

For President, HORATIO SEYMOUR, OF NEW YORK.

For Vice President, FRANK P. BLAIR, OF MISSOURI.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, S. F. CHADWICK, of Douglas County, JOHN BURNETT, of Benton County, JAS. H. SLATER, of Union County.

OF COURSE THEY DON'T.—The English press comes down on the action of the New York Convention and admonishes the American people to repudiate it at the polls; in short the Nobility of England neither endorse the platform nor the candidates of the National Democratic Convention. Now this is all natural enough. Great Britain always opposed the Democratic party of the United States. And why? Simply because that party has ever been opposed to Monarchies; opposed the oppression of the people for the benefit of an aristocracy; opposed England's iron rule and tyrannous domination over Ireland and is death to feckism everywhere. The Republican party suits the Monarchists of Great Britain to a dot. It is tyrannical—despotic. This is the secret to the opposition of the English press to the Democratic nominations and platform. Some of the republican papers are parading in their columns what this, that and the other Johnny Bull journal says against the Democratic party. This action on the part of republican editors betrays a great want of sagacity; and especially is this true in view of the fact that they are making an effort to capture a portion of the Fenian vote. Fenians are being hung and quartered in England and Ireland besides being hunted down on the high seas. The Republican party is the enemy of the Fenians while the Democracy has ever been their friends. England knows this and acts accordingly. The despots of the entire Old World are pleased with the Rump Despotism down South, for, so long as such a state of things exists, they can point to the experiment of self government in the United States as a stupid failure—as an abortion. While the republican party maintains the ascendancy the bayonet is substituted for civil process. Of course the Britishers don't like the Democratic party. We are glad of it. There is no love lost.

SCARED.—The Rumpies, alarmed at the bold stand taken by the New York Convention, against the continuance of that nuisance, the Freedmen's bureau, talk seriously about repealing or limiting the infamous arrangement. It is too late to scare now. Should the law be repealed or modified during this session of the Rump it will be most obvious to all that the Democracy is entitled to the credit therefor. What will the Rump organs of Oregon say in the event the great bureau is abolished? Will they continue to support Congress? They all say that said bureau is as necessary to-day as it ever was, (in which conclusion we heartily join them though from a different standpoint—the thing never having been necessary) and that Congress would not do the country and its own record the violence to repeal it. Now, if the thing should be abolished, Congress, according to republican logic, would be guilty of a great wrong. Will they come down with their thunders upon that body?

CLEANED THEM OUT.—The Democratic County Superintendent of Multnomah county has discharged from the public Schools of the county such teachers as sing John Brown and him glorified and require scholars to join in the blasphemy. Of course the Oregonian is worried at this.

THE most ludicrous thing we have read for many a day was the dispatch to the effect that the Democracy had carried the election in Mississippi by "gross frauds."

THE CASE ALTERED.

Once upon a time, and after the close of the war, the Southern States were invited to elect Representatives to Congress and take their places in the halls of legislation. This they did, and in good faith. The majority of that body (Congress) being composed of bigots, knaves, thieves and idiots, discovering that the Southern States had elected honest men—men gifted with a high sense of honor—men possessed of attainments of a high order, feared to admit these Representatives to seats lost their own occupations should vanish. They saw clearly enough that it would not do to admit such men to seats and hope to continue in their mad career of agrarianism, murder and thievery. They accordingly set themselves about the work of devising ways and means whereby these Southern States could be kept unrepresented. A test oath was improvised. Members elect, applying for seats in either House of Congress had to take and subscribe to an oath, that they had never aided, abetted or sympathized with the rebellion. The South, desirous of the renewal of amicable relations between the sections, generally elected men who were not obnoxious to the charge of even sympathizing with the rebellion. These men applied for admittance—were interrogated as to whether they would vote with the radicals, and refused because they would not sell themselves to the corrupt, perjured cabal, although they could take the prescribed oath.—The Rump then doubles upon its own tracks by enacting the reconstructive measures—placing the Southern States under a military dictatorship. These reconstruction acts provide that, when any State Government is organized under them, Representatives from such State shall be admitted to seats in Congress—subject of course to the limitations and disabilities imposed by the aforesaid test oath. Well, this invention (the test oath) has already returned to plague its inventors. The telegraph under date of July 4, informs us that two members from North Carolina—Boyden and Dicky—elected under the reconstruction laws and now in Washington—cannot take the oath; yet these gentlemen, upon agreeing to be black republicans, were sworn in, minus the test oath! And this is all done by the party of all integrity! If Wilkes Booth, Jeff. Davis and Capt. Wirz were to present themselves and claim seats as members of Congress, they would all be admitted to seats upon pledging themselves to vote and act with the radical desecrationists.—What a parody upon decency, honesty and consistency. To be a wretch of the first water is the best recommendation one can have to republican favor. It is copartners in crime which the leaders of that party seek after, and who they must have at no matter what cost to the people.

WE WANT IT STOPPED.—The Unionist concern, no longer able, it would seem, to borrow the SIGNAL, has betaken itself to appropriating it. Certain subscribers about Salem complain. Now Mac, you can have our paper by the quarter—at one dollar—payable in advance. We again give you notice that we cannot afford to exchange with you.

PROFOUND.—Macfierson of the Unionist has made the discovery that Horatio Seymour is the uncle of the duke of Argyll and nephew of Cleopatra; He probably gleaned this item of intelligence from the book containing four Kings. He is said to be a close student of this sort of literature.

Huntington is bleeding freely for the "lost cause" of radicalism. He has twice purchased the Unionist establishment out of the voracious clutches of the Sheriff. His butter depends upon the success of the disUnion ticket this fall. If Seymour is elected (of which there can be no doubt) the Indian Department will be transferred to other hands.

SOMEBODY invited Dickens, while in Boston, to attend one of the churches on Sunday. Dickens declined to go, because he didn't take any interest in American politics.

HONORABLE.

At a meeting of the Republicans of Pennsylvania held in Lancaster, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted, and from which it would seem that the republican party has been the first to make honorable mention of J. Wilkes Booth:

Resolved, That the Republican Senator who now falls in his great duty to his country by withholding his support from the conviction of Andrew Johnson upon the Articles of Impeachment, so justly preferred against him by the American people through their loyal Representatives in Congress, and so clearly proven, forever forfeits all claims to honor and trust, and merits the condemnation of every man, woman and child in the land; that by such action he lends a stronger hand to TREASON THAN DID BOOTH THE ASSASSIN OF LINCOLN; that he betrays the trusted hopes of millions, and commits a crime against liberty that will damn his name and memory to never ending infamy; that even hesitation now, on the part of any Republican Senator, to execute justice upon the greatest criminal of the age, will be a deliberate bid for the commission of further treason, a reward for dangerous usurpation and an encouragement for oppressive and degrading tyranny; that it will elevate perjury to a virtue, destroy fidelity to principle, and make corruption honorable.

The above was one of a series of resolutions, reported by a committee and adopted by the meeting without a dissenting voice.

After the adoption of the Committee's resolutions, Mr. Jay Cadwell, a leading mongrel of Lancaster, offered the following:

Resolved, That Lyman Trumbull and Wm. Pitt Fessenden, in seeking their names to the desk, and voting to acquit Andrew Johnson of the crime with which he is charged, have rendered the name of J. Wilkes Booth honorable.

WHAT DOES HE MEAN.—Is Grant convinced that there is no earthly show for his election and is therefore unwilling to relinquish the office he now holds? Or does he propose to use the authority vested in him by the Rump for the purpose of illegally electing himself through military interference with the elections? It is time the people were advised whether or not the man who comes before them for their suffrages for the highest office in their gift has self respect enough to resign a position already held by him.—Having a very indifferent opinion of the man's sense of honor or shame, we predicted when Grant was nominated for the presidency that he would not resign the situation he already held.—We were assured, however, by republicans who know something of the finances of things, that we were mistaken—that they had too much confidence in the man to suppose for a moment that he would be guilty of so unseemly and unmanly an action in the face of the example set by Gen. McClellan.—Blood will tell.

THE MAJORITY TO RULE.—Everybody in Oregon has heard the republicans loudly protesting during the last seven years that the majority should in all cases rule—that they were ever ready to bow to the will of the majority, &c. Now let us try their practice by their professions. Geo. H. Williams and H. W. Corbett are Senators in Congress from Oregon. These gentlemen, instead of bowing to the will of a large majority of their constituents, propose and advocate measures which have been most emphatically and utterly repudiated by them. They advocate negro suffrage, the continuance of the Freedmen's bureau and the perpetuation of military rule and supremacy. Oregon has repudiated all these things. Ought not Williams and Corbett resign?

A Republican subscriber at Salem complains that, as soon as the SIGNAL reaches him each week, McPherson "goes for it" and he never gets to see it again.

Tell Mc, that, for three dollars, coin, in advance, he can have our paper sent regularly to his address for one year.

THE Record says that the greater portion of the crowd in attendance at the Democratic jubilee in Salem on Saturday, the 11 inst., was composed of Republicans! This is rather a fatal admission for a woolly paper to make.

THE old Catiline, Stevens, has pounced upon the President again with a numerous progeny of "articles of Impeachment."

BRISTOL'S SASSAPARILLA AND PILLS are prepared expressly for the cure of those diseases that have their origin in impure blood and foul and vitiated humors, and for 35 years they have proved that in all eruptive skin diseases, in all miasmatic and serofulous or cancerous diseases, and in every form of ulcers and scabious diseases, these two great remedies never fail in affording a cure. 565 HOSTETTER, SMITH & DEAN. TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Specials to the morning papers say that several politicians and members from the Tammany Hall Convention, and some who are dissatisfied with the nomination of Grant, are trying first to compel Seymour to withdraw, or failing in this, endeavor to enlist Chase or some prominent statesman as third candidate for Presidency. Should Chase refuse, John Quincy Adams will be proposed for President and Sam. Carrey for Vice President. The Convention will be held August 8th, at Pittsburg or Cincinnati. The leaders of this movement are said to embrace Lew. Campbell of Ohio, Gen. Fremont, Sam. Carey and many of the participants in the old Philadelphia Convention two years ago.

Chicago, July 14.—The Democrats intend holding an immense ratification meeting in this city to-morrow night. Frank Blair and Geo. H. Pendleton are among the speakers.

A Washington special says that Congress will probably not adjourn until after the 23d, when the ten days will have expired since the bill excluding from the electoral college unreconstructed States was presented to the President.

From Mississippi. Jackson, July 14.—Gov. Humphrey and family were yesterday ejected from the Executive mansion by military authorities.

It is claimed that the Democrats carried the recent election in this State by gross frauds.

Washington, July 15.—The committee on Elections reported the credentials of Boyden and Dicky, members elect from North Carolina, but those gentlemen were unable to take the test oath. The committee recommended that the oath prescribed for persons whose disabilities have been removed be administered. Agreed to. Both gentlemen were then sworn in and took their seats.

GRANT WHIPPED BY A NEGRO.—We understand that Thomas Grant a half-breed youth and reputed son of General U. S. Grant, was badly beaten at Knight's Ferry, Stanislaus county, a few days since, by a gentleman of the African persuasion, and is not expected to recover. The bottom rail is getting on top. The difficulty arose from the desire of the freedman to more thoroughly commingle the blood of the races, and especially to become a relative of our future president. The negro has been committed to await the action of the grand jury. The General has our sympathy in this melancholy affair.—Tuolumne City News.

RAILROAD LANDS.—Mr. Gaston, President of the Oregon Central Railroad Co., West side, has received a letter, dated June 22d from the Hon. C. Hubbard, informing him of the passage by Congress of the act extending the time for completing the first and second sections of the Oregon Central Railroad. The following is a copy of the act:

To amend an act entitled "An act granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Central Pacific railroad, in California, to Portland, in Oregon."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That section six of an act entitled "An act granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Central Pacific railroad, in California, to Portland, in Oregon," approved July twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty six, be so amended as to provide that instead of the times now fixed in said section, the first section of twenty miles of said railroad and telegraph shall be completed within eighteen months from the passage of this act, and at least twenty miles in each two years thereafter, and the whole on or before the first day of July, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty.

CONSISTENT GRANT.—It is a fact to be noted in connection with Grant's letter, "endorsing the resolutions" of the "Shycoogy" Convention, that with the "breeding in" theory which is part of the Rump creed, his past life has been most signally accordant.—Dallas City has the honor to be the resting place of one of Grant's widows—a la Mrs. Thad.,—and of a summer's day a smart, little grayback eating, Miss Grant may be seen majestically waddling through the streets. Wonder if "Grant the elder," wouldn't like to have Mr. Bonner to trim up this little incident "according to contract?" The old man would be "tickled to death."—Grande Ronde Sentinel.

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER.—Many thousands of sick people have been restored to health by Bristol's Sarsaparilla and Pills, and more certificates of cures and letters of grateful thanks have been received in their favor than were ever written for all other medicines combined. Sufferers! whatever may be your ailment, give these two remedies a trial. No matter how often you may have been disappointed, they will benefit and make like cures you. 565 HOSTETTER, SMITH & DEAN. Legacies Left by Buchanan.

The will of the late ex-President Buchanan has been filed in the Register's office, at Lancaster Pennsylvania. The following are the bequests: $2,000 to the poor of Lancaster City, in addition to the $4,000 previously donated; $1,000 to the Presbyterian church of Lancaster, of which deceased was a member; $5,000 to Esther Parker, house keeper of the deceased—being in addition to $2,000 heretofore given her; $2,000 to Martha J. Lane, widow of James B. Lane, deceased, Peter Hillier, Mary Smithgall, and Lizzia Stover, servants, $100 each.

The books, plate and furniture to Mrs. Harriet L. Johnson, Rev. E. Y. Buchanan, and J. Buchanan Henry, to be divided equally among them, allowing Esther Parker $200 out of the amount. The balance of the estate, real and personal, is directed to be divided among his heirs as follows: One-fourth to Mrs. Harriet L. Johnson, one-fourth to Rev. E. Y. Buchanan, neither of whom is to be charged with considerable advancements which have been made to them, and the balance to J. Buchanan Henry, son of his sister, Harriet B. Lane, and the three sons of his nephew, James B. Lane, deceased; Mary E. Darham, daughter of his sister, Mary Yates, deceased; to Maria B. Weaver, Jessie Magaw (formerly Jessie Weaver), James B. Weaver and John B. Weaver.

The testator states that "whilst feeling full confidence both in the integrity and business capacity of Edward E. Johnson, the husband of my niece, Harriet Lane Johnson, I yet deem it prudent to secure to her a maintenance against the unforeseen contingencies of future years. For this purpose I appoint my hereafter named executors, Hiram B. Swarr and Edward Y. Buchanan, or the survivors of them, trustees or trustee, and direct them to retain in their hands, and invest and manage to the best advantage, free and discharged from the debts and control of her said husband, two-thirds of the amount bequeathed her as my residuary legatee." The testator appoints Edward Y. Buchanan, his brother, and Hiram B. Swarr, Esq. to be the executors of his last will and testament.

The Wheatland property is given to Harriet Lane Johnson, niece of the testator, for which she pays $12,000 out of her residuary share of the estate. The will is dated at Wheatland, January 27, 1866, and a codicil of the 9th of August, 1867, provides that William B. Reed is to have one thousand dollars to pay the expenses and secure the publication of a biographical work of deceased; and to Mrs. Mary L. Reed, wife of William B. Reed, the deceased gives five thousand dollars, a legacy for her separate use and benefit, as a compensation for the work Mr. William B. Reed has undertaken to perform. All deceased's private papers, correspondence, etc., are directed to be given to Mr. Reed for this purpose. The estate is estimated at three hundred thousand dollars.

NOT GENERALLY KNOWN.—Martin Van Buren is the only man who held the offices of President, Vice President, Minister to England, Governor of his own State, and member of both houses of Congress. Thomas H. Benton is the only man who held a seat in the United States Senate for thirty consecutive years. The only instance of father and son in the United States Senate, at the same time, is that of H. H. Henry Dodge, Senator from Wisconsin, and his son, Augustus C. Dodge Senator from Iowa. General James Shields is the only man who ever represented two States in the United States Senate.—At one time he was Senator from Illinois and subsequently from Minnesota. John Quincy Adams held positions under the government during every administration from that of Washington to that of Polk, during which he died. He had been Minister to England, member of both houses of Congress and President of the United States.—He died while a member of the House of Representatives.

We see it stated in the POLK COUNTY (Oregon) SIGNAL, that there is strong talk of the removal of Geo. L. Woods from the gubernatorial chair of Oregon. It will be remembered that Judge Wilson charged that there was a fraud in the Grant county votes, whereby Woods was elected. If he holds the office unlawfully, and it can be so proven satisfactorily, turn him out; if not, let him alone. The poor fellow suffers enough remorse of conscience for the defeat in Oregon, and for the part he took in the canvass in this State last year.—Solano (Cal) Sentinel.

McPherson, the poker flat, successor to McDonald the stupid and "pious" hummer, as editor of the Unionist complains because we won't exchange with him. We never refuse to exchange with any paper in Oregon which is conducted with respectability or by a man of tolerable habits.

DEFAULTER.—From distant parties directly from Yamhill county we learn that the late County Treasurer, Mr. C. E. Eekles, had fallen behind some $4,000 in his settlement with the county; and that his securities had been notified of the delinquency. It will be remembered that a short time since the late Treasurer of said county reported himself robbed of about nine hundred dollars in currency, belonging to the county. It occurred to us at the time that the pockets of the Treasurer constituted a singular depository for county funds and effects. It was unfortunate that he had not been robbed of the whole amount while he was about it. This was a decided blunder; and a blunder, they say, is a crime.

Yamhillians are wedded to loyalty; let them have it, subject however, to all of its inherent adjuncts.

HORATIO Seymour and Frank P. Blair have both signified their acceptance of the nominations tendered them by the late New York Convention. Their letters of acceptance have not yet reached this coast.

A third party movement is talked of with Chase or some other republican as standard bearer. This arrangement would have the effect of demoralizing the Republicans—especially at the South—where Chase would carry the solid nigger vote, and of course weaken the republican force correspondingly.
