INDEPENDENCE DAY.

Grand Celebration at Florence.

An Excellent Program of Music, Oratory, Races, Ball Game, Basket Dinner—Free Beat.

A meeting to hear the reports of committees appointed two weeks ago and to complete arrangements for celebrating the Fourth was held in the Odd Fellows' hall Monday evening. The committee appointed to solicit funds reported that the citizens had contributed very liberally. The committee on program made a report which after some changing was adopted. After some discussion it was voted to select a committee of three to have charge of the work of preparing the grounds and making the necessary arrangements for holding the celebration. Messrs. Wilson, Pond and Knotts were chosen as that committee. It was voted that a committee on transportation be appointed by the chair to arrange to run a boat from head of the tide and return to accommodate the folks coming to Florence on the 4th. M. Morris, J. C. Fint and J. J. Anderson were appointed. Rev. I. G. Knotts was chosen president of the day and J. J. Anderson marshal.

The program for the forenoon provides for several pieces of music, reading of the Declaration of Independence, an oration, recitations etc. There will be a basket dinner for which coffee with cream and sugar will be furnished free to all. After dinner there will be a number of races for which suitable prizes will be given. A game of ball will be played between the Acme and Mapleton clubs for a prize of $25. A dance will be given in the Odd Fellows' building in the evening. A steamer will run free on that day leaving the head of tide in the morning and returning in the evening. Everybody is invited to come. Let us have a better celebration this year than ever before.

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICE.

Children's day exercises were held in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. The church was finely decorated with evergreens and flowers in honor of the occasion. A large audience entirely filling the building had gathered to listen to the exercises. The little folks all did their best which is needless to say was good. The audience listened with marked attention from beginning to end and would have been pleased had it lasted longer. Rev. Mr. Knotts conducted the services. The exercises closed with prayer by Rev. Mr. Marsh.

GREENLEAF ITEMS.

By a West Correspondent.

There's no more free silver nor free silver talk hereabouts since the snow storm of the 6th.

Henry Tabor of Alpha expects to move away for good this fall. He is one of the kind of neighbors we do not like to lose.

Mrs. Almasi does not improve in health as fast as was expected. In fact she is no better than she was some time ago and keeps her bed nearly all the time.

Supervisor Rowe of this road district feels justly proud of the improvements in the highways. The Deadwood district roads, too, show more improvement for the tax expended than for many a long year. Ed Potter is supervisor there.

S. S. and Walter Miller of Chickalony creek and their families crossed Nelson mountain and picnicked on Nelson creek on the 12th. They had strawberries and cream and other nice eatables and caught more fine trout in the creek than they could all eat, carrying home a good load of them.

The new Deadwood constable appears to have commenced making arrests on a large scale already. He was seen carrying off a whole wagon load of people the other day, and its nothing uncommon to see him with one. The presumed prisoners do not seem to take it sorely to heart. Probably Clayton treats them well.

SOCIAL EVENT.

A very pleasant party was given last Saturday evening by Miss Stella Beau at her home at Mapleton. Progressive Whist was indulged in till a late hour when a dainty lunch was served and the guests departed. All expressing themselves as having had a good time. The first prize was won by Miss Huston and the booty Mr. Road. Those present were the Messrs. Sophia, Hoeter and Bessie Nicolle, Greta Brynd, May Steinbus, Luella Neely, Margaret McKinnon of Portland, Mabel Crow of Eugene, Mabel Knowles, Yuba Huston and Stella Beau; Messrs. Geo. Nicolle, Tom Neely, Fred Peil, John Dublin, A. F. Hurd, S. D. Read, of Sison, S. O. Starr, W. W. Allingham, A. J. Kiser of Junction, Smith Taylor, Ono Phelps, James Jackson, John Lloyd and Fred Bean.

SCHOOL CLOSED.

The spring term of Florence school closed Saturday. Short exercises consisting of recitations and songs by the scholars were held at the school house in honor of the occasion. The teacher furnished a handsome treat of candy and oranges for the pupils. The school has been under the management of Miss Vanderburg since April 1897 and the progress of the pupils has been very satisfactory during the time. It will be a good thing for the school if arrangements can be made to employ her for the coming year.
