G C Vaughn went to the valley last week to work awhile.

Our school will begin today with Miss Pearl Addison of Lorane as teacher.

Rall Vaughn and Charley Barron came home from Hinkson's logging camp last week.

C W Cornelius returned home Saturday. He has been working near Siedde the last month.

Quite an interesting batch of news from Glentena last week but we believe we could "Guess Who" sent it.

We would like for some of the West's correspondents to give their experience in collecting news, as it is not an easy task to get up a good newsy letter without a little help.

We understand that John Chastain who left here a few years ago to make his fortune in the valley, has bought a ranch in Linn county. Guess he wants to sell his Wildcat ranch.

At our school meeting last Monday W T Cornelius was re-elected director, and I S Day, clerk. There are 19 children of school age in the district. We wish some of our "old hatches" would find themselves an old widow each with a band of children so as to help out our school.

We understand that Walter Chastain who went with the Lyons Bros on a log drive down the river got lost when they were near the head of tide and when he came to himself he was at Mr Weatherson's in Florence. Guess he started to Indian creek and took the wrong road. Perhaps Bertie could tell us how it was.

Another bridge "collapsed." This time it was near Mr Vaughn's. Jesse Bounds and family were the unlucky ones in the catastrophe. The whole outfit, wagon, horses, wife, boy, and Jesse went into the canyon. No one hurt very badly. These "shanghai" bridges are regular death traps and should be replaced by fill bridges as fast as possible before some one is killed on account of them.

(The above correspondence was crowded out from last week's paper. Ed.)
