

POLK COUNTY TIMES.

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Frank R. Stuart, Editor.

DALLAS, SATURDAY, NOV. 6.

AGENCIES FOR THE "TIMES."

G. W. CANNON, Esq., is our authorized Business Agent for Portland and vicinity.

THOS. BOYCE, Esq., is our only authorized Business Agent in San Francisco.

BUSINESS NOTICE.

We have made arrangements with L. Vineyard, Esq., to act as Collecting and General Business Agent for the Times until further notice. This will afford us more time to devote to the contents of the paper, which will doubtless prove as satisfactory to our patrons as our self. Mr. Vineyard will make the tour of the county on business connected with the Times as the weather will permit. We bespeak for him the courtesy we have invariably met at the hands of the citizens of Polk.

DEMOCRATS' ATTENTION!

At the last Democratic County Convention held in Polk county it was resolved that the County Central Committee be composed of one member from each precinct—the same to be selected by the voters of the respective precincts—which members were to report to the Chairman of said Committee, Hon. Ben. Hayden. As few of the precincts have yet reported, notice is hereby given that each precinct is expected to report within three weeks—before Saturday, Nov. 27. In case report is not made by that time it will naturally devolve upon the Chairman of said Committee to appoint proper persons to fill such vacancies as may exist. Send in your reports as early as possible, as important business awaits action. FRED. WAYMIRE, Pres't. Convention, Dallas, Nov. 6th, 1869.

The Eugene Guard comes to us this week in enlarged form, with some new type and wearing a general air of prosperity. Long may it remain on duty to protect the citadel of our liberties.

ATTENTION! TAXPAYERS.—The tax collector gives notice in another column when he will relieve you of your surplus cash, and where, and also hints at the penalty of non-attention to his demands. Look out for him.

MORE PREMIUMS FOR POLK.—The following premiums were awarded to parties in this county in addition to those mentioned by us last week:

Miss M. E. McLeach, Spring Valley—shirt made by hand, by a girl under 15 years old, 1st premium.

Mrs. Mary J. Kramer, Monmouth, trap quilt, 2nd premium.

Miss Armilda Doty, Monmouth, sixteen cornered thread frame, 1st premium.

THE PACIFIC BLADE.—We have received copies of the above paper, the successor of the Courier, published at McMinnville by W. A. McPherson.—It is a decided improvement typographically on its predecessor, but its contents are anything but a burden in the way of reading matter. In politics, we notice very little difference between it and the Courier. If our conscience would allow us we might wish it success.

WEST SIDE MAILS.

The following from the Statesman will no doubt be interesting to our readers this side the river:

We learn from Mr. Underwood, the Postal Agent, that he has earnestly recommended changes in the Postal Service on the west side of the Willamette, which recommendations will doubtless be adopted, as Senator Williams has strongly endorsed the recommendations made, and Senator Corbett is well known to be in favor of them.

The routes recommended are: From Salem to Eola, Independence, and via Monmouth to Buena Vista and back, tri weekly.

From Salem by Lincoln, Zena and Bethel, to Wheatland, weekly.

From Portland by Forest Grove, Lafayette, McMinnville, Amity and Dallas, to Corvallis, six times a week.

Mr. Underwood prepared his recommendations, expecting to have them reach the Department in time for new advertisements, but the publication was two months earlier than usual. They have been forwarded back by a strong letter from Senator Williams, and will also be urged by Senator Corbett. The route from Salem to Dallas will run, as now, to leave Dallas in the morning and return the same day.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Fall term of the Circuit Court for Polk county will commence on Monday, 15th inst.—Judge Boise.

THE BULLS AND THE BEARS.

The long and the short of the extraordinary gold movement in Wall street, New York, on the 24th of September, when gold reached 160 premium, is simply as follows: The week previous, gold having ranged at 136—a higher rate than usual—the "bears," deeming that it could not stand long at that figure, sold "short," that is, all their gold, and in fact more than they really possessed, hoping that by throwing their ready gold and promises to pay in gold on the market, they could bring the premium down, and thus be enabled to buy it back at a reduced figure and make a fine speculation. But the "bull" clique was stronger than they anticipated. They bought their gold and asked for more at the same or higher rates. A week rolled around. The "bears" must have gold to meet their obligations. The "bulls" then had them in their power. Diamond had cut diamond. The stupid "bears" had become impaled on taurine horns. The gold they needed they could not now purchase at less than from 150 to 160. The tricky speculators had been caught, and ruin stared them in the face. To get out of this gambling dilemma, which had turned contrary to their expectations, these rascally "bear" gold gamblers besought the interference of the Government Treasury. The Secretary of the Treasury had given his assurance as a man and as a high Government official that the sales of gold from the Treasury Department should be uniform and regular. Should he now violate his word and break his faith as a Government officer, and sell an unusual quantity of gold at an unusual time, for the mere sake of rescuing one set of gold gamblers from the toils of another? The answer of every honest man is evident. And yet this thing was done. Boutwell, on the 24th, at the instance of the despairing gold-gambling "bears," announced that on the next day he would throw four millions of Government gold on the market. This rascally combination of the Government Treasury with gold gamblers can find no excuse in circumstances or no parallel in villainy. It is urged that if it had not been done the "bears" would have been ruined. But it can be answered that, being done, the "bulls" were ruined. And is a "bear" gold gambler any more sacred than a "bull"?

The people of this country can now see to what purpose the immense accumulation of gold in the Government Treasury, wrung from the people by excessive taxation, is being used. It is held as a resource to aid the gambling pets of the Administration in their rascally schemes. This complicity of the Government Treasury with gold gamblers presents two great questions to the tax-payers of the country. How much longer will they be taxed so inordinately in order that the immense accumulation of gold in the Treasury can be used by the Radical gold gamblers to make colossal fortunes by their gaming speculations? And how can the thing be effectually remedied? Upon the first question the people should ponder. As to the second question, we confess to radical ideas. We believe that the ax should be laid to the root of the tree. These bears are of course large bond-holders, and it is their interest and object to force gold down and their bonds up. Their wealth consists in paper rags now fictitiously quoted at high gold figures. They were illegally and fraudulently obtained. They are really worth no more than so much blank paper. And just so soon as the people resolve that they have had enough of this stock and gold gambling, and high and class legislation; just so soon as they declare that this swindling bond-holding debt is already more than justly paid, just that moment the fans are knocked out of the bear's mouth, and America will stand disenthralled, honored and free. Taxes will be light and labor will be rewarded. God speed the day.

COURT IN YAMHILL.—The Circuit Court for Yamhill county, Boise Judge, will convene on Monday next at Lafayette.

IN LIMBO.—A few days ago John Brunner was arrested under charge of stealing money belonging to Highland Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Eola precinct, Polk county. He is now in jail, awaiting trial at the District Court.—Statesman.
