THE WEST.

-. tT--

FLORENCE, LANE COUNTY, OREGON. SOCIETY is like a great planetary sys-

EXPLORATION.

ual explorers such high hopes of glori-true of morals as of physics. ous discovery, but it would have assured the North Pole, but the exploration of whom to trust public anairs, and the ca- had been said; Mr. Clayton had again with a small party early next summer. He will first proceed to Jones Sound and build a house at or near Cape Tennyson on Ellesmere Land, A whaling firm has agreed to transport eight or nine men at a reasonable price and bring the party back in the autumn. If the ice conditions in Jones Sound permit, Mr. is very fortunate who takes advantage Stein intends to make a boat journey to of the opportunity. the west coast of Ellesmere Land, surveying it as far north as Hayes Sound. ther north, a hundred or more miles flesh to the Flowery Kingdom. boats, ample provisions supplied from the primary station, and weapons and ation is liberally planked with the fu- found a trunk filled with necessary and ammunition for hunting and fishing. The permanent force at each secondary parties in this state. When the reform father had provided for her, and when station is never to exceed five men party poses as a wing to democracy it is supper was announced she came out of trained to observe every aspect of na- about time Republicans come home or her state-room dressed in garments to tire. Mr. Stein's idea is eventually to join the parent branch. make Franz Josef Land and other points the basis for similar lines of advance, and thus in time to make geologic maps of all the islands, extensive pendulum observations for determining more exactly the figure of the earth, studies of Arctic meteorology, flora and fauna, and perhaps, to discover new whaling grounds and mineral resources. It is to IT is certainly of importance that the nal agreed upon he ran to apprise Mrs. be feared that Mr. Stein may err in the people desiring to sell property should Clayton, and prepare her for the joyful direction of other Arctic explorers in at- hand in such list to Joe Morris, Jr., so news. Mrs. Clayton was a good deal tempting to cover too much ground. If those receiving the late circulars and rehe would establish supply stations from plying to them, can be furnished with a prepared to go on board to meet the reten to twenty miles apart, and have list of property for sale and the price turning wanderer. Christy would not each connected by telegraphic wires and therefor. telephones the risks of the enterprise would be greatly reduced. He would WHEN the inclemency of the weather and saying many pretty little words. the good and the great man, very often probably find little difficulty in securing has spent its fury, it would be well for But Christy's heart was full; was Ru- are hidden and concealed in a plebian, volunteers to man the stations, and the the Board of Trade to take some action dolph of that returning party, or was he which proper education might have dismoney required to prosecute the under- on the exhibit we ought to display in among the lost? When Mr. Morton's interred and brought to light. taking could probably be easily obtained San Francisco. from wealthy men, who would be pleased to have their names linked with a the House of Representatives voted for will draw a veil as the emotions of that individual of which other persons can

Mr. Stein may have some interesting traders. news for the world before long, as he may come in contact with tribes of men tion, says: "The Eskimos have reported pay to spend 5 cents to help your counhome to you, dear Christy." Christy that give the like exhilaration, and rethat one of their tribes, never seen by try. white men, lives on the west side of Ellesmere Land, There is no doubt that at one time this region was inhabi.ed, or at least that hunting parties tles the monetary question. from the south made prolonged sojourns there, for not a few traces of the natives THE Democratic State Convention Clayton persuaded Mr. Jewett to accept and not pain, around us. have been found on the eastern shores. meets in Astoria on April 17. The a position in his employ, and so soon as What is the use of history, and what But no explorer or whaler has ever seen great battle of fusion with the Populists David could prepare a home he sent for are its lessons? First, it is a voice fora native who lived in Ellesmere Land. will then be decided. The Eskimo name for the country is the Land of the Musk Ox; but all indications point to the almost total disappearance of large game, and it is likely by the force of processive men. that the natives long ago abandoned With Spring comes lethargy or re-Ellesmere Land as a hunting field and a newed energy. The latter we trust is place of residence. However, Mr. Stein inborn in the people here. will probably find on the west coast numercus traces of natives who never WE NOTICED some new buildings in Monterey as she was of the rustic lodge Justice and truth alone endure and came into contact with the white race; course of erection at Acme, us some new insight into the primitive -- PUBLISHED EVERY TRIBAY MORNING .- characteristics of this interesting branch of the human family."

tem, composed of greater and lesser ARCTIC bodies, and held intact by mutual and reciprocal forces. The moon, the small-It is a long time since adventurers naked eye, is as essential as is the sun lage to call at his temporary head-quarfirst began to navigate the Arctic waters to the harmony of the whole. So, in ters, and when they had gathered he rein search of the North Pole. Many the composition of society, there are quested Mr. Le Gran to state that he delives have been lost, and much treasure great men, medium men, and little men sired to make some little return for the squandered, yet the world knows very all necessary to the harmon, and perpe- kindness they had shown to his daughlittle more about the Arctic regions now tuity of the race. No human life is inthan it did one hundred years ago. The dependent. The day laborer is as neces- had brought some presents which he history of Arctic adventure is a story of sary as the banker, the lawyer, the phy- hoped they would accept. Ita, the loss and disappointment. In reading sician, the educator, the statesman, the chief's wife, was made happy by a pair about these vain attempts to discover author and the miner. The omission of gold bracelets, a beautiful shawl, the great secret of the icy North one is one is the ruin of all. Society is a unit. blankets and bright silk handkerchiefs; impressed with the idea that if each Agriculture, manufactures and com- Siam, the chief, a suit of buckskin party of adventurers during all these merce are indissolubly united. Human- clothes, a pair of blankets and a sword; years of exploration, instead of hunting ity is like a great body, with its head at Max Ongy received a fine fowling piece for the North Pole, had started out with one pole and its feet at the other; its and a buckskin suit. M. Le Gran rethe intention of preparing the way for mighty heart on the equator; its great fused to accept any thing, saying that others to reach the Pole in later years arms stretch from horizon to herizon. Irma's presence had been a blessing in the object in view might now have been Some are its brains, some are its heart, his house and his greatest hardship was attained. A great supply station might some its lungs, its bones, its muscles, its to give her up. Mr. Clayton took off his have been established at an easy acces- nerves, its hands, its feet. Touch it own gold watch and chain, and giving sible point in the Arctic regions and a where you will, and all parts will re- them to Irma bade her persuade him to chain of small stations might have been spond to that touch. A famine in Eng- accept it in remembrance of herself. established north of it, Each year a land is felt in this country. A war in This the kind hearted Frenchman could northward advance might have been China is felt in all commercial circles, not refuse to do, and Irma pressed it made by the establishment of a few new Financial depression here is felt through- into his hands. She then selected many stations, each of which could have been out Europe. When this mutual de- valuable and comfortable presents for amply supplied with fuel and provisions. pendence is ignored, men are savages. Kaloken, and rolling them into a bundle to each a certain degree of success. Mr. Constant growlers are a standing gifts to each villager, of blankets, shoes, Robert Stein, who for nine years past menace to prosperity. In nine cases handkerchiefs, pipes, tobacco, cotton has been employed in the office of the out of ten the so-called "financial watch- cloths, flannels, beads, ribbons, etc., etc., United States Geological Survey, has dogs" are themselves financial, moral until all was distributed and every one claborated a scheme of Arctic study that and mental failures. History proves had something by which to remember may teach the searchers for the North that a successful student is a safe and the occasion. Pole a lesson. The object which Mr. successful teacher; a successful business The next morning they prepared to Stein has in view is not the discovery of man in private affairs is a safe party in embark for the Viking. The good-byes Ellesmere Land and other sections of reer of fault-finding failures in private and again thanked Le Gran and his wife the Arctic regions. He expects to start and public enterprises is too well for their kindness, and Kaloken had known to admit of comment.

> the tariff question were marked by oratorical flashes from the brightest mental lenses the House affords. There are few instances in the life-time of men when such opportunity presents aself, and he

The house near Cape Tennyson will be Chinese, packed in a tin box and her- gift to her, jumped in and crawled up Mr. Stein's primary station, which can metically sealed, were recently shipped by her. "Oh, may I take him?" she be easily reached every year from the from Chicago to the Flowery Kingdom, asked. "Certainly," her father ancivilized world. It is proposed to grad- Here we would like to send a few ships' swered. M. Le Gran smiled and waved ually establish subsidiary stations fur- load of unbleached Onlinese bones and sion of the Demoratic and Populist suitable clothes which her thoughtful

PARADOXICAL as it may seem, Lionel Stagge's resignation has been accepted because he once gave a fraudulent check for $30, while Nat Blum stole thousands of dollars and he is now the worshiped of cabinet officers and has no fear of scheme of discovery promising such cer- the Wilson bill, that party can no longer lay claim to be any thing but free

Eveny man in the Siuslaw valley she crossed the threshold of her home. clusive judgment upon it. never yet seen by white men. The New should send a copy of our next week's After an affectionate greeting Irma We have seen manners that make a York Sun, in an account of the expedi- issue to some one in the east. It will said: "And here is some one else come similar impression with personal beauty;

> AN ELMWOOD (Ind.) man found $85 in gold coin in a head of cabbage he had bought at his grocery store. This set-

KEEP fresh planted in your minds that

A TALE OF SIXTY YEARS AGO whom she came in contact.

BY MORE ANON.

In the afternoon Mr. Clayton requestest of the heavenly bodies visible to the ed the chief and every person in his vil-Such a system of Arctic exploration We rise to a true conception of the requested David Jewett to take them to would have been slow but sure. It grandeur of human life when we realize her lodge, where she sat sorrowing for would not have held out to the individ- that the law of mutual dependence is as her dead. David laid, them down and withdrew when he saw that she did not even raise her head. Then came other > pressed Irma to her heart for the last time. "I will meet you again," she said, pointing upward; "I will see you there, Irma;" tears choked her voice but she pressed her hand again and de-

Mr. Clayton had provided a long cloak for Irma which covered the picturesque costume she wore, and when she seated herself in the boat beside her BLEACHED bones of over twenty-eight father, Flossie, the little spaniel, Petito's adieu as the little flotilla pulled down > suit her age and station, and in touch with the requirements of civilization.

The trip home was a perpetual delight. There was so much of joy on board the ship and so much more in anticipation. The winds blew fair and the ship sped along and finally reached the bay of Menterey. Mr. Morton was on the watch for her, and when he saw the sizboat reached the Viking the expectant Let it never be forgotten that there is

Christy was the first to greet Irma as as to warrant their pronouncing a conlooked up, and there stood her husband fine us like that; but they must be who n she had so long mourned as dead. marked by fine perception, the acquain-She flew into his embrace and the two tance with real beauty. Then they more to part. There is but little more to tell. Mr. behavior, like the wish to scatter joy, him. Percy, shortly after his return, laws of right and wrong. Opinions alter admitted to the ministry. Rudolph and but the moral law is written on the tab-Christy went to a home of their own in lets of eternity. For every false word the outskirts of the town, and now a or unrighteous deed, for cruelty and opwith their innocent prattle. Irma is the to be paid at last, not always by the life and solace of her home of luxury in chief offenders, but paid by some one. in the wild Sinelaw country, and in the live.

SIUGLAWS, years that followed, her gentle ways and kindly sympathy proved a blessing to years that followed, her gentle ways and her family, and a solace to all with Literary.

It is better to suffer than to sin. Concentration is the secret of strength It is not knowledge, but little knowledge, that puffeth up. Spiritual service lies in the consecration of simplest duties.

However little we may have to do, that little should be done well. Don't stand shivering upon the bank; display; we retain them by the qualities his son much better. He will not re-

One holy action against blasphe of than a thousand elo-plunge in at once and have it over.

it is the idle man that is the most mis-

The heart is always hungry. No man lives happily alone. The wisest and the best is wiser and better for the friends

Greatness consists not in what one possessions-not in capacity, but in a dications point to an early spring. right exercise of that capacity.

Intellect, like ice, is colorless; no moral sense that imparts character, if either God or man will love you.

is free from the restrictions which accu- also adaptable to a newspaper. rate knowledge of the recognized laws of Mr. Alley, of the Jewish Relief Mis-

Remember that nothing will supply the want of prudence, and that negli gence and irregularity long continued ous and genius contemptible.

There is a great deal of talking that means but little and ends in nothing. Not consciously insincere, it yet poorly represents the true feelings; it merely

What to do with our troubles and hindrances is the great problem of life. It lies with us to make them into violets in of sorrower takes unto itself wings.

culture, as wild fruits may double their it has received from the recent discovneglect, as choice flower seeds planted in distribution of birds for which no reapoor soil dwindle and grow single.

There is no moment like the present; St. James Gazette. not only so, but, moreover, there is no moment at all-that is, no instant force and energy, but in the present. The man who will not execute his resolu- walls lies buried the affectionate and de tions when they are fresh upon him, voted Dervorgall, vith the heart of her something in mind-something to say. cay, telling every day, as it has for coo-Yet how few people have minds furnish- years, the thrilling story of a woman's ed with any thing but commonplace, or at least how few can produce acceptable fragments from a store of knowledge!

What sculpture is to a block of marble go, but remained to take care of the lit- education is to the soul. The philosotle Helen who was now running about pher, the saint and the hero, the wise.

As mont out of the nine Populists in party went on board, and here again we scarcely a single moral action of a single hour were too sacred to be intruded have such a knowledge in its ultimate grounds, its surrounding incidents, and In due time they returned to the shore, the real determining causes of merits, faithful hearts were united again no must be inspired by the good heart.

There is no beautifier of face or form, or his aged mother to come and live with ever sounding across the centuries the passed a successful examination and was manners change, creeds rise and fall, little girl and boy light up their fireside pression, for lust or vanity, the price has

POINT TERRACE.

By More Anon.

Sunshine at Point Terrace.

Mrs. George Bradley is spending a few lays with her sister, Mrs. Oscar Funke, Rev. I. G. Knotts preached a very ineresting sermon at Point Terrace on Sunday last.

Miss Clara Young was called lome from school at Acme, on account of the in Asposition of her mother.

Stringers have been put in place for a much needed bridge across Sweets creek near the residence of D. A. Brad ey.

The fine weather of to-day makes on think of gardening, but we must remember that it takes more than one swallow to make a spring.

Joseph Campbell, who went east a short time ago to attend a very sick son, We attract hearts by the qualities we arraved at his old home safely and found turn until spring.

High water has done a good deal of Dress goods. Look at our large stock of damage to many in this locality, carrying away fences and floating drift-wood and rubbish onto the cleared land. Also Man was may be active, and he is the continued wet weather has caused never so happy a see he is employed; quite a number of s e p to die.

ToiL (COOS.

Newsy Letter from the Lakes-Per s nal Menti p BY GAIL MAKER.

Vegetation is starting growth and in A pleasant dancing party was enjoyed has more of it than the devil. It is the If there is one thing more than anmake-up of THE WEST it is the orderli-Freethinking often means thinking that tor believes that Heaven's first law reasoning lays upon scientific investiga- sion at Jerusalem, sent a rose tree troub the Garden of detasemane to Mrs. E. M. Denney, of Asaland, Oregon. Is arrived in good condition and is rowing nicely.-Housekeen

E. Finsterwalder's new louse is nearwill make knowledge useless, wit ridicu- ing completion; E. H. David and L. F. Anderson each have foundations lafor new dwellings; J. W. Brewster is making preparations to build in the spring, and so Tsutcoos keeps step.

Hon. R. M. Veatch has been appointdilutes the will and weakens the pur- ed Register of the Land Office at Rose-

Dr. Bowdler Sharpe, the well known ornithologist of the British museum, delivered a lecture at the Savage club on the soul, or into thorns. The finest "The Lost Continent." Dr. Sharpe first parts of the finest souls have been made illustrated the zoo geographical regions of the world, with their peculiar forms Young people who learn to work will of isolated forms in different portions of always fare better than idlers and the globs by the existence of a former dwadlers. Even if they do not have to the sea. The idea of an audient tropical work, it is better to learn how against a continent at the south pole uniting South time of misfortune. Wealth sometimes America, Madagascar and Australia is arousing considerable interest and dis-Love can be increased by judicious time, chiefly owing to the support which bearing under the hand of a gardener, O. Forbes, the well known Malayan traveries in the Chatham islands of Mr. H. and love can dwindle and die out ty eler. The lecturer in conclusion dealt sonable solution has yet been offered .-

There is in Galloway, Scotland, an ancient ruin known as Sweetheart abbey. Within its ivy covered, storm battered can have no hope from them afterward. her breast. Lovely in their lives, in The secret of interesting conversation death they are not divided. The crumis the same as that of literature-having bling masonry is still and must ever be a tender love and devotion.

> There are over 6,000 persons fed thre while the sultan of Turkey is there

Rich Red Blood

Results from taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

"For several years I have been troubled with

Hood's Sarsa- Cures

A Thorough Trial. After using two bottles, my skin returned to its natural state. I still use it, as it gives me Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

1893 FALL & WINTER 1894 Dry and Fancy Goods,

Notions, Groceries Provisions, Oiled Clothing, Grass Seeds, Hardware, Powder and Shot, Leads, Oils, Turpentine, Colorings &c. &c.

-Take a Look at our-

In Dry and Fancy goods, we have Ladies' and Gents' Shirts and Drawers, Wool and Cotton, Marseilles Quilts, Flannels and woolen Trimmines! Black, White and Grey.

Plush, velvets, silks, gimps and fancy trimmings. Hosiery, gloves, corsets, ribbons, saxony yarn, and hundreds of other choice articles. & Great White Store of & HURD & DAVENPORT

THE SEATON STORE

Keeps a full line of Extra Quality

GOODS & GROCERIES.

IARDWARE, TINWARE, BOOTS & SHOES,

HATS & CAPS, MEDICINES, NUTS & CANDIES.

TOBACCO, CIGARS, FURNISHING GOODS.

goods as Represented. Prices Will be Found Reasonable

Knowles & Cettys, MANAGERS.

The Old Reliable DRY :: GOODS :: HOUSE

of J. H. McClung EUGENE, YOU BARGAINS IN SPECIAL

AS FOLLOWS: good Canton Flannel rchiefs from 5e upward. 1.25 to 2.50 Men's Rubber Hip Boots.... Men's Rubber Boots, short... 3.00 to 8.25 2.50 50c

Boys 'Storm King Boots 2.00 to 8.25 Men's Rubbers 50e Ladies' and Children's Rubbers in all sizes and at lowest prices. Gents' and Ladies' Macintoshes, and Circulars for School Girls. dren's UNDERWEAR at astonish-ingly LOW PRICES. hildren's Shoes at prices that defy

WE SOLICIT YOUR TRADE. CALL & CUS

A fine line of Ladies', Gents' and Chil-

Goods.

"I LEAD BUT NEVER FOLLOW!" S. H. Frendly ....

Dealer in MOODS, CLOTHING.

Gents' Carpets. Furnishing Boots and Shoes.

Glassware.

Groceries.

Etc. Etc.

Headquarters for WOOL, WHEAT, OATS AND

Highest Price Paid for Country Produce. OREGON.

For Bargains in Real Property CALL ON OR ADDRESS

THE LANE COUNTY LAND & LOAN CO., EUGENE, OREGON.

Read carefully the following affidavits by prominent citizens regarding Florence property, now on the market at wonderfully reduced prices; TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN :

I hereby certify that I was the original owner of the property known as Frasier. and Berry's part of Florence, which E. J. Frsier is now offering for sale. That the same is level and free from drifting sand. That fruit trees and shrubbery do wel upon said land and the same is desirable for residence property. J. G. Stevenson, Supt. Public Schools, Lane county.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th SEAL Joseph A. Morris, Notáry Public

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Being first duly sworn I depose and say: That I have been a resident of Flor ence, Lane County, Oregon, for the past twelve years; that I am familiar and wel equainted with the property known as "Frasier and Berry's part of Florence," that the same is admirably suited for residence property, being perfectly level and free from drifting sand. That fruit trees and shrubbery grow well in the soil and that pure well water is found on the same at a depth of from ten to fifteen feet. JOSEPH A. MORRIS, Merchant.

day of March, 1892.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day L. BILYEU, Notary Public,