From this date all business notices published in the local columns of the TIMES will be charged at the rate of twenty-five cents per line. Regular advertisers are entitled to a quarterly notice, gratis. With this exception the above scale will be strictly adhered to.

THE MORRIS MURDER.—Mr. Weathers, the gentleman who was with C. Morris at the time of his murder in Cheha'em valley, called on us this week. He informs us that he and deceased were returning from a house that they had been examining for the purpose of selling goods. Mr. Weathers had advised Mr. Morris against the project, and told him he had better leave the neighborhood, as the Hess boys would kill him, as they were a hard set; and while talking on this subject, some one fired on them from the bushes inflicting a mortal wound on Mr. Morris, from which he died in about four hours. Cull, Bill and Tom Hess and a man by the name of Bean have been bound over on a charge of murder. Mr Weathers saw no one at the time of the firing, but heard persons running from the place Mr. Morris was shot in the abdomen, the ball lodging in the skin on the back near the spine. We understand there is no evidence positively fixing guilt on the parties arrested but circumstances point strongly in that direction Justice and the safety of the community demand that the guilty parties should be brought to condign punishment.

We have received a work entitled, "Life of Jefferson Davis with a Secret History of the Confederacy," by that most wonderful of American historians, E. A Pollard In diction and typographical appearance it is unsurpassed, as a history of the "inner circle" of the Confederacy—aside from personal arrogance—it is unequaled, and as a work of strictures upon the great chief, tempered by the highest personal arrogance and indignation, it will stand through future ages of American literature and history without a peer.

CORVALLIS COLLEGE.—We are in receipt of the Catalogue of Corvallis College for 1868–69. This institution we are glad to learn is in a prosperous condition, the average number in attendance during the last collegiate year being 110, with a fair prospect for an increase of numbers the following year, which commences on the 8th of September, 1869. The State Agricultural College was located there by the Legislature at its last session. Board can be obtained at four dollars per week.

WEST SIDE MAIL.—The additional mail service recommended by Postal Agent Underwood between Portland and Corvallis on the West side of the river, has been refused by the Department for the present, says a Portland paper. The Agent, however, will not let the matter rest. He will keep at work on it, and show more fully to the Department the necessity of the service The matter will also receive the attention of our Senators and we doubt not the service will be granted early next year.

OREGON NEWS.

James Stephens, a son of James B Stephens, of East Portland, was accidently drowned in the Willamette river about 11 o'clock on the night of the 11th inst.

Mr. Alvin Brock, who was found so badly wounded, near Peora, lately, died on the 11th. He was burried in Albany on the 12th.

Hon. S. A. Johns, County Judge of Linn county, was married lately to Mrs. Smith, formerly of Salem.

The Albany Register says: We heard a rumor that a whole family by the name of Vanatty, living somewhere on Big Muddy, had been poisoned, resulting in the death of one child, and leaving the rest of the family in a critical situation.

A beautiful daughter of Mr. Fehely of Albany died recently, of putrid sore throat.

The next session of the Oregon Conference of the M. E. Church will be held at Vancouver in August 1870.

MISS JENNIE MCCOLOUGH, was sent to the Insane Asylum from Salem on Saturday last, hopelessly insane.

There are four or five new cases of small pox reported in Astoria.

On the 7th, in Washington county about five miles south-west of Forest Grove, a man named John Peris, who had been reaping in the field of Mr. Dickson, had completed his work and loaded his machine on the wagon to return home, when the horses started suddenly and threw him out at the front end of the wagon. They then became frightened, ran away, broke the machine and wagon all to pieces, fractured the man's arm and bruised his shoulder in a sad manner. It is to be hoped he received no internal injuries.

The amount of wheat received at the several warehouses in Albany dur last week aggregates 18,804 bushels.

A movement is reported on foot to secure the re nomination of the entire batch of Radical State officers, on the economical ground that they have all got houses built or soon will have, and the State won't be compelled to build a new set.

The Chinese citizens of Portland have erected a new Josh House in that city, and filled it with fantastically dressed idols on high thrones.

Miss Dickinson says she has been charged with "being a man hater, but whether she is or not, depends entirely on the man." There are whole families of girls like Anna, in that respect.

Since the work has been resumed on the West side road, two and three fourths miles of track has been graded and made ready for the ties. It is expected that the grading will be completed to Hillsboro within the next sixty days.

Mr. James Goodchild, of Eugene, has raised three crops of peas from the same seed this year, and expects to raise the fourth crop. He planted the seed early, and when it ripened planted it again, and raised a second crop, which was in like manner planted and has brought forth a third crop.

George W. Stanford, of Sublimity, Marion county, has invented a water-wheel gate, which is so easily controlled that a purchase of one pound weight will open or close the gate under any head of water.

Rev. J. A. Hanna, of Eugene City, has been selected by the Oregon Presbytery to visit the Eastern States for pupose of raising funds to endow the Albany Collegiate Institute, and institute an institution of learning under the control of the Presbyterian Church at Albany. The Institute already has property to the value of about $12,000, and is out of debt. Mr. Hanna will enter upon his work with a great deal of confidence and enthusiasm, and hopes to raise $50,000 in two years.

California and the Territories.

Dr. A. C. Williams, living on an estate in the country, came to the Lick House, San Francisco, with his mother, and there attempted suicide with a pistol. The shot was not fatal.

Fires have been raging in the woods south of Seattle, recently. Great damage has been done to growing timber. The atmosphere was so dense with smoke that it was with difficulty the steamer reached the wharf. The whistle of Yesler's mill rendered efficient service in directing their movements.

It is expected that the population of Kansas will double within three years—from 1868—from 220,000 to 450,000 inhabitants.

A few mornings ago, in the Fort Homestead Railroad Tunnel, was found by the foreman the following mysterious relic of a love affair which had been lost the night previous: a pretty curl of auburn hair, a lady's garter, and a beautiful embroidered and perfumed lady's hankerchief.

A dispatch, dated Sacramento, Aug. 7th, states that last week was marked by activity in movements of the grain crop. By country wagons and railroad it has been pouring in, while the up river boats each trip came full laden. From the estimate of reliable agents and dealers, the Steam Navigation Company will bring to market at least 56,000 tons. The crop generally in all, is the heaviest ever harvested.

An ordinance has been passed in San Francisco for the suppression of the infernal music of Chinese orchestra bands.

New gold diggings have been discovered in Goose Creek mountains in Idaho.

The people of Montana at the late election refused to remove the Capital of the Territory from Virginia City.

Mrs. Dr. Mary Walker thinks that the death of the President's mare was a judgment on him for not giving her an office.

The first invoice of boots and shoes direct from New York, by way of the railroad, arrrived on 14th inst. to a prominent dealer in San Francisco.

The Mt. Pleasant (Iowa) depot was set on fire by a streak of lightning last week.

Mrs. Wilson, of Council Bluffs, started her fire with coal oil from the can. The oil took fire, exploded the can, burning Mrs. W. so severely that she died the third day.

Mr. Spurgeon has found it necessary to deny formally the oft repeated slander that he believes "there are infants in hell a span long." He says, "I have always believed in the salvation of all infants; and I intensely detest the opinion which your opponent dared to attribute to me. I do not believe that on this earth there is a single professing Christian holding the damnation of infants; or, if there be, he must be insane or utterly ignorant of Christianity."

A Cincinnati Treasury agent caused himself to be locked up in a bank vault to escape the wrath of a tobacco dealer whose factory he had closed, and who was hunting him with a big whip.

Fares on the Pacific Railroad.

The Sacramento Record gives the following statement, as the fares across the continent, and the propositions that have been made between the two Companies—the Central Pacific and Union Pacific—for regulating the same throwing the responsibility of high rates on the Union Pacific:

Charles Crocker, of the Central Pacific, has pressed upon Hammond, of the Union Pacific the justness and fairness of low rates. Finally, Hammond proposed that fare from San Francisco to Omaha should be $111, currency. Crocker telegraphed to Hammond asking the rates to be reduced to $100 in currency—stating that the Central Pacific so desired. Hammond telegraphed "no"—that the fare should be $111. So the matter stands; and the rates of fare, in currency, now, as follows: San Francisco to Omaha, $111; to St. Louis, 131; to Chicago, $130; to Cincinnati, $141 45; to Pittsburg, $144; to Philiadelphia, $148 25; to Baltimore, $147 75; to Washington, $147 75; to Niagara Falls, $145 50; to Buffalo, $145 50; to New York $150; to Boston, $153. Children not over twelve years of age, half fare; under five years of age, free. One hundred pounds baggage (per adult passenger) free. Fifty pounds baggage (per child between five and twelve years) free. Extra baggage, over 100 pounds, between Sacramento and Omaha, currency, $15 per 100 pounds.

The Pullman Palace Car Company have made arrangements to run regularly, one day each week, a through sleeping car from New York to Promontory Point, via Hudson River and New York Central, Great Western, Canada and Michigan Central to Chicago; thence via Northwestern to Omaha. The first car started on 16th ult.
