled so ferociously,
Then he went for the cat like hell.

He tried to chaw the neck of the cat,
But the cat, he wouldn't be chawed,
So he lit on the back of that there dog,
And bit! and clawed! and clawed!
Oh! the hair it flew! and the purp he yowled!
As the claws went into his hide;
And chunks of flesh were peeled from his back;
Then flummuxed, and kicked, and died.

The man he ripped, and cussed, and swore,
As he gathered a big brickbat,
That he would be durned essentially
If he didn't kill that cat!
But the woman allowed she'd be blessed if he did!
And snatched up the old shotgun,
Which she fired, and peppered his diaphragm
With bird-shot number one.

They toted him home on a window blind,
And the doctor cured him up;
But he never was known to fight again,
Or to own another purp.

Folks may turn up their snoots at this rhyme,
I don't care a cuss for that!
All I wanted to show is, that fighting dogs
May tackle the wrong Tom cat.

ONE OF NAPOLEON'S PROMISES.—When Louis Napoleon, in 1840, made his attempt at a revolution in France, he issued the following proclamation, which is now remembered against him:

I appear among you as a warm and true Democrat and Republican. I take the shadow of the man of the century as the symbol of the promises which I now solemnly make. I will be, as I always was, a child of France. In every Frenchman I will ever see a brother. The Democratic Republic is the object of my adoration, and I will be her Minister. Never will I try to clothe myself in Imperial robes. May my heart cease to beat on the day when I forget what I owe to you—what I owe to France. May my lips forever be closed if I say a word against the Republican sovereignty of the French people. May I be cursed if I suffer doctrines to be taught in my name, contrary to Democratic principles and the government of the Republic. May I be condemned if I lay a treasonable hand upon the rights of the people, either with their consent or against their will by force. And, now, trust me, as I trust you, and may this call from me be like a prayer to Heaven. Vive la Republique!

EAKINS'

SUBSTITUTE,

This Powder is invaluable to the Housekeeper, Hotel and Restaurant Proprietors, Miners and owners of Steamships and sea-going vessels, as it does away with the necessity of providing Eggs for Puddings, Cakes, Fancy Breads, etc., as the contents of each tin is equal in every respect (for the above purpose) to four dozen of Eggs. It dispenses ENTIRELY with the use of Soda, Saleratus and Cream of Tartar, (three ingredients that are very apt to disagree with delicate stomachs), and is a friend to the dyspeptic, as it makes the food into which it is introduced, light and wholesome. It is entirely free from all mineral ALKALIES, and is recommended by the Faculty to those suffering from sour Stomachs and impaired digestion, or irregularity of the biliary secretions. The above article is put up in sealed cans, and warranted to keep in all climates. Directions on each box.

EAKINS' Buckeye Salve.

Patented March, 1868.

A certain cure for Rheumatism, Paralysis, Piles and Old Sores.

The therapeutic value of this salutary preparation is exhibited in its application as a medication in cases where, owing to disease, a partial suspension of the vital powers has taken place, as in

RHEUMATISM OR PARALYSIS, and where the animal functions have become inert or inoperative, as in

PILES, FISTULA AND CHRONIC SORES.

It permeates the system, into which it becomes thoroughly absorbed, and thus it strikes at the root of evil in both Rheumatism and Paralysis. As a lenitive, it mitigates pain and soothes the irritation of the parts affected. It is both emollient and depuratory in its action on sores, which it mollifies and softens, and it effectually cleanses them from impurities and foreign matter, causing them to cicatrize rapidly.

DISCOVERY OF THE BUCKEYE.

The curative properties of the Buckeye, Nut, from which this ointment is principally expressed, were first brought to notice by Mr. Conroy, who, while residing in Anderson's Valley, suffered so severely from Rheumatism, that he could move neither hand nor foot. He had known the natives to use the nut as a specific, and tried it with great success on himself. The potency of its effects as a drug is exemplified in its singular operations on cattle, by which, when taken, it causes abortion in those animals that are with young when the nut is eaten. Squirrels, as if aware of its medicinal properties, eat but half of it, leaving the other half unaltered.

So wonderful is the efficacy of this production of nature, in cases of Rheumatism, that many of the old settlers and early Californians subject to the disease, carry the nut about their persons, not only as an antidote, but as a preventive.

In no cases where THIS PREPARATION has been applied to the human subject, has it failed in establishing a COMPLETE CURE in the diseases above mentioned.

Beware of Counterfeits.—Ask for Eakins' Buckeye Salve, and take no other.

ADDRESS

TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED

WHOSE SUFFERINGS

HAVE BEEN

PROTRACTED FROM HIDDEN CAUSES,

AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE

PROMPT TREATMENT,

To Render Existence Desirable.

If you are suffering or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or frothy or is it ropy on setting? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, mooping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia, or liver complaint?

NOW, READER,

self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health.

MAKE THE MAN.

DID YOU EVER THINK

that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering successful business men, are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, or palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only

RUIN THEIR CONSTITUTIONS,

but also those they do business with or for. How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease.

IDIOCY, LUNACY, PARALYSIS, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.
