SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 8, 1870.

THOMAS BOYCE, No. 30 (Second floor,) Merchant's Exchange, California Street, below Montgomery, is our duly authorized agent for San Francisco.

HUDSON & MENET, are our duly authorized Agents in the Atlantic States. Office, 41 Park Row, "Times" Building, New York.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Religious Notice.

Rev. C. Alderson will hold divine service at the M. E. Church, to-morrow evening.

THE SURVEYING PARTY LOST.—Last week, after we had gone to press, we learned that the surveying party, consisting of Messrs. Turner, Howard and others, had been lost in the mountains at the head of Rogue river and were made to wander around through the rugged canyons and fastnesses of that section for two days and a half (one report has it four days) without anything to eat, worth speaking of. Towards the last they are said to have meditated making a meal on a luckless canine they had along. How true it is we are not prepared to say. Anyhow it is a remarkable adventure for men carrying a compass to go through. The trouble seems to have been, they did not have confidence in their instrument.

GREAT REDUCTION OF PRICES.—Mr. John Miller will hereafter sell at the following reduced prices: Saddles, from $10 to $50; Saddle Trees, $4 to $6; Team and Farm Harness, from $25 to $50; Collars, from $2 50 to $4 50; Riding Bridles, from $1 50 to $10; Halters, from $1 25 to $2 25; Black Snake Whips, from $1 to $2 25; Buggy Whips, from $1 to $2 25; Bridle Bits, from 25 cts. to $3 50; and all other articles will be sold at proportionate low prices. All work done at reduced rates.

A BOLD ROBBERY.—Mr. J. Robinson had one hundred dollars, in coin, stolen from out of his dwelling house one day this week, while he was out at work on the ranch. The house is situated close to the road, and the villain must have been of a daring stripe to accomplish such a theft in broad daylight. One individual was arrested on suspicion and after a preliminary examination by Justice Burns, was bound over to await the action of the Grand Jury.

A STRONG WIND.—We learn from Wm. Angle, who is just in from Link river, that a strong Southwestern breeze came up there lately which had the effect of driving back the waters of Link river (a stream about the size of Rogue river) into Klamath Lake so as to leave the stream almost entirely dry, and gave people residing there an opportunity to pick up all the fish they wanted. Such an occurrence is said to be common.

MAGIC.—Carl Bosco gave us a couple of entertainments this week which, in feats of legerdemain, are seldom surpassed by traveling performers. His audiences were not very large, but some of his tricks were mystical enough to defy the detection of any one other than an expert.

THAT $10,000 gold coin to be awarded Oct. 27th at the Grand Fair, Nevada City, is only one of the large list offered. There are plenty other Large Premiums to be awarded. Buy a ticket before it is too late. We learn they are being rapidly taken. See advertisement in another column.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Under the new law, Jackson county will have but two terms of Circuit Court a year, held on the second Monday of February and November. In Josephine, Court will convene on the second Monday of April, and the fourth Monday of October.

BROKE JAIL.—An individual of the name of Benson who was lately bound over by the Justice of the Peace in Sam's Valley for some species of robbery, got out of jail, as we have been told, one night recently and decamped post haste.

HOOKED BY A COW.—We are told that Mrs. Little's youngest girl was severely hooked one day this week by a small pet cow belonging to one of the neighbors. Such an animal will bear watching where there are so many children running about.

RETURNED.—Mr. J. N. T. Miller and Sheriff Klippel arrived from Salem the first of the week. The wife of Dr. Overbeck reached home from her recent trip to the East, on Thursday morning.

ROLLING IN.—The arrival of A. Fisher & Bros. goods has commenced. They are laying in an abundant stock for the winter market, and do not calculate to be undersold by anybody.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15, 1870.
MESSRS. COWAN & FLINT, GENTS:—For the benefit of those suffering with the terrible disease Fever and Ague, allow me to state that I was afflicted with the Chills and Fever which afterward turned into the Dumb Ague. I had tried all the most celebrated physicians of this city for four months, but grew worse until I was scarcely able to walk, with loss of appetite, night sweats, etc. In fact, I began to believe my case hopeless, when finally a friend induced me to try your Ague King. I had no confidence in it, supposing it to be like other medicines the base being quinine. I used but two bottles of it and in ten days I was a sound man. Three months has passed since I used your remedy, and I never felt better or stronger in my life. After paying five hundred dollars and lying idle four months, I am cured. I consider the Ague King a dead shot for fever or fever and ague.
SAM'L SHAW.

This celebrated medicine has won a deservedly high reputation as an alleviator of pain and a preserver of health. It has become a household remedy, from the fact that it gives immediate and permanent relief. It is a purely vegetable preparation, made from the best and purest materials, safe to keep and use in every family. It is recommended by physicians and persons of all classes, and to-day, after a public trial of thirty years—the average life of man—it stands unrivalled and unexcelled, spreading its usefulness over the wide world. Its large and increasing sale affords positive evidence of its enduring fame. We do not deem it necessary to say much in its favor as one small bottle will do more to convince you of its efficacy than all the advertisements in the world. Give it one fair trial and you would not be without it for ten times its cost. Directions accompany each bottle.
