DALLAS, SATURDAY, JUNE 26, 1869.

THE THIRD AT INDEPENDENCE .- From the Secretary of the Committee of Arrangements for the National Jubilee at Independence we learn that the various committees are at work in earnest, and the event is bound to be a success. Our riverside friends are an enterprising. go-ahead community, and ahat they undertake cannot be a fai ure. The Albany brass band has been secured for the occasion, so that the public can depend on hearing the best of music discoursed. Everybody is expected to bring along a basketful of provisions, as everybody's friends are expected to be present. Preparations are being made on a scale to afford a comfortable reception to all the people of this and other counties who may choose to participate in the celebration. Let no man leave Folk county to celebrate this coming anniversary elsewhere, if it can be possibly avoided. Remember July 3d at Independence.

THANKS .- Our friend Sam. C. Stiles made us a present of a fine buggy whip last week We fully appreciate his kindness, but are almost at a loss what to do with it. It places us in a similar predicament to the Irishman who was presented with a fine trunk : "And what will I do with it?" asked Pat. "Why," answered the donor, "put your clothes in it, to be sure !"-"W hat, and go naked?" innocently responded Pat. This is just about our fix. Now can't some good soul follow Sam's generous example and present us with a fine horse and buggy? We should then have a complete outfit. Sam has lots of the same kind of whips for sale, and those more fortunate than ourselves in hav ing something to use them on, will do well to call at his shop.

INTERESTING TO YOUNG LADIES .- The Committee appointed to arrange the national car for the celebration in Dallas, and select young ladies to fill it, instruct us to state that the ful lowing gentlemen have been appointed to select three young ladies from each of their respective precincts, and see that they are on hand punctually, and properly costumed, on the morning of the 5th prox., at 9 o'clock A. M .: Douglas and Jackson (3 from each), Wm. Ridgeway Salt Lake, Murray Wallace; Bethel, Jefferson Frier ; Eola, Jas. Pumpelly ; Dixie, Jas. Logan Independence, Gus. Butler; Buens Vista. H. Holman ; Luckiamute, Wm. Lewis ; Bridgeport, Wm. Farley; the balance necessary will be appointed from Dallas and vicinity by Mr. Ed. Clark.

LEGAL Fux -On Wednesday morning quite a number of the legal fraternity left town for Dixie, armed and equipped with the necessary appliances to vindicate the majesty of outraged law. Three cases were involved -- one for vio lation of the Sunday law, another the license law, and the third for assault. We understand the scenes in Justice Dempsey's Court were highly amusing, the efforts of some of our young practitioners rivaling that of Seargeant Buzfuz in the celebrated trial of "Bardell vs Pickwick." Of course complete justice was done, the law vindicated, and certain plethoric all but the culprits.

BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS .- In our perambulations in and about Dallas nothing has delighted our senses more than the collection of flora treasures that surround the residence of Mr. Emmens, on the upper end of Main street. Their beautifully variegated tints and their mingled fragrance almost make one imagine himself in Mohamed's Paradise. A home so surrounded, eannot be otherwise than a happy one. There are other beautiful collections in the neighborhood, so we are informed, but as they are more secluded from public view we are not able to pronounce on their merits.

THE EAST PORTLAND HOMESTRAD Co. offer for sale Lots and Blocks in Stevens' Addition to East Portland, at reasonable prices, on one. two or three years credit, or payable in monthly installments. The Savings and Loan Bank at the same place offers to advance money to purchasers on the same terms, to enable them to build them a bouse on their property. The advantages are great, and all who desire such an opportunity will do well to consult the ad-reap much benefit therefrom. See if it can't out of the family?" be done.

THE BALL ON THE FIFTH .- The services of Mr. Til. Glaze have been secured to lead the | as John Thomas, about 30 years old, died sudorchestra and "call" at the Independence ba'l denly at the lower end of Spring Vailey from to be given at Phy's ball on the 5th. Til, is too well known at the business in this community to need any puffing at our bands. By reference to the programme it will also be seen that an addition has been made to the Floor Committee.

IMPORTANT .- Persons attending the celebration at Independence next Saturday will find a good supply of oranges, lemons, candies, nuts, soda water, etc., etc., at L. A Robb's drug store.

BUTCHERY - Dallas now boasts of two mest markets. We don't think both establishments can make the business pay, but hope each may succeed. Competition is the life of trade.

Obituary. in Dallas, Polk county, Oregon, on rday, June 11th, 1869, at three minutes six o'clock, P. M., Ezekiel Kennedy, consort Fanny Thurston, his wife, in the 80th year

Father Kennedy, (Grandpa, as the little children affectionately called him), after a protracted illness from bodily infirmities and old age, fell asleep in the triumphs of the Christian faith, after living an exemplary member of the church for near 40 years. He was born in Mercer county, Kentucky, in the month of Decomber, 1789; in an early day he moved to Frankfort, where he built a State house for the Capitol, in the year 1817, about which time he was married, near Shelbyville, to Mr. Ezekiel Thurston's youngest daughter Fanny, now his aged, infirm and bereft widow.

In 1834 he emigrated from Louisville Shelby county, Missouri. In 1846 he left Independence, in company with Lilburn W. Boggs, Ex-Governor of the State, to sertle on the Great Pacific. After wading through perils and privations for near six months he encampe on a little creek near where Oakland now stands. in Umpqua valley. Having been bereft of all, save the canopy of heaven, for a covering, and having had the last youe of eattle filched from him, in a perilous and almost starving condition, he was forced to remain there until the Spring of the year 1847, when he moved to Yambill county. There he remained for some time, surrounded by a large circle of warm and true-hearted friends. Having filled various offices of honor, profit and trust, with credit to himself and country, he finally moved to Polk, the adjoining county, where he died, beloved and lamented, one of Oregon's oldest and most influential Pioneers. He leaves a berieved widow and four children to mourn his death. But "the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, and blessed be the name of the Lord." "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord, for their works do follow them."

EDITOR TIMES:- Time wears apace; gently and slowly the month glides along down the declivity of time, but slas! 10 new scenes, calculated to inspire and enliven the mind are permitted us to look upon or to enjoy; but the same dull monotony that wears one's life away. But it is to be hoped these scener will change if not for more profitable ones, at least for such as will prove more alluring. People tell me that the coming Fourth of July is to give a new impetus to our town and county.for the va rious committees arranging the preparations show that they know their duty and do it well. The financial committee, with the indomitable yet genul and good humored Richmond at their head, tell the people they must be noticed in the way of the chickamin. Tom won't be refused in this any more than in other things he "goes after," and the people seem to appreci ate his endeavors. And the probability is that the streakings which shall gild the advent of our national anniversary will be hailed with such a demonstration as was never before seen in this county. While these preparations for mirth and festivity are being made the Christian Church is holding its annual meeting at their camp ground, and the different wings of the Methodist Church are preparing their grounds for similar meetings to be held in the early part of July. Let none mar the sancity of the occasion, but keep the ball rolling in the part of the week we paid a visit to the camp- greater. ground at Dixie, and spent a day there with much pleasure; but, alas! with little profit. We were really pleased to see the good order and decorum that prevailed, not only at the meetings but all over the camp-ground. We noticed but a single exception to this general rule, and that exception was a verification of the old saying that clorgymen's children are the wildest of any, to wit : During the afternoon service we noticed the (rather homely) son of a certain Rev. put his arm around the neck of another Rev.'s (rather pretty) daughter, and keep it there at least twenty minutes, giving an occasional spasmodic "hug," to the sad de rangement of the young lady's toilet-this i riew of at least one-fourth of the congregation smong whom they sat. The only excuse—if any-that could be offered for this breach o decorum was, that the man in the pulpit, instead of preaching practical morality or the Gospe of Christ, was actually boreing the audience with a diarrhea of misapplied words, and an exposure of his total ignorance of the principles of the Christian faith. This is the truth. told in all charity. We hope the preacher an luded to will soon realize the fact that he has mistaken his vocation; and we hope the young | cendiary. culprits alluded to will mend their manners, and hereafter venerate the sancity of a place of divine worship. OREGON NEWS

In conclusion. Frank, let me say to you keep up the good work in which you are en gaged and victory will be yours. Do not allow yourself to be bribed, cajoled, or bullied .-Plant youself upon the eternal principles of right, and when assailed from within or from without, place yourself, my little man, upon the extreme boundary of those rights and assert the magic power of a free press. Your manly course in rebuking wrong wherever you know it to exist-not only politically but socially-and commending that which is praiseworthy and noble, regardless of the consequences, are certainly traits of the full grown man. May you live a thousand years. More anon.

WARWICK JR. [Thank you for kind wishes, Mr. "Warwick Jr;" but we think it a somewhat doubtful compliment to insinuate that the editor is not a full purses depleted, to the general satisfaction of grown man, merely because he doesn't happen to be more than three or four inches taller than yourself. However we ain't at all jealous, but reciprocate the compliment by hoping you will soon attain the desirable stature of manhood. Cumtux .- ED.]

> THE CELEBRATION AT DALLAS .- Only one week will elapse before the Grand Celebration at Dallas wilt take place, and it behooves the various committees to be slive and doing The preparations at the grove should be completed, if possible, before Saturday next, so as not to interfere with those who propose participating in the celebrations on that day. Messrs. Committee of Arrangements : see to it that the other committees are "up and doing"-their duty. Let there be no lack of provisions or any other enter:ainment for our guests. The arrangements for the ball in the evening are complete, and it is bound to be a success if there are only people enough present who "know how to shake a heel." A splendid supper will be provided for the occasion.

The Unionist learns from Mr. William Cox. just from Jacksonville, that a series of severe thunder storms passed over Rogue River Valley during Sunday and Monday of last week. On Sunday, the 13th inst., Mr. Jas Kilgore's barn was struck by lightning. The shock was beavy enough to kil a hog which was in the barn at the time. The next day a bouse in the town of Jacksonville was struck. The electric current passed through one corner of the building and tore off the baseboard. Many trees in the neigh. borhood were struck. The storm was the heaviest that has ever been known in that section.

The O. C. Enterprise says: W. H. Vaughn, father of the boy Frank Vaughn, who was admitted to bail in the sum of $8,000 for his appearance to answer for the killing of A. D. Lurkin, has also been held to appear at the next term of the Circuit Court to answer the charge of assault upon Supervisor Harrison Wright, with a dangerous weapon, or intent to kill, we are not positive which.

The Mountaineer says: The dead body of a man supposed to be II. F. Mitchell, a German, was found floating in the river on Monday last. It is thought be committed suicide, as he had been partially insane for a long time. He leaves wife and children in Grand Ronde valley.

According to Portland papers, a little son of Mr. John Donovan, aged about seven years, was drowned in the Willamette river, near the upper sawmill, last Saturday afternoon. The little fellow attempted to jump from one log to was recovered a couple of hours afterward.

On last Sunday, says the Democrat, Mrs. Smith, of Harrisburg, was taken off by that fatal scourge which has been robbing so many homes of their loved and cherished inmates during the past few weeks. The water from Boise river has been turned into the dirch at Boise City and that place and the surrounding country is now suplied with an abundance of water for the purposes of irrigation. It is said that water is not used there to any great extent as a beverage.

The Shasta Courier says: "It appears that Binney, who owns the California Northern Railroad, now in operation between Marysville and Oroville, refuses to sell the property for less than $390,000, and that the Central Pacific Company, who own the California and Oregon franchise, have refused to purchase at that price. Failing to get possession of Binney's road, the Central Company have commenced locating a new line from Marysville to Chico, from which point the road will be extended up the Sacramento valley and through the Oregon line. It is understood that work will be commenced on the new line between Marysville and Chico as soon as the route is located."

On the 31st of last month a party of forty dissenters, under the leadership of Mr. Warren Walling, late President of the Joseph wing of the Mormon Church in Salt Lake City, arrived at Corinne, the greater portion of them coming rom Malad valley, and the balance from Salt Lake City and vicinity. They chartered a car. from the company, for which they paid $1,400, and provided themselves with all the necessaries equired for the trip. They propose settling in Nebraska, on the Missouri river, near Omaha. They are Mormons, but not polygamists, and the Reporter says they will make good citizens wherever they may settle. READ AND LEARN .- Some say that it is no use for them to advertise, says an exchange, that they have been in the place in ousiness all their lives and everybody knows them. Such people seem to forget to take in consideration that our country is increasing in population nearly 40 per cent. every ten years, and no matter how old the place may be, there are constant changes taking place; some move to other parts, and strangers fill their places. this age of the world, unless the name of a business firm is kept constantly before the public, some new firms may tart up, and, by iberally advertising, in a very short time take the place of the older ones, and the latter rust out, as it were, and be forgotton. PAIN is supposed to be the lot of us poo any time to come upon us. Therefore it is important that remedial agents should be at hand to be used on any emergency, when we are mide to feel the excrutiating agonies of pain, or the the depressing influence of disease. As such, do they not deserve the favor and patronage of that public to whose interests they have devoted their energies? Newspapers, by enhancing the value of property in their neighborhood and giving the locality in which they are published a reputation abroad, benefit all, particuarly if they are merchants or real estate owners, thrice the amount yearly of the sum they pay for their support. Besides, every spirited citizen has a laudable pride of having a paper of which he is not ashamed, even though he should pick it up in New York or Washington. A good-looking, thriving, live newspaper helps to sell property, gives character to the locality, and in all respects is a desirable public con-venience. If, from any cause, the matter in the local or editorial columns should not be quite up to your standard, do not east it aside and pronounce it of no account, until you are satisied that there has been no more labor bestowed upon it than is paid for.
