THE STATE Journal of Engene gives a half column sketch of H H Barrett our veteran stage driver. Mr Barrett has driven stage on the coast for upwards of thirty years and much of that time carried the mail between Florence and the Umpqua. He was one of the most faithful carriers the government ever had, it being a rare occurance for him to miss a trip.

THE LOS scale at Minneapolis averaged a little over 91/4 logs to the thousand feet last year. It is a small log on the Pacific coast that will not cut 700 feet. However, it must be understood that in the east the entire tree is merchantable. whereas only the best?portions are saleable on the coast, in the absence of a market for the common grades, This will be remedied in a short time, from present indications,-Pacific Lumber Trade Journal,
