

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 17, 1870.

"Going Alone."

With curls in the sunny air tossing,
With light in the merry blue eyes,
With laughter so clearly outstringing,
A laugh of delight and surprise;
All friendly assistance disdainful,
And trusting no strength but his own,
The past fears and trials forgotten,
The baby is "going alone!"

What woful mishaps have preceded
This day of rejoicing and pride!
How often the help that he needed
Has carelessly gone from his side!
He has fallen while reaching for sunbeams,
Which just as he grasped them have flown,
And the tears of vexation have followed,
And now he is "going alone."

And through all his life he will study
This lesson again and again;
He will carelessly lean upon shadows,
He will fall and weep over the pain;
The hand whose fond clasp was the surest
Will coldly withdraw from his own,
The sunniest eyes will be clouded,
And he will be walking alone!

He will learn what a stern world we live in,
And he may grow cold like the rest;
But just keep a warm, sunny welcome
For those who seem truest and best;
Yet chastened and taught by past sorrow,
And stronger and manlier grown,
Not trusting his all in their keeping,
He learns to walk bravely alone.

Can Stand it no Longer.

Hon. A. J. Felton, County Judge of Trinity county, has severed his connection with the Republican party, with which he has been acting for the last eight years. In a card which he published in the Trinity Journal, announcing his withdrawal from that party, he makes these bold and manly declarations:

New issues having come before the American people for adjustment, I claim the right to think and act for myself, regardless of party names or previously conceived prejudices, and to vote with that political party, which, in my judgement, will carry out measures that will best conduce to the interests of the whole people of the United States.

Without retrograding from any principal I ever advocated as a Union man, I am free to confess that I cannot follow the radical leaders of the Republican party in their insane efforts to degrade American suffrage, evidenced in Congress by the attempt to strike the word "white" from our naturalization laws, as well as by the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment, which was simply an outrage upon the American people, having been adopted by the Legislatures of many of the States in defiance of the well understood sentiment of the people, and being made a condition precedent to the admission to the Union of some of the Southern States.

ENDORSEMENT OF SUMNER—REPUTATION OF WILLIAMS.—Below we give the 8th and 9th resolutions of the Iowa Republican State platform, adopted Aug. 17th, 1870:

8. Resolved, That the Republican party of Iowa welcomes to our shores all human beings of every nation, irrespective of race or color, voluntarily seeking a home in our midst; and that all the rights and privileges which we, as citizens, demand for ourselves, we will freely accord to them.

9. Resolved, That we are in favor of amending our Naturalization Laws by striking out the word "white" from the same, wherever it occurs.

Does the Oregonian endorse the above? if not should it not go to the Democracy? And who now is leading the party to defeat in the opinion of the Oregonian? This is the legitimate result of the principles of the Fifteenth Amendment—fruits of radicalism. Progression, gentlemen; for you know opposition to universal suffrage is retrogression. Who's right now, Sumner or Williams?—Republican.

LOVE AND SUICIDE.—A man whose name we did not learn, says the Colusa Sun of the 27th, fell in love with a fair damsel of Marysville, and on being refused swallowed a dose of "cold pizen," which the Marysville doctors pumped out of him. Being disgusted with such treatment, he came to Colusa, and on Saturday swallowed another dose. Again the doctors spoiled his fun. We believe he has gone elsewhere to try his luck.

A Southern exchange says a curious and inexplicable coincidence occurs in Georgia and North Carolina. Whenever a legislator dies, regardless of his color, "or previous condition of servitude," six or seven colored ladies always appear in the capacity of widows to draw the back pay.

EAKINS'

OR EXCELSIOR

YEAST POWDER.

SUBSTITUTE,

This Powder is invaluable to the Housekeeper, Hotel and Restaurant Proprietors, Miners and owners of Steamships and sea going vessels, as it does away with the necessity of providing Eggs for Puddings, Cakes, Fancy Breads, etc., as the contents of each tin is equal in every respect (for the above purpose) to four dozen of Eggs. It dispenses ENTIRELY with the use of Soda, Saleratus and Cream of Tartar, (three ingredients that are very apt to disagree with delicate stomachs), and is a friend to the dyspeptic, as it makes the food into which it is introduced, light and wholesome. It is entirely free from all mineral ALKALIES, and is recommended by the Faculty to those suffering from sour stomachs and impaired digestion, or irregularity of the biliary secretions. The above article is put up in sealed cans, and warranted to keep in all climates. Directions on each box.

EAKINS'

Celebrated California

Buckeye Salve.

Patented March, 1868.

A certain cure for Rheumatism, Paralysis, Piles and Old Sores.

The therapeutic value of this salutary preparation is exhibited in its application as a medicinal suspension of the vital powers has taken place, as in

RHEUMATISM OR PARALYSIS, and where the animal functions have become inert or inoperative, as in PILES, FISTULA AND CHRONIC SORES.

It permeates the system, into which it becomes thoroughly absorbed, and thus it strikes at the root of evil in both Rheumatism and Paralysis. As a lenitive, it mitigates pain and soothes the irritation of the parts affected. It is both emollient and depuratory in its action on sores, which it mollifies and softens, and it effectually cleanses them from impurities and foreign matter, causing them to cicatrize rapidly.

DISCOVERY OF THE BUCKEYE.

The curative properties of the Buckeye, Nut, from which this ointment is principally expressed, were first brought to notice by Mr. Conroy, who, while residing in Anderson's Valley, suffered so severely from Rheumatism, that he could move neither hand nor foot. He had known the natives to use the nut as a specific, and tried it with great success on himself. The potency of its effects as a drug is exemplified in its singular operations on cattle, by which, when taken, it causes abortion in those animals that are with young when the nut is eaten. Squirrels, as if aware of its medicinal properties, eat but half of it, leaving the other half untasted.

So wonderful is the efficacy of this production of nature, in cases of Rheumatism, that many of the old settlers and early Californians subject to the disease, carry the nut about their persons, not only as an antidote, but as a preventive.

In no cases where THIS PREPARATION has been applied to the human subject, has it failed in establishing a COMPLETE CURE in the diseases above mentioned.

Beware of Counterfeits.—Ask for Eakins' Buckeye Salve, and take no other.

ADDRESS

TO THE

NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED

WHOSE SUFFERINGS

HAVE BEEN

PROTRACTED FROM HIDDEN CAUSES,

AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE

PROMPT TREATMENT,

To Render Existence Desirable.

If you are suffering or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or frothy or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia, or liver complaint?

NOW, READER,

self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health.

MAKE THE MAN.

DID YOU EVER THINK

that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering successful business men, are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, or palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only

RUIN THEIR CONSTITUTIONS,

but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease.

IDIOCY, LUNACY,

PARALYSIS,

spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S

FLUID EXTRACT

is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.
