The Grand Jury April Term of Circuit Court for the year 1868, beg leave to submit the following report: That we find the jail in good condition, except one door to one of the cells, which we find has a hole cut through, large enough for a man to crawl through. We also find the Court House in good condition, except the caps at the bottom of the flues in the main room upstairs; we also would recommend that in Whitson's office there should be a sheet of zinc or iron under the stove; we also would recommend the removal forthwith of a pile of dirt and rubbish at the south door of the Court House, and would further report the jury on the south very bad condition—all of which is respectfully submitted.

ISAAC LEVENS, Foreman.

The court adjourned sine die on Friday May 1st.

THE MAY-DAY EXCURSION announced in our last to come off on Friday May 1st, on Mt. Pisgah, was held on the premises of Mr. Isaac Levens about a quarter of a mile from town. The first fire in order was staged by the Glee Club led by Frank Seering and Miss Hester Robbins. A hort address was delivered by Judge Whitson after which the "May Queen," Miss Geig Levens, was crowned. The ceremony being conducted with the pomp of a "Queen's" apparatus, so that gossamer henns with that dignity were being borne. Our reporter says that everything passed off pleasantly and to the satisfaction of all present save and except himself, and the only "particular" he can complain of particularly, is the fortune which fell to his lot being excluded from any conspicuous participation in the coronation of the day.
