Editor Times:- In order to develop my moral and intellectual faculties, am determined to write-yes, write a newspaper-have my production published to the public, so as to excite my own admiration and astonish the intelligent masses. Now why not allow me such a privilege, when B Brown of the Salem Press is granted such high prerogative. Is he any more of heavy freshet of 1862, and it is thought the Democratic party than any other man? This brings me to my theme, of us.
