FLORENCE, LINE COUNTY, OREGON.

Tur backbone of the strike is broken.

P. E. PRENDERGAST was sent over the walls of the Cook county jail yard.

Union men in Kentucky to strike, but strong oaths that the disputes of one they refused to do so.

PRESIDENT DEBS is a Populist, and this passed by that party's State Central committee in Oregon in favor of the beycotting.

WHILE in Bandon we called upon the chists better than we can without libeditor of the Recorder at his sanctum, erty, freedom and country. talked over the difficulties of newspaper its editor a hospitable gentleman.

EVIDENTLY from facts before us, Pull- words: then his property shall be swept from is his reply:

they have something to do besides talk- such a life." ing. There are clearly national problems to grapple with well worthy the diseases; but, in any case, they need at- that country. Americans nearer together around the memory's tablet.

THE WEST. by one or three men, they are no longer OUR free. Whenever they must step out of -PURLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING,- employment from mills, manufacturies, The Passing of Two Bars-Towns and this coast know the art of entertaining stores, shops, railroads, printing offices, and from every highway of labor, at the summons of one man, that man is a king, and may be a tyrant. Whenever river of death with a rope around his create want, impoverish innocent neck on July 13, at 11:48, within the women and children, cause murder, riot and even guerilla warfare, then we must admit that free government is a failure Dens is not king over all the working and American liberty an imagination people, and especially so in the South. and not a reality. Branches of a secret He ordered the American Railway society that are bound together by such comes a common cause for all, regardless of the consequences to those who accounts for the strong resolutions are not implicated in the disagreement, menaces the existence of a free government. Whenever and wherever an orstrike, and advocating more stringent ganization prevents men from obtaining employment, it is open violation of the Since we have renewed activity in right in pursuit of happiness, and is a Florence incident upon the coming ap crime. Whenever men of a secret orpropriation for our harbor, the town ganization become mobs and guerillas order more improvements done. Let and fire, then laugh in fiendish delight us show to the incoming people that at the ruin they have wrought, that society should be suppressed by law. How long do you think a secret organi-A GUERILLA warfare has been com- zation would be allowed to exist if commenced by the strikers in California. posed of all the men who employ labor-A train was wrecked and the engineer ers, who, when a dispute arose between and fireman shot to their death by one and his employes, the whole should strikers in ambush. The remedy for discharge their help in sympathy and such acts should come as swiftly and coercion? To stop this growing anarsurely as it came to Price's army during chistical sentiment in this country, we should close the bars of immigration.

We can get along without foreign Anar-

John Most, chief Anarchist and edi- lover of scenery. When taken as a far held our heads above the depressed tor of the red flag Populist organ Die whole, Coos Bay has an area of water financial condition of the times and Fricheit, published in a recent issue of which comes and goes to the Pacific hoped for better days to soon arrive. his flery sheet a three-column editorial that leaves no doubt about its cutting a The Bandon Recorder is an excellent on the folly of assassinating potentates deep track to the ocean. The resources paper, one of our oldest exchanges and by the pistol instead of the surer and of the country in many banks of excelquicker weapon-the knife. The intro- lent coal, forests of timber and yet unductory paragraphs of the editorial con- told acres of farming lands, are the nu-On one day Governor Pennoyer par- sist of a denunciation of the Anarchist cleus to the building of a large city and abned five murderers and four other cabinet-maker, Lega, who attempted to an exalted commerce on Coos Bay. criminals. A few days afterwards he assassinate the Italian Prime Minister, But here we are at the wharf of Emgranted three pardons. And on the Crispi. Most says Lega was a fool for pire City near the mouth of the Bay, next day he spoke of the "growing not using a trusty knife or a good bomb, and an old, dreamy-looking town it is. spirit of anarchy." The next day Colo- If an Anarchist should be a professional It has its advantages, however, but the rado's adjutant general was tarred and sharp-shooter, says Most, he might use one that has mostly fostered life and feathered, and before twenty-four hours the pistol with some success. The commercial activity is the large saw-mill France's president had been stabbed to knife he recommends above all things which probably gave employment to a the heart by an Italian anarchist. Yes, because it makes no noise, but is quiet, half-hundred men, but now its wheels the spirit of anarchy is growing, but it silent and sure. The interesting climax are resting upon rusty axles and a sinhad received a check in the United in Most's editorial is the moral which he gle watchman comprises the list on the States until Altgeld broke out in Illinois draws from the various attempts made pay rolls. and Waite in Colorado and Tillman in by European Anarchists to assassinate again until after the financial depression the numerous unsuccessful attempts at field. When the captain collected fare loss to the concern. It must run and This human butcher who is the mas- Comet, one of the boats on the line, had pay hands until its coin coffers are ter of Anarchists and the People's reduced the fare from fifty cents to empty. The letter of Pullman clearly party, is permitted to not only live in a twenty-five, and the Blanco and Yarindicates that he has not attempted to free country, but in its largest city and row had to meet the cut. But evidently open his shops since the strike in May, teach bloody revenge lessons in a pa- the captain of the Blanco has learned and does not intend to be coerced into per. After the assassination of Presi- the art of getting gain, out of strangers opening them. A manufacturer in free dent Carnot, the fiend Most was found who do not know the true fare, and we America must obtain the consent of mo- in a saloon at No. 144 Park row drink- advise those from abroad to avoid taknarchical labor before his business can ing beer and eating a free lunch, and ing passage on that craft. Such unwarbe closed. If he does close it without was asked by a reporter what he ranted discrimination against the outtheir consent, and refuses to open it, thought of the assassination, and here side traveling public may be acceptable

THE spectacle of suffering and severe do you? Well, neither would you see our journals. any if the whole brood of autocratic loss of life and property by a boycotting hogs were butchered all in a heap. Just around the turn we found North

A HANDSOME PRESENT.

-whether of light or not. It is not ists a tie of friendship between soldiers, admit that the location is extremely demerely that such Anarchists as Most be they regulars or militia, that finds sirable on which to build a town, and in the world, where wages are the high- pany K, Oregon National Guard, of Ban- that city.

derous strikes have drawn the loyal the indelible impression of them left on home, our comrade, General Siglin. viction with them. We were their bier of murdered freedom, and it will be How is it possible to turn the pages of comrade J. L. Ferrey is the proprietor. heart, and our appreciation finds no a pity if, hereafter, the patriotic citizens thought and select those that are best If ever we were royally entertained it cannot stand nearer each other in deal- fitted to express our thanks and appre- was at that hotel, and the large number ing with the problems and perplexities ciation for so handsome a gift? To the of guests is positive proof that the trav- of the exercises on the Fourth at Banof the age. Union men joined hands a Colonel, the other officers and comrades eling public are hospitably treated by don, but as that excellent journal, the quarter of a century ago to put down a of company K we shall always have a both the proprietor and his assistants. Recorder, has occupied the field, it could rebellion. Why should they not join lasting memory of your beautiful gift

As towns go on this coast Marshfield only be a recapitulation of what has already been said, but to Capt. R. S. Lithands again to put down a murderous and the ennobling motive that prompt- is a good city, and among its probable tlefield, Col. R. H. Rosa, Mayor J. M. riot born of Anarchy-not alone in Chi- ed the giving, and when we look at 2,500 inhabitants may be found many Upton, companies K and G, Separate eago and California, but in the United those beautifully colored and polished merchants and other business men, who Battallion O. N. G., Life Saving crew, woods we shall think of all that you send their goods far and near, learned the Coquille City Trombone Band, the have done, thought, gained, or been, professional men and pleasant officials. of Bandon, a large share of credit should Whenever a body of laboring men in and these will lie as in a magic preser- Here, too, may be found a Grand Army be given for the excellent exercises on

FIRST TRIP TO BANDON, sojourn in their city pleasant. They Townspeople, Industries and Situations.

We stepped on board the tug Liberty, at Gardiner, thanks to the kindness of her captain who desired to show us the entrances to one river and a bay, and the engine is in motion, and soon we see the colors floating at the life saving station as if to salute our staunch craft steaming out over the Umpqua bar, "These North winds have caused the shoaling of this bar," said the captain, as he looked behind for ranges and forward at the water. Like all other bars on this coast that of the Umpqua needs jetties to insure an even depth of water

As we lay lazily on the large hawser with the well-informed captain, we drank in the beauty of the varied scenqua river and Coos Bay. We must go close under the shadows of the headland to the South of the entrance to. should keep pace with the times and to murder, destroy property by powder Coos Bay, and the long jetty to the South of it leaves no doubt in the mari- On the wharf ners' mind as to the exact course that must be taken to safely enter the harbor. The 221/2 feet of water on the Coos Bay bar at low tide and during all seasons of the year, are texts for a sermon in favor of jetty building by the Gov-justly merits its praises. The pictures of imagination of the Bay are enlarged when enlightened by experience, for the expanse is greater than the inexperienced conceive, while the ins and outs of the shore lines add varied food for a

There are three boats running behis graphic Populistic article with these first to leave Empire after our arrival was the Blanco, and with seven other passengers we boarded her for Marshis over. The great boycott strike was assassination by our comrades is that we noticed that all paid twenty-five for the purpose of compelling the shops if it is desired to punish a tyrant one cents, so in turn we offered a two-bit to be opened and the wages paid to em- should study the science of making at tempts. No more child's play! Seriployes as was done one year ago. No ous labor! Long live the torch and the pay fifty cents, which was given. Later on inquiry disclosed the fact that the in a Populistic county like Coos, but if the earth by fire. We are on the side "Wed, I think the hog should have it were practiced by any common carof labor up to the point of tyranny. been stuck long ago. You don't see riers in the Republican county of Lane, any mourning band around my hat, it would be emphatically condemned by strike, surely cannot fail to suggest to They ought to be given their quietus in Bend where a ship is building, and a litthe master-minds whose thought and droves of forty and fifty. It was right, the further on a wharf to deep water and many beautiful residences. action set the fashion for the race that it was just, it was glorious to extinguish a freight house on which may be seen painted a large Y with an arrow through it, telling us that this is the far-famed impossible with them. They are not town of Yarrow. There are few houses keenest acumen of these men of leading. It is a well known fact that there ex- to be seen, but we are honest enough to and Prendergast have risen, but we find expression in many ways. It was this its proximity to Marshfield is such that people think with unlaborious boldness our free government, the best and freest feeling, probably, that prompted com- it will in the future become part of est and liberty the broadest, passing don, to present us with a handsome As we approach the City of Progress, their thoughts into actions where they from one industrial war to another, cane made from the myrtle and bird's- the first that attracted our attention will do the most good. Such a people These may be symptoms or they may be eye maple, wood native to the soil of was a handsome schooner that had been are always generous and hospitable to a built on the Bay and now lay at her fault, and the Bandonites are no exceptention. Still if the brains and wealth In behalf of the company Col. C. T. moorings, and is to be named in honor tion. of the nation must be devoted to acquirBlumenrother presented the cane in of that excellent gentleman to whom we royally than the citizens of Bandon ing, they cannot be engaged in solving words so expressive of friendship and are indebted for many kind offices and treated us. There was a genuineness in the problems of home life. These mur- complimentary to us, that we have only warm hospitalities at his beautiful their acts of kindness that carried con-

A first-class hotel is the Blanco, and guest, welcomed at the door of every

this country are absolutely controlled vation in the pages of our memory. Post, who joined together to make our the Fourth at Bandon.

certainly succeeded. If any men on the fraternity, and are gifted by nature generous hospitality. But we are loitering long on the road Patient endurance of misfortune will for our destination is BANDON. So the train is boarded at Marshfield den which we bear. and an hour later Coquille City is The smallest and most inconsiderable Editor of the Herald, and other com- the smallest affairs disturb us most. rades and friends. We have seen for A christian when he makes a good stream so much resembles our own Si- a lantern for others. of the Liberty, smoking and chatting uslaw. But as we embark and proceed bottom lands much wider than here. band and wife should no more fight to ery along the coast between the Ump- To tell the truth, there is not a better farming country than is seen along the Coquille, and this all sartage to a country's prosperity is in > wood." It is not presumable that it is all converted into matches, but mostly used in other departments of manufacturing institutions, where fine finishing deep poverty. march of agricultural progress and the first move himself. spread every-where of the pulsing veins and arteries of commerce, are rapidly ordered mind. bringing the whole area of resources into prominence on the Coquille. A brances will grow from them. pressing example of this is the marvel- There is no social problem capable ous manner in which the lumber men being solved at a single blow. are shouldering their way to the fore. There are several large saw-mills to be seen along the river, but unlike other places passed, none are idle. One of these mills that we passed was notice- ing of benevolence, partly kills him. able, that of Captain J. Parker, for ev- A cheerful temper spreads like the ery part of the workings is so thor- dawn, and all vapors disperse before it. oughly systematized that the largest Look the world honestly in the face, results are produced for the labor. The with an equal manly sympathy for the Captain is a progressive man, full of great and the small.

Comrade Colonel Rosa is another Duty is carrying on promptly and lumber. On the wharf at Bandon we is to fulfill the claims of to-day. noticed a large stock of white cedar lumproduce. If that lumber-broad inch preservation in the pages of books. handsome a product as the world can boards and two-inch planks-was on would command a fortune.

The building of jetties at Bandon is its hardest part.

hension of beauty, you must admit that what intellectual training does for the Bandon is a pretty-town. The business mind-educates and strengthens it. ground where the residences are built, not nearly so important as the manner away as far as the eye can see. Here, kind of labor is dignified if we engage too, may be found beautiful groves in in it heartily. general merchandise, drug, book and surreptitiously carries away his corn. grocery stores, together with lesser institutions of whatsoever name for the convenience of the trading people, and

But the chief merit in Bandon is united, progressive people. Nothing is acquainted with any such word as fail. The ban of conte tious ostracism which of the problems that will bring their welfare to the fore, and then they put words good enough nor great enough for

It would be a pleasure to notice some Literary.

(ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.)

with the warmest instincts of hospital- The first main thing a man has to doity, the newspaper men of Marshfield in this world is to turn his possibilities are they. Our warmest thanks for their into powers, or to get the use of him-> alone half conquer it, while impatient murmuring does but increase the burreached, where we meet comrade Hon. annoyances are the most piercing. As IDR, H.S. Walter Sinclair and Hon. J. S. M'Ewen, small letters worry the eye most, so also the first time, at Coquille, the river of profession should be sure to make his the same name, and we might have im- profession good. It is sad to see many agined that we were almost home as the walk in the dark themselves who carry towards the river's mouth, we find the ous of infernal machines; and the hus-

and good man from day to day without white cedar that is called "match one can hear the records of his life with- and London & Lancaster insurance companies.

Deep love can do much, even when i

Let him that would move the world excite contempt more than pity.

resources and owns his own tug, a To read with profit the attention mus staunch craft that we examined at Ban- be so fixed that the mind shall see idea prominent mill man and a dealer in faithfully the affairs now before you. It

All that mankind has done, thought, gained, or been, is lying as in magic p

If for some of us, and sometimes all of the docks of Chicago or New York, it us, action cannot mean doing, then remember bearing too is action-oftenest not keeping pace with the fruitfulness Fools must experience a thing themof the soil and the products of the mills selves before they will believe it; and and large creameries to be seen on ev- then, remaining fools, they wonder that

A turn in the river and Bandon is be- physical powers, and gives more strength fore us. No matter how dull of compre- to resist sickness. It does for the body portion of the city extends from almost We should do our work faithfully at the base of the South jetty up the wherever we are. The character of the river and back to a low elevation of work assigned us is something, but it is one of which we celebrated the Fourth He who makes a baseless insinuation of July. The streets of the whole town against a neighbor's integrity of honor are level and graveled to a finish; the is guilty of an injustice which is atrosoil is good, the water is pure, and a cious and monstrous in comparison with large woolen mill, large brick and wood- the petty depredation of the despicable en buildings that are occupied by many thief who breaks into his granary and

16 Boils at Once Hood's Sarsaparilla Purifies the Blood and Restores Health.

Wilmot, S. Dak. "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell Mass . About four years ago my wife was troubled

"About four years ago by whe was troude, with salt rheum. Although we tried nearly everything it got worse instead of Setter and spread over both of her hands so that she could hardly use them. Finally she commenced to use Hood's Sarsaparilla and when she had taken two bottles her hands were entirely healed and she has not since been troubled. In December, 1802, my neek was covered with boils of a

There were sixteen of them at once and as soon

Scrofulous Nature.

rs. I then commenced taking Hood's Sarsa-illa, and after taking four bottles the boils

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and

& DAVENPORT. HURD

New Goods are Constantly Arriving at the

GOODS

In all Shades. The Choicest Selection Ever Brought to Florence. Also a full stock of Eider-down, Swan's-down, Satins and Chambrays. We are also in receipt of a fine line of Fancy Goods, Silks, Laces.

Fresh Line of Groceries The "last word" is the most danger- And provisions constantly arriving. Largest stock of boots and shoes,

> Those who desire to have suits made to order, should not fail to call and have measurements taken. Elegant line of samples to select from, either from Chicago or San Francisco.

We are agents for the weil known and responsible Premen's Fund

Remember you will always have fair and honest treatment at

Murd & & Davennort's K

THE SEATON STORE

Keeps a full line of Extra Quality

COODS & CROCERIES.

HARDWARE, TINWARE, BOOTS & SHOES,

HATS & CAPS, MEDICINES, NUTS & CANDIES,

TOBACCO, CIGARS. FURNISHING GOODS

Goods as Represented. Prices Will be Found Reasonable

Knowles & Gettys,

The Old Reliable DRY :: GOODS :: HOUSE of J. H. McClung EUGENE.

AS FOLLOWS:

84c Men's Shoes from 10c Men's Boots from 64c Boys' Boots from 25c Men's Rubber Hunting Boots
125c Knee Boots, 1.25 to 2.50

Men's Rubber Hip Boots. 3.25 to 3.50

Men's Rubber Boots, Short. 2.75

Boys' Rubber Hunting Boots 3.00 to 3.25

I Chilomishi defy

Gents' and Children's Rubbers in all sizes and at lowest prices.

Gents' and Ladies' Macintoshes, and Circulars for School Girls. Handkerchiefs from 5c upward. Ladies' Shoes from 1.25 to In Mufflers for Holiday Presents, we can show you a fine lot to select from. A fine line of Ladies', Gents' and Children's UNDERWEAR at astonish-ingly LOW PRICES. Children's Shoes at prices that defy

WE SOLICIT YOUR TRADE. CALL & CUS

"I LEAD. BUT NEVER FOLLOW!" and where the level plateau stretches in which we do it. Even the humblest S. H. Friendly

Goods.

MOODS, LOTING. Carpets, Furnishing Boots and Groceries.

Shoes.

Headquarters for WOOL, WHEAT, OATS AND BARLEY,

Etc. Etc.

Highest Price Paid for Country Produce. OREGON. EUGENE.

For Bargains in Real Property CALL ON OR ADDRESS

THE LANE COUNTY LAND & LOAN CO., EUGENE OREGON.

Read carefully the following affi lavits by prominent citizens regarding Florence property, now on the market at wonderfully reduced prices: TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I hereby certify that I was the original owner of the property known as Frasier and Berry's part of Florence, which E. J. Frsier is now offering for sale. That the same is level and free from drifting sand. That fruit trees and shrubbery do wel upon said land and the same is desirable for residence property. J. G. STEVENSON, Supt. Public Schools, Lane county.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th SEAL day of March, 1892. Joseph A. Morris, Notary Public. TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Being first duly sworn I depose and say: That I have been a resident of Florence, Lane County, Oregon, for the past twelve years; that I am familiar and wel acquainted with the property known as "Frasier and Berry's part of Florence, that the same is admirably suited for residence proper! It being perfectly level and ree from drifting sand. That fruit trees and shrubbery grow well in the soil and that pure well water is found on the same at a depth of from ten to fifteen feet. JOSEPH A. MORRIS, Merchant.

SEAL

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th da L. BILYEU, Notary Pub day of March, 1892.