

it is no wo est in Oregon that we have With the on the 'ris with "

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of 21 oneto pay expense of mailing ess Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buf-

THE E DAILY Only $6:70 a Year. The Weekly Chronicle

Greatest Weekly in the Country, pages, of News, Literature and General Infor-mation; also a magnificent Agricultural and florticultural Department. This is one of the at departments in any paper on this Everything written is based on ex-ce in the Coast States, not on Pastern SAMPLE COPY SENT FREE

The Chronica Entiding. THE CHRONICLE ranks with the greatest empaners in the United States.

THE CHRONICLE has no equal on the Pacific It leads all in ability, caterprise and

THE CHRONICLE'S Telegraphic Reports are the latest and most reliente, its Local News the fullest and spiciest, and its Editorials from the ablest pens in the country.

THE CHRONICLE has always been, and always will be, the friend and champion of the respie, as against combinations, eitques, ofeforations, or oppressions of any kind, It will be budependent in everything, neutral in porting

DO YOU WANT THE CHRONICLE Reversible Map? Showing the United States, Dominion of Canada and Northern Bexico

ON ONE SIDE Map of the World ON THE OTHER SIDE.

M. H. de YOUNG.

in Gold CDC Yell York City

articles and Boly $1000.00 IN GOLD | Given Away Free A $950.00 PIANO | 4 44

"The fool and his money," observed until Whitsen week.

The Earl of Wemyss was on a Fife golf course not long ago, accompanied by an old caddle. His lordship got his ball on one occasion so near the hole that to play it was, as it appeared The caddle revolted instanter, threw fown the clubs and looked horrified.
When he found words to speak, it was to say, "Hang it, me lord, gowf"

Millats and Newman. The author of the life of Millais tells the following anecdote: When Cardinal Newman came to sit to the artist for his portrait, he asked where

"Oh, your eminence, on that emi-pence, it you please," answered Sir John, pointing to the models' dais, and, seeing him hesitating added, "Come, jump up you dear old boy."

Oysters and Strawberries. The oyster and strawberry are said to be the greatest of evangelists. They have built and furnished more churchs, paid the salaries of more preachers and helped more heathen than any world-Reynoldsville (Pa.) Star.

bowls were filled again and yet again. and when we covered our powls it meant we had finished dinner. I have seen the Japanese look with indiffer-ence at a fish cooked in a way that made my mouth fairly water with desire, but when they are served with rice it receives their immediate attention.-Harper's Magazine.

Napoleon Was a Dandy. It is pleasant to learn, if one has Napoleon I on the hero list, that he had very dainty habits in personal matters; that he was fastidiously clean in his person, according to an article in a French contemporary, and poured can long ago and endeavored to get some valuable snap shots had bad luck with fume and finally poured the remainder of the contents of the flask over the neck and shoulders. He was also extravagantly fond of clean linen and during his campaigns had relays of it sent to different places. In those days It did not cost a farm to have "starched things" laundered, for, in account with a famous laundress in Paris, the emperor's "linen" for one "wash" amounted to 336 pieces and cost only

This strikes an American as very reasonable. But his majesty never wore any article but once, and as he afways undressed himself without aid from his valet his principle were literally "cast" to the state rages of the looked all nice and smooth and white if that is the way they ought to look." "Looked all right!" exclaimed her including however, acceded the asherment of the learn that the Little Corporal was so much a dude. Some of his the girl. "I just lifted up the black was so much a dude. Some of his predecessors in the Tullerles were not blessed with such excellent habits, it crack in the world. I just couldn't relief the townstation of vocing how pice

"One day not long ago," said a brick manufacturer, "one of my workmen Faw three rats earrying a straw across the brickyard. It seemed such an unthe brickyard. It seemed such an unusual sort of proceeding that he stopped his work to watch them. Two of the rats held the straw at opposite the rats held the straw at opposite the rate held the straw at opposite that he paint a picture of his per is not allowed to disregard him. If the straw at opposite that he paint a picture of his per is not allowed to disregard him. If the straw at opposite that he paint a picture of his per is not allowed to disregard him. If the straw at opposite that he paint a picture of his per is not allowed to disregard him. If the straw at opposite that he paint a picture of his per is not allowed to disregard him. If the straw at opposite the rate held the straw at opposite the straw at opposite the rate held the straw at the straw at opposite the rate held the straw at the straw at the rate held the straw at the straw a ped his work to watch them. Two of the rats held the straw at opposite ends while the third supported the center. They were making straight for that Chipaman in there kept me waitter. They were making straight for the context in th the river which flowed by one side of the vard. When they arrived at the bits cash some possible been marked by the cash some possible been marked at the cash some possible been marked that he determined to watch if they would come again. And sure enough, at about the same time the next day, they appeared, carrying the straw exactly as before. Having provided himself with a gon, he shot all three to see if possibly be might thereby solve the mystery. He discovered that the rat in the center was blind and therefore concluded that this was the animals kind method of leading their afflicted commune to the water to drink."-Philadelphia Inquirer.

Fool and His Money. It chanced that the miser and the spendthrift took ship together.

En voyage the speudthrift bought "The fool and his money soon part!" sighed the miser.

foundered, and they were all cast into and little consumed and wasted away the water, and the miser, having his till the 28th of May, for then all the

the spendthrift sadly, for he was a A heavy fall occurred in Scotland in After that the spendthrift swam to a raft, where he starved to death.-De-

Court and Witness Agree. An amusing incident occurred in one to him, superfluous. So he simply tip- making a very lengthy cross examina-

The Wheelman's View.

Nothing is so indicative of deepest culture as a tender consideration of Steve almost strangled on a piece of core, and the old gentleman saw that he had guessed too low. Three?' he ventured.

"More than that, father." "Ye don't mean to say they pay ye as much as fi-v-e?"

"Yes, father; more than 25." The old man let the empty hull fall between his knees, stared at his boy and whistled.

"Say, Steve," he asked carnestly, "are ye worth it?"-Lippincott's Magaher first pictures. There were funny streaks of white all through them when there was any picture at all, and she couldn't imagine how they came there. Neither could an experienced amateur who assisted in developing her first negatives and who took the usual precautions in loading the camera and taking the plates.

"I can't imagine what is the matter," he said as plate after plate came out either good for nothing or with only a little of the picture visible. "Those ought to have been good

"Neither can I." said the girl. "They looked all nice and smooth and white if that is the way they ought to look."

"Oh, not enough to hurt them!" said the girl. "I just lifted up the black sist the temptation of seeing how nice they looked and think of the lovely pictures I was going to have on them." -New York Times.

"Yesterday I was going north on bly on the spot.

Main street, when, at the corner of Mr. Chamberla Adams, two women got on the car. I gerous man to cross in delate, but the not see him and have nothing to give waited a minute or so and then went personal feeling against him was so me an idea of his appearance?" in for the fares. The women looked bitter for years after his withdrawal "Vell," he replied, "I dinked maybe

The heaviest fall of snow that ever took place in England occurred in 1615. The snow commenced falling on the 16th of January, 1615, and continued every day until the 12th of March folmuch wine and sat long at the gaming a death that passengers, both horse lowing. It covered the earth to such and foot, passed over gates, hedges and walls, which had been obliterated by Presently a storm rose, and the ship it began to decrease and so by little gold in a belt about his walst, sank to heaps and drifts had disappeared except one upon Kinder scout, which lay 1620, the snow falling 13 days and nights with little or no intermission. One of the heaviest falls on a single day occurred on the 21st of February, 1762, the snow in some places being from 10 to 12 feet deep.

of the common pleas courts the other day. The lawyer for the defense was tion of an old tady when he was later rupted by the judge with the remark. "I think you have exhausted this wit-

"Yes, judge," she exclaimed, "I do feel very much exhausted."-Philadel-cycle)—Why, the organist was consting say he occupies a mighty ionesome poon easy grade with her feet off the sition. So broad, so bount ful is his pedals when she ran into some sharp character that he never turned a trains

Chinese coinage in the shape of a said any more of him than I would say

PRACTICAL Bookkeeping

A STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR

A regetable Preparation for Assimilating the reed and Regula ting the Stomachs and Bowels o

Promotes Digestion Cherrful

ness and Rest Contains neith.

Opium Morphine nor Meteral.

NOT WARCOTIC.

Propo of Old Dr. SAMUELT TO WER

Aperfect Remedy for Constine

Fac Simile Signature of Chalffleteter.

NEW YORK

EXACT COPY OF WRAPPER

ion, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoes,

He Crushed the Hecklers.

Shorthand,

Penmanship. Celegraphy.

Err Handy Money Stocking.

"Yes, you are right," said the conmillar presence at all party meetings.

It is a Philadelphia portrait painter with a request that he paint a picture of his father. "Very well," said the artist:

None who are engaged in any of the mechanic the fiver which flowed by one side of the yard. When they arrived at the bank, they laid down the straw and took a long drink. Then they proceed to make some people keep me waiting five blocks or more while they fish took a long drink. Then they proceed around for their money.

"Oh. well, then, you have a photocustom of English public life the "No: I don't got no fottograf of him speaker is expected to make some re-began to fumble in her purse. Empty! many an unmappy man was driven to the bottom of her skirts. "All right," said the artist, "describe to watch Mr. Chamberlain's handleg him." he bottom of her sairts.

"Well, sfr, it beat all. That woman of the situation. He would pause when "Vell, my fadder was not so dall und "Well, sir, it beat all. That woman deliberately unlac i her shoe and took it off and through a hole in her stocking dashed one a dime."—Morable well heard. "Now if you will allow ceeded to describe his fully on the following respectively." ing dished out a dime." - Memphis well heard. "Now if you will allow ceeded to describe his father as he reupon a chair that we may all have the The artist undertook to paint the picpleasure of seeing him." A dozen anyfous hands would holst the objecter in- and the Lancasier county man comes in his excelass and, turning to the audience, fling out a reply-cool, cutting and decisive.—Sydney Brooks in Har-

How Twain Introduced Bawley. in public as a political speaker," says "D. K. W." in public as a political speaker, says Will M. Clemens in Ainslee's, "As a him. He really found it very difficult will M. Clemens in Ainslee's. "As a man, the really round it very difficult conscientions Republican in his political preferences Mr. Clemens took an these letters could possibly mean. It active interest in the presidential campaign of 1880. While visiting in Elmi- was saving out some money to buy paign of 1880. While visiting in Elimina, N. Y., in the fall of that year he something for him. But then he knew ra, N. Y., in the ran or that year he made a short speech one Saturday that his initials were not "D. K. W." made a short speech one Saturday that ms initials were not "D. K. W." night, introducing to a Republican and this did not prove a satisfactory meeting General Hawley of Connecti- solution to the matter.

demens said:
"General Hawley is a member of arms and asked what she meant by my church at Hartford and the author of "Beautiful Snow." Maybe be will and the like. deny thet. But I am only here to give him a character from his last place. As don't know what, Whenever I went him a character from his last place. As a pure citizen I respect bim, as a per to balance my account at the end of a pure citigen I respect time, as a personal friend of years I have the warm-Mrs. Sprocket—George, what in the whose vegetable garden adjoins mine, Just put in a sufficient amount, with Mrs. Sprocket—George, what in the whose vegetable garden adjoins mine, world happened to the pipe organ in why—whr. I watch him. As the author of "Geautiful Snow" he has added the item 'D. E. W.,' to make it balance. Mr. Sprocket (who always talks binotes, and the old thing punctured. - empty handed from his coor, but always gave him a letter of introduction to me, Pure, honest, incorruptible, that is Joe Hawley. Such a man in politics is like a bottle of perfumery in a give factory-it may moderate the stench. knife has been traced back as far as of myself. Ladles and gentlemen, this is General Hawley."

"This is indeed a sarprise to me."
"Did you hear that?" Mr. Sala whise pered. 'Why, he arranged for the din-

For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature indigestion, for a good many years. One day Use For Over Thirty Years Three

> SCHOL LITERAT ARTS and SCI

sort of dashed, and then one of them from the ranks of the separatists that of I dolt you about him you gan baint to unwelcome prominence. "Now, sir." came the clear, passionless voice, forts. As the canvas is disclosed he sir, came the clear, passionless voice, "will you kindly speak up? I should gazes long and reverently upon the picbe sorry if any one missed what you ture of his departed parent. Then he The heckler, now quite unnerved, fadder! Mine fadder vat I loafed so would stammer out something, and much! But, ach bimmel, fadder, how Mr. Chamberlain, listening with a may you haf changed!"—Philadelphia Times.

she was keeping an itemized account of the household expenses. In looking "Only once did Mark Twain appear tom of each page or two the letters cut. In the course of his renarks Mr. So one day when his wife was in a real good humor he took her in his "D. R. W. 59 cents," "D. K. W., 81"

A Barnun Sarprise. A good story of the late George Augustas Sali and Barnum is told. It was on the occasion of the last visit of the tamous showman to England, when a public dinner was tendered to Mr. Barpurn. Mr. Sala presided. In the reception room, where all were waiting to welcome the guest of the evening, Mr Barnam came in, beaming, and, shake ing hands with the chairman, said:

PORTLAND, OR

pursuits can succeed without reading as studying this standard Magazine of Science and mechanical Arts. It is illustrated with all modern cuts of latest inventions in a the branches of mechanism, and its fund of knowledge is inseparably connected with inventors and mechanics. Sold with In West at clubbing rates.

Desirable

Starsin

And The

Sold With

THE COSMOPOLITA

This monthly magazine best printed in this to all subscribers a ability of all to pay. trated and presents authors as contribut and the Cosmopolis

duced rates at this of

THE ARENA

"We do not take passession of our ideas but are pos-They master us and force us into the arm. Where like gladiators, we must fight for the

Such is the exalted motto of the Arena, and the entire contents of this monthly magazine are upon a plane and in keeping with its motto. The Arena's gallery of eminent thinkers is a group or interesting men and women, and their thoughts are worthy the consideration of all people. The Arena is sold with THE WEST.

LOOK OVER THIS CI MAKE YOUR SELECTION THE WEST.

FLOREN