

ODDS AND ENDS.

Training

Is indispensable to athletic success. In training, much stress is laid upon diet; careful attention to the quantity and quality of the food eaten, with regularity of meals.

That is the secret of strength for every man. No man can be stronger than his stomach. The careless and irregular eating, of business men, causes disease of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. There can be no sound health until these diseases are cured.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and enables the body to be built up into vigorous health by the assimilation of the nutrition extracted from food.

"I was taken with the grippe, which resulted in heart and stomach trouble," writes Mrs. T. K. Caudill, of Montland, Allegheny Co., N. C. "I was unable to do anything of a good part of the time. I wrote Dr. Pierce about my condition, having full confidence in his medicine. He advised me to take his Golden Medical Discovery, which I did. I felt better. I have used nearly six bottles. I feel that I owe my recovery to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I can highly recommend it to all persons as a good and safe medicine."

UNCLE ELI SHOCKED.

He Gets an Unpleasant Insight Into Modern Patriotism.

(Copyright, 1900, by C. B. Lewis.)

"Jim," says I as I goes into our town cooper shop the other day to get a new bung for a bar, "I'm thinkin some of younkers fur the office of supervisor."

"So'm I," says Jim.

"But how kin you?"

"Same as you."

"But think of your duty, Jim. It's the duty of a freeborn elector to do the follerin and the votin and let somebody else hold office."

"Then you may holler and vote fur me," says Jim.

"Look a-here, Jim," says I as I giv's over my surprize at his promptness, "has it occurred to you that the fate of this nashun is tremblin in the balance?"

"It has," says he.

"Do you want ruin and desolashun to overtake this fair land?"

"Not by a jugful."

"And do you want the Magna Charta of liberty used as a dish towel and the constitution of the United States chawed up by calves?"

"I don't."

"Then you must take your place at the polls, shoulder to shoulder with other patriots, and help h'ist me into office. It's the only thing that'll save the kentry fur which our forefathers fought, bled and died."

"I know a better way," says he as he shaves at the bung. "You do the shoulderin and h'istin, and I'll fill the office."

It does beat all how patriotism and the principles of our grandfathers are bein lost sight of in this day and age.

There Are Others.

Fear, delightful little dude, if a man should be so rude

As to sneer at our charming girlish ways, Don't you waste an airy sigh, don't go off and try to die

In some quiet spot remote from public gaze, In the fatigues of fun when they built you, little son,

Try to be resigned and patient, for, you know, If you look around you'll find many others of your kind;

You are not the only monkey in the show.

As you strut along the street, looking ravenously sweet

In the motherly protection of your case, As you dromy larboard eye peeps so babylike

Through the crystal clearness of its window pane, If a brute should send a leer to your pinky little cat,

Don't you sagger 'neath the heartless, cruel blow, But remember as a freak you are not at all unique;

You are not the only monkey in the show.

'Tis a selfish world, dear boy; every measure of our joy

Is polluted with a dash of cutting pain; There are clouds in every sky; sadness lurks in every eye;

Into every life must fall some chilling rain! For you trials like a man, struggle on the best you can;

You were made for some wise purpose, don't you know? Do not feel cast down and sad; there are others like you, lad;

You are not the only monkey in the show.

When you see more many youths honeying round

And their attitude is that of meering churls, Don't you seek a chance to flee, they are jealous,

Just because you are the idol of the girls, Though you never may achieve fame and fortune, don't you grieve,

Don't you food your tender breast with rosy words, Don't you flatter in your brain (if you think 'twill bear the strain)

When the thoughtless in your midst (if you think 'twill bear the strain)

That you're not the only monkey in the show.

Effect of Fear on Wounds.

The fear of poison in a lacerated wound under certain circumstances is in itself quite sufficient to give a wounded man tetanus, or lockjaw, than which no more horrible complication exists. Thus for a long time it was thought that the natives of the Solomon and other neighboring islands lately added to the empire used poisoned arrows and many white men shot by them died in tetanic convulsions, including one very horrible case of a commander in the navy who had made a special study of tetanus.

At length the French governor of New Caledonia, noticing that the symptoms exhibited were not consistent with the use of any known poison, appointed a medical commission to inquire into the affair, when it was discovered that the arrows of the natives were not poisoned at all, although constructed in such a way that a small piece of the bone point almost always remained in the wound. The irritation produced by this prevented the wound from healing quickly, and the mental disturbance produced by fear and perhaps change of climate did the rest.

It was discovered at the same time that the natives of other islands who firmly believed in the poison theory seldom suffered much inconvenience from the arrow wounds, because they have believed the spells given them by their own sorcerers prevented the poison from taking effect.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Inassible Von Bulow.

During Hans von Bulow's leadership of the orchestra at Hanover a tenor of fame was engaged to play a star role in "Lohengrin," according to Das Neue Blatt, and while the singer was rehearsing his part Bulow was forced to go over the same bars a number of times without the new actor beginning to sing. Tired of his wasted efforts, the leader stopped the orchestra and angrily turned to the singer.

"I know that a tenor is proverbially stupid," he said, "but you seem to make an extensive use of this unwritten law."

At another time, while one of his grand intermezcos was being played with great feeling by his musicians, a peculiar noise, hardly perceptible by untrained ears, annoyed the leader for some little time. At first he thought it resembled the flutter of wings, but soon he discovered an elegant lady fanning herself in one of the boxes close by. Bulow kept on with his gestures, fixing his eyes on the offender in a manner which meant reproof. The lady, not heeding this, was suddenly surprised by the leader dropping his stick and turning toward her.

"Madam!" he cried, "if fan you must, please at least keep time with your infernal nuisance."

Too Much For the Tiger.

A keeper at the Philadelphia zoo told the following interesting story of an encounter he once had with a tiger in India:

"With several companions I was on my way to visit some native friends in a neighboring village, and as the jungle paths were the shortest route we made the trip in chairs slung on carriers' shoulders. I was about half asleep from the swinging motion when I was pitched out by the native dropping the poles and scampering off. That's how I met my tiger. With a bound he was on me and had taken a mouthful of my coat, intending, no doubt, to carry me into the dense undergrowth."

"Fortunately for me I had a big bottle of ammonia in my coat pocket, carried it for snake bites, you know, and when the brute took the mouthful he broke the bottle. The whiff he got made his whiskers curl, and one was enough. He rolled over a couple of times, gasping and waving his paws, and then made off as quickly as he appeared. Hurt? No, only a few bruises from the fall, but the close shave took my nerves for some months."

Cycling in Normandy.

The roads in Normandy are splendid for cycling, the only disadvantage being that the straightness of many main routes hides the beauty of the country, for which reason it is often a good plan, when time is not an object, to pick out the byways on the map. This is the easier because not only are the byways excellently kept, but the name of a French village is plainly written up, and one does not have ridiculous difficulty, as sometimes in England, in finding out where one is. Scenery and milestones are abundant, and the decimal system renders them perfectly simple and exact.—"Highways and Byways in Normandy," by Deamer.

An Imprudent Ring.

A marriage ceremony was performed in Toronto recently, with a substitute for the ring which, though odd and amusing, was appropriate for the occasion. The couple went over from the American side of the St. Lawrence river, but forgot to take a ring. As there was no ring to be had in the house the reverend clergyman sent for his wife's sewing scissors, and, with the finger clasp, completed the ceremony.

Drinks and Thirst.

It is a mistake to suppose that cold drinks are necessary to relieve thirst. Very cold drinks, as a rule, increase the feverish condition of the mouth and stomach, and so create thirst. Experience shows it to be a fact that hot drinks relieve thirst and "cool off" the body when it is in an abnormally heated condition better than ice cold drinks."

JOHN C. BECK W. H. WEATHERSON,

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon, December 12, 1901.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 8, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Clinton D. Chorpene of Florence, County of Lane, State of Oregon has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 1246, for the purchase of the SW 1/4 NE 1/4, N 1/2 SE 1/4, Section No. 22, in Township No. 18 South, Range No. 9 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or some than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Roseburg, Oregon, on Wednesday, the 6th day of March, 1902.

He names as witnesses: John L. Furnish and C. H. Holden, of Florence, Oregon, H. H. Plisk and F. E. Jackson, of Ft. Terrace, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 6th day of March, 1902.

I have used Ripans Tablets with so much satisfaction that I can cheerfully recommend them. I have been troubled for about three years with what I called bilious attacks coming on regularly once a week. Was told by different physicians that I had indigestion, but I had the teeth extracted, but the attacks continued. I had seen advertisements of Ripans Tablets in all the papers and had had no success in trying them. Have taken but two of the small sized boxes of the Tablets and have had no recurrence of the attacks. Have never given a testimonial for anything before, but the great amount of good which I believe has been done me by Ripans Tablets induces me to add mine to the many testimonials you doubtless have in your possession now.

I want to inform you, in words of highest praise, of the benefit I have derived from Ripans Tablets. I am a professional nurse and in this profession a clear head is always needed. Ripans Tablets do it. After one of my cases I found myself completely restored. Acting on the advice of Mr. Geo. Rowser, Jr., of 88 Newark Ave., Jersey City, I took Ripans Tablets with grand results.

Mother was troubled with heartburn and sleeplessness, caused by indigestion, for a good many years. One day she saw a testimonial in the paper endorsing Ripans Tablets. She determined to give them a trial, was greatly relieved by their use and now takes the Tablets regularly. She keeps a few cartons of Ripans Tablets in the house and says she will not be without them. The heartburn and sleeplessness have disappeared with the indigestion which was formerly so great a burden for her. Our whole family take the Tablets regularly, especially after a hearty meal. My mother is fifty years of age and is enjoying the best of health and spirits; also eats hearty meals, an impossibility before she took Ripans Tablets.

Reading some of the testimonials in favor of Ripans Tablets, I tried them. Ripans Tablets not only relieved but actually cured my younger, the headache, have disappeared, bowels are in good condition and he never complains of his stomach. He is now a red, chubby-faced boy. This wonderful change I attribute to Ripans Tablets. I am satisfied that they will benefit any one from the cradle to old age if taken according to directions.

My seven-year-old boy suffered with pain in his head, constipation and complained of his stomach. He could not eat like children of his age and what he did eat did not agree with him. He was thin and of a sallow color. The testimonials in favor of Ripans Tablets, I tried them. Ripans Tablets not only relieved but actually cured my younger, the headache, have disappeared, bowels are in good condition and he never complains of his stomach. He is now a red, chubby-faced boy. This wonderful change I attribute to Ripans Tablets. I am satisfied that they will benefit any one from the cradle to old age if taken according to directions.

A new style pack containing TEN RIPPAN TABLETS packed in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—for FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (30 tablets) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the Ripans Chemical Company, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (10 tablets) will be sent for five cents. Ripans Tablets may also be had of some grocers, general storekeepers, news agents and at some liquor stores and barber shops. They relieve pain, induce sleep and prolong life. One gives relief.

I have been a great sufferer from constipation for over five years. Nothing gave me any relief. My feet and legs and abdomen were bloated so I could not wear shoes on my feet and only a loose dress. I saw Ripans Tablets advertised in our daily paper, bought some and took them as directed. Have taken them about three weeks and there is such a change in me that I am not constipated any more and I owe it all to Ripans Tablets. I am 37 years old, have no occupation, only my household duties and nursing my sick husband. He has had the dropsy and I am trying Ripans Tablets for him. He feels some better but it will take some time, he has been sick so long. You may use my letter and name as you like.

Mrs. MARY GORMAN CLARKE.

I have been suffering from headache ever since I was a little girl. I could never ride in a car or go into a crowded place without getting a headache and sick at my stomach. I heard about Ripans Tablets from a aunt of mine who was taking them for colic of the stomach. She had found such relief from their use she advised me to take them too, and I have been doing so since last October, and will say they have completely cured my headache. I am twenty-nine years old. You are welcome to use this testimonial, Mrs. J. BROOKSBANK.
