A SPANISH BRAVADO.

REVOLTING SCENE PICTURED BY A can per-of outline regularity atures. It of mean talents CASTILIAN NOVELIST.

Oct hent

chronicle

A YEAH

of the United

on Easter

eatest

tral in

HRONICLE

2.98

/orld

the Map and or One Year, apand payer.

ANCINCO, CAL

IABLE

ding

10

45

ANY PRICE

sold in nearly United States cep them send tamps received

CSMPANY.

Street. New York

UNG.

Aan

in the Country.

1

30

Striking Description of the Daring and Courage Displayed by the Betired General Who Would Not Permit an Eug lishman to Outdo Him.

och hents. It ns that ysical at-ractiveness The realistic Spanish novelist, Valdes, comes to one of his most popular stories ("Sisperfect fer San Suplice," translated by Nathan .y and Haskell Dole) gives a description of a retired Spanish general's afternoon out which will illuminate many chivalrie incidents in Spanish life and aptly illus-trates the reckless daring and courage tifcial of which the average haughty don is liberally possessed. The scene is a sort of picnic grounds in the outskirts of nt and Leville: st and "Meantime the animation had been on the increase among the ruffians. The orery period of unmannerly action had come. One of them climbed upon the table to make a speech, and the others, by way of applause, threw sherry and manza-nilla in his face. Another was trying the exweight, nimated inimated uealth. Miss Anna rites: "It is using a few bescription" Usink ubink to lift with his teeth a companion wh drunkenness had stretched out on the floor. He did not succeed. He merely tore his sack coat. Still others were committing absurd and extravagant actions, making a great noise and uproar. "The count remained grave and silent, inking one glass of sherry after an-But his eyes were no longer, as comprehensible and unfathom-hose of a man tired of life. 1 not speak or move about erent man. man had taken off his aistcoat, and, rolling up ves, was exhibiting his h were really powerful, and oreak empty bottles on his ce blood had come, but he breaking the bottles without g any attention to it. Then he askthe waiter to bring a bottle of rum a large glass. He filled this to the in with the liquor, and then slowly, thout moving a muscle or even wink-g, he drained it to the bottom. Then he sat down at the table opposite the count and said solemnly:

"' You cau't do that. "A flash of fury gleamed through the harebrained nobleman's eyes, but he eeded in restraining himself, and, ing the rest of the bottle into the s, he calmly ordered the waiter to bring him some pepper. He threw in a pinch of it, then threw into it his cigar ashes heaped up before him, and, withut saying a word, with the same scorn ful, contemptuous smile, drained the glass, and, not content with that, bit it pieces. We saw his lips spotted with blood. The company received with oles and shouts of triumph this proof of an unconquerable stomach, in which it seemed as though the national honor were concerned.

"Our neighbors in the other booths must have reached the same happy grade of temperature, for nothing was neard but extravagant shouts, the crash ing of glasses, coarse laughter and swearing

- brightes The count was not yet satisfied with his victory over the Englishman. While he was swallowing with apparent calment by "We can look forward to the time Alsteen Al aforofferred to him he did not cease to de when the structure and motions in the your him with his eyes, carried away uside of a molecule will be so well by a dull madness, which soon broke town that some future Kant or Laplace is one of the per on this ased on exout. His eyes, which were the only part of his impassive face that moved, gleamed more and more ferociously, like FREE.

those of a madman when a straitjacket

Headache

Is often a warning that the liver is torpid or inactive. More serious troubles may follow. For a prompt, efficient cure of Headache and all liver troubles, take Hood's Pills While they rouse the liver, restore full, regular action of the bowels, they do not gripe or pain, do not irritate or inflame the internal organs, but have a positive tonic effect. 25c. at all druggists or by mail of C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Living In Manila.

Living is Manila, says Joseph Earle Stevens in McCluro's Magazine, is dirt cheap-if you are not fond of tinned

France and Germany. "Our cook got 40 cents per diem to supply our table with an entire dinner for four people, and for 5 cents extra he month the supplet of the set of the would decorate the cloth with orchids and put peas in the soup. As a servant, the native is satisfactory if you have enough of him. He takes bossing well, and you can punch his head if things go wrong. In fact, he rather expects it than otherwise, and does not put his erms akimbo and march out of the house when you mildly suggest that the qual-ity of ants in the cake was not up to standard. For ants are everywhere, and unless the legs of your dining table and took stove stand in cups of kerosene, the tuts will be apt to eat the dinner before you do. "For wages, these boys---and they are called boys till they dio---get some by a month, and on this salary my own serv-ant paid 10 per cent to the government, supported a wife and two children, bought all his own food and ran a figureing cock. I don't know how much he stole, but he used sometimes to call on me for an advance, saying that he needed funds to bury some relative. At first I was touched at his loss, but later on, when he tried to bury his mother twice over, I found it necessary to keep a record of the family tree in order not to be led into paying an advance on the cost of two funerals for the same person."

Inside of a Molecule.

The New South Wales government analyst, William M. Hamlet, delivered the presidential address in the section of chemistry at the recent meeting of the Australian Association For the Advancement of Science, the subject being beauty whatsoever. The grinning skele-'The Molecular Mechanism of an Electrolyte.'

He defined an electrolyte as a body in solution or state of fusion, capable of being instanteously decomposed by a current of electricity, and he claimed that if the explanation he offered was adequate for the electrolyte it must hold good for the constitution of the matter in the universe, so that the treatise on the electrolyte has a most important scientific bearing. The method of investigating the action of one body upon any other, he reminded his audience, was brought to a high degree of accuracy by the immortal work of

Sir Isaac Newton. He alluded to some observations of the late Professor Clifford, made over 20 years ago, this au-

Transplanting Muscles.

never cease. Among the most important achievements is the transplanting of muscles. This has been successfully bandaged, and finally a plaster of paris bandage, or a long splint, is applied.

The patient is kept recumbent for two weeks at least, gentle motion is com-menced at the end of three weeks, and eration has been performed several times with great success, the only failures occurring where the muscles were imperfectly attached. This state of things

Gustemala

Guatemala might easily sustain ten times its present population. The soil is rich and easily, cultivated, and, unlike

The wonders of surgery will, it seems,

NENKHEFTA, THE MOST BEAUTIFUL MAN IN THE WORLD.

His Mummy Found In a Cometery Near the City of El Kab-"The Sun Smiled Upon Him," but He Died Like Other Mortals-Wife and Son In Tomb With Him.

The Adonis of Egypt 5,400 years ago s again among men. Not as he was when women bowed before him and his every gesture was looked upon almost as if it were that of a god, but swathed in the habiliments of the regulation mummy. Centuries before imperial Caesar died and turned to clay this man ruled the dwellers on 250,000 acres with a rod of iron. The women adored him for his beauty. The men feared and respected him or his wisdom.

done in the case of a patient who had for half a lifetime been unable to use Near the city of El Kab, which is one leg on account of paralysis occursituated 75 miles north of the present ring in early childhood. The operation is thus described: "A six inch longisite of Cairo, there lies an ancient cemetudinal incision is made on the inner side of the thigh, with the middle optery so old that even the men to whom the papyrus scrolls are as familiar as posite the top of the patella. The sarto-rius is dissected out, cut off at its in-sertion, brought forward and attached the waters of the Nile are unable to say when it was first devoted to the purpose of housing the mortal tenements of to the muscular fascia just above and a the old Egyptians. The archæologist has long found it a fruitful field for relittle to the inner side of the patella. little to the inner side of the patella. "The attachment must be made firmly by splitting the fascia and drawing the muscle through, so that it becomes ad-herent to both inner and outer surfaces. Kangaroo tendon is used for sutures, being the best material. The wound is then closed, and the whole using is search, and many a mummy that today is gazed on in the museums with round eyed wonder was undisturbed here for thousands of years.

It so happened that a short time ago It so happened that a short time ago persons prospecting for new fields in a hill in the cemetery described discover-ed a little pit which apparently had never been made the subject of investi-gation. Excavation brought to light the aret that it was not only something new, but from the archæologist's standpoint one of the most important finds in a very long time. The pit was the entrance to a solid chamber of rock containing a number of stone coffins or sarconhagi. Besides these there lay the plaster is entirely omitted at the end of from five to six weeks. This opsarcophagi. Besides these there lay upon the floor of the chamber a numwas entirely remedied, however, in the later operations."-New York Ledger. ber of statues. Examination of the various contents showed that one of the sarcophagi contained the mummy of Nenkhefta, and the roll of papyrus and the inscriptions on the sarcophagus both gave the information that these were the mortal remains of "the most beautiful man in Egypt and probably the other Central American republics, the world." there is plenty of labor. Some parts of the country are quite thickly populated, When the wrappings of the mummy this ancient Adonis were unfolded, but the others are covered with dense ere was nothing to indicate that the forests and a variety of timber, which remains were those of a man of any might be easily made marketable if means of transportation were provided. ton looked exactly like those of today. But, although Guatemala is much The only odd fact was that the shape of further advanced than the rest of Centhe skull, the hands and the feet were, tral America. her railway system does while unmistakably Egyptian, of more classic mold than those of most mum-mies. The formation of the skull also not exceed 250 miles: there is no internal navigation, and the wagon roads are in a deplorable condition. The mineral indicated that its owner when alive poswealth of the country is supposed to be sessed great mental development, thus large, but it is only slightly developed. justifying the pleasant things which The mines are inaccessible, and, in the were said about him in the perfectly absence of modern machinery, which at preserved roll of ancient manuscript present cannot be conveyed to them, annot be worked with profit.

which recited his history. Some of the archæologists here were at first inclined to doubt the accuracy of the claims made regarding this find. but investigation showed that there was no cause for doubt whatever. It would have been impossible to perpetuate a fraud of this sort. The papyrus roll, which told the history of Nenkhefta, set forth that his dominion extended over 42 miles of the banks of the Nile. His residence was termed Nishwaka, which is supposed to mean that the village where he lived bore that title. "Great were his flocks, oh, ruler of rulers," says the manuscript. "None was so wise. None was so beloved. The sun smiled on him when he jour-The sabers clank'd the men look'd neved abroad, and when he looked with displeasure a sorrow as of death came upon him who had caused it. He was to his people what the waters of the Nile are to Egypt. Great is his name. No man who lives was so beautiful. There is none to take his place." Perhaps there was a touch of oriental extravagance in this, but among the statues found on the floor of the chamber was one which unquestionably was intended to represent Nenkhefta. This was evidence sufficient that the inscription must not have been without cause. According to the standard of beauty which existed in Egypt in those days, Nenkhefta was certainly an Adonis. While in sculpture the ancient Egyptian was not equal to the genius of today he was a man of much skill, and there is no reason to doubt that the statue is a fairly faithful representation of "the most beautiful man in Egypt." In the tomb of Nenkhefta were also the mummics of his wife and little son. It would appear from the information contained in the papyrus that this old time Egyptian was content with one wife, something of a rarity in those days. He was evidently an exception to all rules, however, and this probably accounts for the presence of the mum mics of his wife and son in his tomb. It is believed that if he had had more than one wife there would be some evidence in the form of inscription or otherwise to indicate that this was his favorite wife and the mother of his son. It is held that this must have been his only son from the statement on the papyrus scroll, "There is none to take his Nenkhefta's wife was named Nyleptha. This is the inscription on her sarcophagus, "Nyleptha, the Queen of Nenkbefta, Greatest of Rulers." Nothing is said as to whether or not she was beautiful, as it is plainly evident that the effulgence of Nenkhefta was such that any womanly charm in his family was practically lost sight of .- Wash ington Post.

TRAINING A WARHORSE. NO USE FOR LADDERS

How He Is Trught to Stand the Blaze and Thunder of Battle.

under fire by tying ropes to his legs.

While the animal is down on the ground

the officer takes a pistol and fires it close to his ear. Then in rapid order he fires the weapon over his back, under the pistol practice cease.

bridle with one band.

to him he is again terror stricken.

FORESTALLED HIM.

THE RETIRED BURGLAR TELLS OF TWO UNFORTUNATE EXPERIENCES. warhorse is broken to be steady

He Got Into and Out of the Houses With Ease, but That Wasn't All-How & Detective Got a Clew and Worked It-Escaped Once With a Broken Arm.

his neck, between his legs, anywhere "Ladders, when you find them hanthat an opening presents itself during the horse's futile struggles. Not until dy." said the retired burglar, "may he sinks back exhausted, all a-tremble reem like a very convenient way of getand showing the whites of his eyes, does ting into open second story windows, but after two experiences that I had After two or three lessons of this kind with them I gave them up and stuck to it is considered safe to mount him with the old fashioned way of doors and cela bridle furnished with a curb bit. Up lar windows. to this time the horse has never felt a "In a suburban town that I visited curb. The light snaffle is still retained, nce I found 'cm painting a Queen Anne and the curb bridle is only given a gen-tle pressure at first, just emough to let house in the rainbow style that they used to paint houses in, and that, I suphim know that it is there. Gradually the strength of the pull is increased, pose, they paint 'em in still to some extent. The men had ladders up, no stage, and with this safeguard the horse is taught to stand fire from his rider's pisand I noticed that at the close of the tol or carbine. In carbine practice the horse must be day one of them was painting near a window, and I wondered if he'd leave his ladder there when he stopped work thoroughly broken, as both hands are required in using this weapon, whereas with the pistol the rider may retain the at night. I sayntered around that way after dark, and there it was, and it was summer, and the window was wide open. Mest folks in the country, when Then comes saber practice, and that their houses are being painted, are apt to be a little skittish about the ladders, is another trial to the horse. Again is he thrown to the ground, and he probably can't understand why he should have to suffer this indignity all over and if che should be left like this che they'd be pretty sure to close the win-dow near it and lock it, but these folks again, for he has learned that lesson didn't appear to be disturbed, and as far very well. But when the bright blade as my getting into the house was conof the saber, with quick thrusts flash. cerned it was just about as easy for me ing before his eyes and cutting the air to walk up that ladder and step off in close proximity to his ears, appears through the window as it would have been to walk in at the front door with

But the lesson he has learned from it unlocked. the smell of gunpowder stands him in "Later, about 2 o'clock the next good stead, and he soon gets over his morning, I went up that ladder and in fear. And even with a man on his back at the window without the slightest and another mounted upon a seasoned trouble, and there was nobody sleeping horse coming at him with saber raised in that room. It was all just as easy as in the air or slashing left and right he it could be. I poked around the house knows that it is all a part of his educaand gathered up what stuff there was tion and something to be expected. So worth carrying off and went back to that room and the open window and down the ladder and off. he stands his ground or cavorts about the other horse while the two troopers indulge in their saber practice .- New York World.

"A month after that, as I was walking across the platform of a station on the same road that the other town was on to take a train, there was a man The Chipper Youth Knew What Usually laid his hand on my arm and says, Now, don't make a fuss about it, and

Happened In Such Cases. The fresh young man with no respect it'll be a good deal easier all around.' in his soul for gray hairs and dyed And I recognized in him the detective whiskers swung himself on the car in of the road, a man that I knew meant business, and I went along with him. the middle of a block, and leaning

"Eeing a man of brains, he had gone against the brake handle proceeded to roll a cigarette with great deftness. The up to the house where the robbery was as soon as he had heard of it, which fat man who despises the ways of the youth on general principles leaned was the day after. There he had put himself in the burglar's place and followed in his footsteps as near as he could. He had had the ladder placed in just the same position, and he had gone

ig man as he put the last to his smoke. up that and stepped off into the win-"-began the fat man dow and followed over his track inside

the house as close as he ducements to immigrants. The land laws are liberal, and efforts have been made from time to time to secure the establishment of colonies and the premption of public lauds by private settlers. But all the accessible area is at present occupied, and no foreigner can expect to prosper in Guatemala unless he has abundant capital which will enable him to purchase at high prices plantations already developed. -Forum.

The government offers generous in-

His Own Composition.

A recent article in Le Figaro ~*

against the window gnards and watched the development of a cigarette. "Got a match, neighbor?" inquired the fre

Where do you get off anyhow?"

The Recruit's Religion.

"What's yer religious persuasion?

"Yer what? Why, what I said.

Accounting For the Size of a Fee.

"It strikes me, Mr. Brief," said Mr.

"No doubt," said Mr. Brief. "But said the sergeant to the recruit.

What's yer after o' Sundays?"

"Rabbits mostly."

Washington Times.

"My what?"

follows .

has been put on him. The Englishman continued to boast of his strength. He was now thoroughly intoxicated and talking impudently enough to the others, who were not so drunk.

So you are very valiant, are you? asked the count, still smiling disdain-fully. "More than you,' retorted the Eng-"Don Jenaro started to spring at him, but the others restrained him. Soon calming himseld, be said :

"'If you are so brave, why not put your hand ou the table?

" 'What for?'

" 'To pin it down with mine. "The Englishman, without an in-stant's hesitation, stretched out his huge, brawny hand. The count took out of his pocket a damaskeened dagger and laid his delicate, gentlemanly hand on the Englishman's, and without hesitays been, and al tion and with a ferocious grip he raised the point with the other and drove it through both into the table. ons, cliques, cor-

The women uttered a cry of terror All of us men ran to their assistance A few left the place in search of help. In an instant our booth was filled with blood. From the wounds great drops of blood streamed, staining the handkerchiefs which we applied to them.

?"A doctor who happened to be among the bystanders dressed the wounds provisionally with the few means at his disposal. The count smiled while they were dressing his hand. The Englishman was as sick as a horse and vomit-Soou the count was doing the ing. same, and both were taken to such rooms as the establishment had to offer and went to bed. Every one left, commenting on the barbarism of the deed."

If She Were a Man.

"Oh," she suddenly exclaimed, "I wish I were a man."

"What would you do?" he asked. "I'll not say what I would do, but there is one thing I will confess that I wouldn't do "

'And that is?"

'I wouldn't sit around as if I had bandcuffs on when I bappened to be shone with a girl."-Cleveland Leader.

Scientists measure by the contraction of petroleum ether temperatures sever undred degrees below zero F. At 310 degrees below zero, the temperature at which liquid air boils, petroleum ester remains in a semiliquid condition and contracts with the dearance of temperature oung and healthy and strong; the electric tramping of so many horses on the hard road, and the gallant bearing, fine seat and bright faced appearance of a thousand and more hendsome young American men, were stogood to see. An hour later another troop went by, smaller in numbers, perhaps 300 men. They, too, look'd like serviceable men, campaigners used to field and fight. July 3-This forenoon, for more than an hour, again long strings of cavalry, several regiments, very fine men and horses, four or five abreast. I saw them in Fourtee th street, coming in town from north. Several hundred extra horses, some of the mares with colts, trotting along. (Appear'd to be a number of prisoners too). How inspiring always the cavalry regiments. Our men are generally well mounted, feel good, are young, gay on the saddle, their blankets in a roll behind them, their sabers clanking at their sides. This noise and movement and the tramp of many horses' hoofs has a curious effect upor one .- "The Wound Dresser," by Walt Whitman.

She Married Him Anyhow.

A convict at a French penal settlement who was undergoing a life sentence desired to marry a female convict, such marriages being of common occurrence. The governor of the colony offered no objection, but the priest proceeded to cross examine the prisoner. "Did you not marry in France?" Ho said, "Yes." "And your wife is dead?" "She is." "Have you any documents to show that she is dead?" "No." 'Then I must decline to marry you. You must produce some proof that your wife is dead." There was a pause, and the bride prospective looked anxiously at the would be groom. Finally he said,

"I can prove that my former wife is dead." "How?" "I was sent here for killing her." And the bride accepted him notwithstanding .- Denver Times.

The Difference.

Dr. Pellet-All you need is 25 cents' orth of soda bicarbonate, dissolved in water. You'll get it at the drug storeat the drug store, remember, not at the grocery. Patient-But what difference does i make, doctor? Dr. Pellet-It will make a heap of lifference to you. If you go to the grocery, they'll give you so much that the dose'll kill you.-Boston Transcript.

Peculiar to the State

"So far as I know," said the doctor in answer to a question, "the shortest word of four syllables is 'Ohioan.'" observed the professor, re "Well." his eigar from his mouth a m it's the same way as regards the The Ohioan always gets there wer fetters than anybody else."

go Tribuno Hard Requirement

out to get a good position ag to do practiDurability of Ivory.

The durability of ivory is proved by the fact that billiard balls which for the sake of curiosity had been made of very well preserved mammoth ivory undoubtedly many thousand years old were played with for several months by experienced players in Paris without it being noticed that the balls were not made of fresh ivory. Mammoth ivory is, as a rule, not as tough as fresh ivory.

In Peking, China, so runneth the tale

a mandarin of wealth and taste present-ed a luminary of the stage with a pack of cards made of human skin, 400 years old, and originally captured from a pirate of the most blood curdling sort that city. It says that always played the important and brilliant role in society chiefly because most of the Americans were "Americaines." "It is certain," continues Le Figaro, "that out of teu 'Americaines' residing in Paris there is but one American. Affairs-'business,' as they say over there-absorbs the sterner sex in the United States. In that country the men have neither the inclination nor the world a cigarette is the worst. the opportunity for much leisure, and only pay us very short visits.

While their wives install themselves here the 'good' husband only makes flying visits and is very seldom referred to in the elegant salons of the wives." The writer continues: "I was at an ficial ball not long ago, where one of them was the hero of a curious 'histoire.' He wore on the lapel of his coat brilliant star, which struck me as original and somewhat curious in form. Although very artistic, the order was unknown to me. Some indiscreet per-son interrogated the Yankee as to what order it was. The Yankce replied in a phlegmatic tone, 'It is my own compo-

Superstitious Bonapartes.

The Bonapartes always were supertitious, especially the mother of Napoeon. She always had a presentiment that the rise and fall of her family would occur in the same century, that the glory which was prophesied for them would be followed by disaster. And the prediction was verified. She died in her eighty-seventh year, having lived long enough to see the downfall of all her children.

Napoleou I always feared Dec. 2 as an unlucky day, and it is related of him chu'ch, chapel or 'oly Roman?" that before every important battle he rould throw dice to ascertain if he tioner the recruit replied : "I ain't nowere to lose or win. The "red men" wise pertickler. Put me down chu'ch whom he always saw going to battle with him was a delusion that caused band him much suffering .- Toronto Saturday Night.

Not Worried About That.

Dogway, "that your charge of $750 for Her Father-Well, if you are deter mined to marry my daughter, I shall offer no objections, but before you take you see, Dogway, when you come and this irrevocable step I think it is only ask me for an opinion which violates all right to let you know that I have demy convictions you've got to pay not only for your law, but for my concided to leave all my money to educational and charitable institutions.

Glib Suitor-Oh, that's all right I've got proof that you bet on a bicycle road race once. It'll be easy enough show that you're of unsound mind --Chicago News.

"He," said the fond but firm father "is, I fear, a young man of extravagant quirer.

racs. The number of coffee plants in would have him This is as good as in ting her, better process -Boss - Boss - Bo has to freatly impress the cigarette smoker. "Yes, I know all about" - interit, and then he'd come back to the win dow and got out on to the ladder, and so rupted the youth, "so you might as down to the ground.

well choke your lecture on a bornin. ] "The ladder went up on the right know cigarettes will kill me if I stick hand side of this window, and while it to 'em, but I don't care. It's an easy was easy enough to reach it, still it death. I know if I must smoke I should was quite a little step from the sill the ladder, and he noticed that then he had got his foot on the ladder he smoke cigars, but I don't like the color of 'em. I've got a touch of paresis now, swung back a little toward the house. and I'm due for more. I know you so that his elbow just touched it in the angle between the window frame and think of all the disgusting things in "I know they undermine the constithe clapboards. He gave a little push tution and are wrecking the rising genon that elbow naturally and threw himeration. Now if I've forgotten anything self out again on to the ladder. Then he stopped and looked at the spot where you were going to say help me out. Come to think of it, I've got a match his elbow had touched. The paint was myself. If I keep on smoking these dry and there was no mark, but he callthings, I won't be able to think at all before long. I know if you had a boy ed up the painers and learned that on the morning before-that was the mornthat smoked cigarettes you would lick ing after the house had been robbedhim within an inch of his life. I nearly the paint at that place, on the cupboard forgot you were going to say that. by the window frame, and on the frame itself had been smudged a little, and "Here," gasped the fat man as he they'd touched it over. That was all dropped off the platform, mattering the detective wanted to know. From something about what this country is that time on he had been looking for a coming to. And the fresh young man man with two paint spots of different lighted his cigarette with a grin .colors on the left clbow of his coat, and I was the man.

"It may seem amazing to you that I hadn't rubbed the paint off? I had rub-Captain Philip Trevor begins a paper bed some of it off, and I was going to The Nineteenth Century on "The rub the rest off the next day, and then Catholicism of the British Army" as I kept setting that next day ahead, as we are apt to do, and I finally wound up by letting it go altogether, the rest of it. There wasn't one chance in a thousand of its leading to anything, and even as it was I might have talked myself out of the paint, but I had a watch that I'd got in the house in my pocket. 'Ere, stow that lip. Come, now, and that settled it.

"That was one ladder. This was the And after explanation from his quesother:

"Looking around the outside of a house in the country one night, I found England, sergeant. I'll go with the a ladder lying on the ground against the rear of the house. They had some fruit trees in the garden, and I suppose they'd been working over them, cr on the grape artor maybe, and were going on with the work next day and had left the ladder out instead of taking it down cellar for the night. It was summer, and on the side of the house there ware two windows open in one rocm. I thought I'd set the ladder up then and go in one of those windows. I set the ladder up and found it a little short, but by reaching up and getting a hold of the window sill and stepping up on the ends of the side pieces of the was able to get in colorable through the host what there was to g to go from the last room a picture over on a burea

the man that was sleepin I went back to the room and backed out the window down for the ladder. all by wasn't there! But I'd g by same, and I let go and dr to Re the ladder as I was going "d next window. I'd got out windo ence."-Harper's Bazar. The Place For the Repentant. They had eloped and returned for the parental blessing. "Father," the beautiful young woman said, "we are sorry for what we have done. Will you"-

"Then," the stern old man interrupted, "why don't you go to the lawyer around the corner? I'm no divcrce court."-Chicago News. One Consolation.

1596 was 4,718,0001

The first

An Indication. tastes.

"Yes," the dam der admitted, "he wants me for a wife."-Cincinnati En-

The king of Greece, when conversing with the members of his family, never employs any but the English language. He seldom speaks Prench and only uses Trenchman in the state of Minas Ge-

Sandwich, or

Maine was deliv-