Poaching In London Parks.

Nearly all the London parks are well stocked with eatable birds, and it is the easiest thing in the world for the loafers to kill them, clean them and carry them off to the nearest hot plate for roasting. A story is told by Londoners of a couple of impecunious Scotch black and white artists who took a garret in Lincoln's Inn Fields and lived for a week on Law court ptons, which are plump, lively, plentiful and tame and would doubtless make a good meal. In addition to poaching in the parks, there is also

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

A regular meeting of the city council was held Monday evening with President Morris in the chair, and Trustees Brynd, Evans and Weatherson in at-

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

The following bills were presented and allowed: G. C. Cumpton, marchal's salary for April and May, $16; Peter Schreuder, tending street lamps, $9; O. H. Peterson, for services as special nightwatchman, $6.

Trustee Brynd called attention to the fact that the sidewalk on Second street is in bad condition. The president stated that the walk had been constructed by property owners voluntarily, without it being ordered by the council. After some discussion the recorder was directed to give notice by publication that it is proposed to have a walk built on Second street from Washington street near the Presbyterian church west to Geary school, has accepted the princi- Madison street, thence north on the old friends. palship of the Prineville public school. west side of Madison street to Fourth
